Peter Doig Peter Doig, Adrian Searle, Michael Werner (Gallery), 2002 Works on paper play an important role in Peter Doig's oeuvre from the artist's adept maneuvering through drawing, etching and watercolor to the various commercial and personal source materials he uses in the studio. This first publication devoted to Peter Doig's work on paper includes over 40 large full color illustrations plus an insightful essay on Doig's work.      Peter Doig Peter Doig, Adrian Searle, Kitty

Peter Doig, 2007      Peter Doig Peter Doig, Hilton Als, Stéphane Aquin, Angus Cook, Keith S. Hartley, 2013 Peter Doig is well known for the exotic atmospheres and dreamy narratives that appear in his work. With an uncommonly rich color palette and a unique material sensibility he has created some of the most resonant and evocative images in contemporary painting placing him among the most inventive painters working today. But as this extensive volume makes clear he is also a sophisticated visual thinker endlessly preoccupied with the process and history of painting. No Foreign Lands is the first publication to examine in depth the conceptual underpinnings of Doig's oeuvre. Particular attention is given to the importance of motifs, themes and variations in his work explored in over 200 paintings and works on paper from the past 13 years among them new works never before published. Born in Edinburgh in 1959 Peter Doig was raised in Canada and spent two decades in London before moving to Trinidad where he now lives and works. Doig graduated from St Martin's School of Art in 1983 and the Chelsea School of Art in 1990. He was nominated for the Turner Prize in 1994 and was included in the 2006 Whitney Biennial. In February 2013 his painting The Architect's Home in the Ravine sold for 12 000 000 at a London auction. The exhibition No Foreign Lands which opened at the Scottish National Gallery before traveling to the Museum of Fine Arts Montreal showcases works created during the past ten years much of which the artist spent in Trinidad. The Independent called the exhibition a thrilling show and The Observer praised it as mesmerizing.      Peter Doig Ulf Küster, 2014 The works of the British painter Peter Doig 1959 in Edinburgh who divides his time between Trinidad, London and New York are densely atmospheric and sometimes uncanny. They are often based on found or private images which the artist pieces together into dreamlike compositions full of melancholy and angst. Employing an unusual color palette and possessing an immense sensitivity for his medium Doig creates superb images following in the footsteps of great masters such as Paul Gauguin, Pierre Bonnard and Henri Matisse. This publication presents him as an artist with a conceptual practice as a visual thinker who is not only fascinated by the history of painting but also the painting process itself. The large format paintings and works on paper reproduced in the volume allow the viewer to share Doig's creative passion and his enthusiasm for the power of
