creative nonfiction authors including Paul McGeough Doris Pilkington Garimara the last interview before her death in 2014 David Leser Kate Holden Greg Bearup and Anna Goldsworthy Joseph has written an account of each author journalist including their writing processes as well as any ethical dimensions in their work They are located in Australian settings around the country The Australian creative nonfiction literary landscape is rich and vital read with relish by Australians and deals with important and burning national issues Yet creative nonfiction in Australia is rarely discussed as a cohesive genre This is the first definitive Australian text which brings together a disparate group of Australian creative nonfiction writers recognising them and their writing in a way they would be recognised in the USA and Europe Sue Joseph has been a journalist for more than 35 years working both in Australia and the UK She has published three other books She s My Wife He s Just Sex The Literary Journalist and Degrees of Detachment An Ethical Investigation and Speaking Secrets which focuses on literary journalism and ethics Joseph now teaches print journalism and writing at the University of Technology Sydney Sue Joseph s fine writing and her magnificent ability to bring the colour the textures and voice s of life into text make her another great Australian creative nonfiction writer Isabel Soares President of International Association for Literary Journalism Studies I was totally entranced by Behind the Text I finished reading the book and simply started again Graeme Harper Editor New Writing the International Journal for the Practice and Theory of Creative Writing Sue Joseph is one of Australia s leading thinkers on creative nonfiction Matthew Ricketson Professor University of Canberra and President of the Journalism Education and Research Association of Australia

Contemporary Australian Literature Nicholas

Birns,2015-12-01 Australia has been seen as a land of both punishment and refuge Australian literature has explored these controlling alternatives and vividly rendered the landscape on which they transpire Twentieth century writers left Australia to see the world now Australia s distance no longer provides sanctuary But today the global perspective has arrived with a vengeance In Contemporary Australian Literature A World Not Yet Dead Nicholas Birns tells the story of how novelists poets and critics from Patrick White to Hannah Kent from Alexis Wright to Christos Tsiolkas responded to this condition With rancour concern and idealism modern Australian literature conveys a tragic sense of the past yet an abiding vision of the way forward Birns paints a vivid picture of a rich Australian literary voice one not lost to the churning of global markets but in fact given new life by it Contrary to the despairing of the critics Australian literary identity continues to flourish And as Birns finds it is not one thing but many In this remarkable bold and fearless book Nicholas Birns contests how literary cultures are read how they are constituted and what they stand for In examining the nature of the barriers between public and private utterance and looking outside the absurdity of the rules of genre Birns has produced a redemptive analysis that leaves hope for revivifying a world not yet dead John Kinsella Reading on Location Luisa Moncada,2016-12-01 From the charming city of Bath featured in Jane Austen s Persuasion to the Amazon of Mario Vargas Llosa s La Casa Verde this unique travel guide brings you to the places you ve only read about Whether you want to learn more about a destination or follow in the footsteps
