Peter Handke And The Postmodern Transformation The Goalies Journey Home:

Peter Handke and the Postmodern Transformation Jerome Klinkowitz, James Knowlton, 1983 In 1966 Peter Handke disturbed the world of German letters with the publication of his first novel and with his attacks on the complacency of German language writers and their audiences Since then Handke an Austrian whose works include drama poetry and critical theory as well as fiction has become a leading European figure in the internationally established postmodern movement Klinkowitz and Knowlton survey Handke's progress as a writer concentrating on his novels to determine whether his creativity has been exhausted by his persistent assault on the systems that underlie conventional fiction drama and poetry By placing Handke's work in the tradition of Gabriel Garc a M rquez's magic realism and Donald Barthelme's innovative fictions the authors demonstrate that postmodern writers can create works of art in which content is effaced and the process of composition assumes increasing importance Indeed in so doing Handke has made that process as humanly interesting and as fictionally dramatic as any stories of The Great Tradition he has learned to address the human condition within the limits of a rebellious aesthetic The lesson of the postmodern transformation Klinkowitz and Knowlton argue is that the abstraction of content is not a loss instead it leads directly to the most essential human concerns Wim Wenders and Peter Handke Martin Brady, Joanne Leal, 2011 Preliminary Material Acknowledgements Authors Note Introduction Politics Poetics Film The Beginnings of a Collaboration Parallel Texts Language into Image in The Goalkeeper's Fear of the Penalty Accompanied by Text From Short Letter Long Farewell to Alice in the Cities Mute Stories and Blind Alleys Text Image and Allusion in Wrong Move Leafing through Wings of Desire Conclusion Filmographies Bibliography Index International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i.e. the reader's knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism The Style of Connectedness Thomas Moore, 1987 Thomas Pynchon's Gravity's Rainbow arguably one of the greatest works of fiction in this century has often been considered despairing absurdist or nihilistic Now in a monumental effort to make Pynchon's work more accessible Thomas Moore surveys all the major and often confusing backgrounds in Gravity's Rainbow from archaic myths to quantum physical theory from romantic thought to rocket technology from seventeenth century Puritanism through the ideas of Weber Jung and Marshall McLuhan to the worlds of Weimar and Hollywood movies to help Pynchon's reader understand the weird frightening funny lyrical surreal and ultimately hopeful cosmos of Pynchon's fictions By exploring the novel's internal strategies and its brilliant integrations of background information Moore illustrates how Gravity's Rainbow remains movingly humane as its author the agonized mediator of a bewildering field of cultural information remains excruciatingly sensitive to every human image and gesture searching for the chances for love and connection that still hide in the vast designs of things The reader of Moore's work should emerge with a thorough appreciation of Pynchon's unique style of genius of his optimism of his intense moralism and of the justness of the widespread claim that Pynchon is the most brilliant encyclopedic writer of fiction since Joyce

Postmodernism: A Bibliography, 1926-1994 Deborah L. Madsen, 2023-11-20 This is the first bibliography of Postmodernism to take account of work published in all subject areas and in all languages Deborah Madsen has identified a new first occurrence of the term in 1926 preceding by more than twenty years the first occurrence documented by the Oxford English Dictionary In a chronological listing books articles notes letters and working papers on Postmodernism are described with full bibliographical details Reviews of major books are documented and full contents listings are given for special issues of journals devoted to Postmodernism An appendix includes books on Postmodernism announced for publication in 1995 This bibliography brings together in one place all secondary material published on Postmodernism All disciplines are included from anthropology to zoology architecture cultural studies dance drama feminism fiction geography history legal studies literary theory mathematics medicine music pedagogical theory philosophy photography and film poetry politics religion sociology the visual and plastic arts and others The bibliography also documents items in a range of languages other than English Chinese French German Italian Japanese Russian Slovenian Spanish and the Scandinavian languages Access to the information contained in the bibliography is made easy with a comprehensive index providing guidance according to author subject language and key words

Postmodernism A Bibliography 1926 1994 is an essential reference text for anyone working in the area of contemporary culture studies

Exploring Postmodernism Matei Călinescu, Douwe Wessel Fokkema, 1987-01-01 The great diversity of contexts in which the term Postmodernism is currently encountered reflects the remarkable success of a coinage that has been in circulation for only about forty years It has been used by philosophers sociologists art critics and literary historians to become finally a household word in the language of advertising and politics Before letting it fade to a derelict cliché an attempt is made in this volume of essays to use its potential as a cultural concept for the analysis and understanding of contemporary literature and thought

The Aesthetics of Clarity and Confusion Geoffrey A. Baker, 2016-12-22 What should literature with political aims look like This book traces two rival responses to this question one prizing clarity and the other confusion which have dominated political aesthetics since the late nineteenth century Revisiting recurrences of the avant garde experimentalism versus critical realism debates from the twentieth century Geoffrey A Baker highlights the often violent reductions at work in earlier debates Instead of prizing one approach over the other as many participants in those debates have done Baker focuses on the manner in which the debate itself between these approaches continues to prove productive and enabling for politically engaged writers This book thus offers a way beyond the simplistic polarity of realism vs anti realism in a study that is focused on influential strands of thought in England France and Germany and that covers well known authors such as Zola Nietzsche Arnold Mann Brecht Sartre Adorno Lukács Beauvoir Morrison and Coetzee British Postmodern Fiction ,2024-10-28

New Makers of Modern Culture Wintle Justin,2013-05-13 New Makers of Modern Culture is the successor to the classic reference works Makers of Modern Culture and Makers of Nineteenth Century Culture published by Routledge in the early 1980s The set was extremely successful and continues to be used to this day due to the high quality of the writing the distinguished contributors and the cultural sensitivity shown in the selection of those individuals included New Makers of Modern Culture takes into full account the rise and fall of reputation and influence over the last twenty five years and the epochal changes that have occurred the demise of Marxism and the collapse of the Soviet Union the rise and fall of postmodernism the eruption of Islamic fundamentalism the triumph of the Internet Containing over eight hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present New Makers includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley next to John Ruskin is Salmon Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping runs shoulders with Jacques Derrida Julia Kristeva with Kropotkin Once again Wintle has enlisted the services of many distinguished writers and leading academics such as Sam Beer Bernard Crick Edward Seidensticker and Paul Preston In a few cases for example Michael Holroyd and Philip Larkin contributors are themselves the subject of entries With its global reach New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing There is an index of names and key terms The Works of Peter Handke David N. Coury, Frank Pipp, 2005

Since his now famous appearance on the literary stage in 1968 novelist playwright and poet Peter Handke has remained on the forefront of the literary vanguard having earned the praise and recognition of critics in Europe and North America alike In fact in a review essay of September 2000 The New York Review of Books called him the premier prose stylist in the German language and one of post war Europe's most recognisable literary figures Since the publication of his early theatrical works Handke has gone on to publish over twenty five prose novels as well as additional works for the theatre collections of poetry diaries and essays His works have ranged in style from the French influenced nouveau roman of the late 1960s to works characteristic of the New Subjectivity movement in West Germany in the 1970s while his novels and stories of the 1980s and 1990s exhibited a new found appreciation for narrative and issues of storytelling He has also published a series of polemical essays on the war in Yugoslavia which have been criticised severely by scholars and intellectuals has written as well as on the thematic aspects of his work      German Film & Literature Eric Rentschler,2013-10-15 First Published in 1986 This collection of essays by an international team of scholars is the first sustained investigation in any language of the historical interactions between German film and literature It is a book about adaptations and transformations about why filmmakers adapt certain material at certain times The major impetus at work is the desire to expand the field of adaptation study to include sociological theoretical and historical dimensions and to bring a livelier regard for intertextuality to the studies of German film and literature It is concerned with the ways in which filmmakers in Germany from Pabst and von Sternberg to Fassbinder Herzog and Sanders Brahms have engaged and been engaged by literary history      New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle,2016-04-22 New Makers of Modern Culture is the successor to the classic reference works Makers of Modern Culture and Makers of Nineteenth Century Culture published by Routledge in the early 1980s The set was extremely successful and continues to be used to this day due to the high quality of the writing the distinguished contributors and the cultural sensitivity shown in the selection of those individuals included New Makers of Modern Culture takes into full account the rise and fall of reputation and influence over the last twenty five years and the epochal changes that have occurred the demise of Marxism and the collapse of the Soviet Union the rise and fall of postmodernism the eruption of Islamic fundamentalism the triumph of the Internet Containing over eight hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present New Makers of Modern Culture includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley next to John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping runs shoulders with Jacques Derrida as do Julia Kristeva and Kropotkin Once again Wintle has enlisted the services of many distinguished writers and leading academics such as Sam Beer Bernard Crick Edward Seidensticker and Paul Preston In a few cases for example Michael Holroyd and Philip Larkin contributors are themselves the subject of entries With its global reach New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing There is an index of names and key terms      English Studies in Transition Piero Boitani,Robert Clark,2002-09-11 Bringing together twenty five contributors from all over Europe this volume represents the vitality and diversity of the current transcultural European dialogue on English studies Topics addressed include the nature of the canon the poetics of language the representation of women and the notion of nationalism in post colonial literature The significance of this volume lies not only in the quality of the individual contributions but also in the fact that it marks an important turning point in the history of English studies in Europe      Borderlines Gunnthórunn Gudmundsdóttir, 2016-08-09 Borderlines Autobiography and Fiction in Postmodern Life Writing locates and investigates the borderlines between autobiography and fiction in various kinds of life writing dating from the last thirty years This volume offers a valuable comparative approach to texts by French English American and German authors to illustrate the different forms of experimentation with the borders between genres and literary modes Gudmundsdóttir tackles important contemporary concerns such as autobiography's relationship to postmodernism by investigating themes such as memory and crossing cultural divides the use of photographs in autobiography and the role of narrative in life writing This work is of interest to students and scholars of comparative literature postmodernism and contemporary life writing      Peter Handke Garvin H. C. Perram, 1992 The genesis of Peter Handke's controversial poetics is investigated through an examination of key Elfentage essays and ORF B cherecke manuscripts in which Handke's early literary preoccupations were most evident From this a coherent and comprehensive view of the theoretical foundations of his literary concerns and practice emerges This is followed by a detailed analysis of characteristic elements present in Handke's early narrative prose texts Die Hornissen Der Hausierer Die Angst des Tormanns beim Elfmeter Wunschloses Unglück and the collection of short stories Begründung des Aufsichtsrats This investigation of the early texts reveals a common triadic relationship between the highly intrusive foregrounding of the narrative constituent of these texts the manner in which the literary reality is realized and their central thematic concern Handke's rather enigmatic and somewhat neglected early prose works are made very much more accessible through the insights afforded by this book

Bodied Spaces Stanton Garner, 2019-04-15 At me too someone is looking Samuel Beckett Waiting for Godot In a venturesome study of corporeality and perception in contemporary drama Stanton B Garner Jr turns this awareness of the spectator's gaze back upon itself His book takes up two of drama's most essential and elusive elements spatiality through which plays establish fields of visual and environmental relationship and the human body through which these fields are articulated Within the spatial terms of theater this book puts the body and its perceptual worlds back into performance theory Garner's approach is phenomenological emphasizing perception and experience in the theatrical environment His discussion of the work of playwrights after 1950 including Samuel Beckett Eugene Ionesco Peter Weiss Harold Pinter Sam Shepard David Mamet Edward Bond Maria Irene Fornes Caryl Churchill and Ntozake Shange explores the body's modes of presence in contemporary drama Drawing on work in areas as diverse as scenographic theory medical phenomenology contemporary linguistics and feminist theories of the body Garner addresses topics such as theatrical image stage objects dramatic language the suffering body and the staging of gender all with a view toward developing a phenomenology of mise en scene      Magical Realism Lois Parkinson Zamora, Wendy B. Faris, 1995 On magical realism in literature      The Postmodernist Allegories of Thomas Pynchon Deborah L. Madsen, 1991 This study of all the major narrative works of Thomas Pynchon V The Crying of Lot 49 Gravity's Rainbow Vineland and his early fiction is an attempt to describe the narrative mechanisms that produce the uncertainty and ambiguity noted by all of Pynchon's critics. These critics have analyzed the dynamic uncertainties of Pynchon's texts in terms of cybernetics, thermodynamics, Rilke, Weber, Jung, all terms that are offered by the fiction itself. The generic concept of postmodernist allegory allows the critic to speak from a position outside the text and allows us to see that ambiguity and indeterminacy are the effects produced by the way in which the text is constructed.

New Subjectivity and Prose Forms of Alienation Linda C. DeMeritt, 1987. German literature of the 1970s has earned the label New Subjectivity due to a shift in emphasis from political persuasion to an interest in the subject and a more personal engagement. This book presents concepts of New Subjectivity and a discussion of its relevance concentrating on the experience of alienation as its thematic and formal departure point. The investigation centers on the prose of prominent new subjective authors and details in particular the transition from fear to happiness in Peter Handke's works and the theme of love in Botho Strauss's prose.

Modern Austrian Literature, 1994. Includes the index to the Journal of the International Arthur Schnitzler Research Association 1961-67.
