Peter Krausz:

Landscape and Memory James D. Campbell, 1997 Peter Krausz , 1989 Peter Krausz Peter Krausz, Robert Fishko, 2002 Canadian Art in the Twentieth Century Joan Murray, 1999-11-01 Canadian Art in the Twentieth Century is a survey of the richest most controversial and perhaps most thoroughly confusing centuries in the whole history of the visual arts in Canada the period from 1900 to the present Murray shows how beginning with Tonalism at the start of the century new directions in art emerged starting with our early Modernists among them Tom Thomson and the Group of Seven Today Modernism has lost its dominance Artists critics and the public alike are confronted by a scene of unprecedented variety and complexity Murray discusses the social and political events of the century in combination with the cultural context movements ideas attitudes and styles the important groups in Canadian art and major and minor artists and their works Fully documented well researched and written with clarity and over four hundred illustrations in both black and white and colour Murray s book is essential for understanding Canadian art of this century As an introduction it is excellent in both its scope and intelligence Attitudes of the Chilean Right toward Jews Gustavo Guzmán, 2022-08-01 This is the first book in English to discuss the changing attitudes of the Chilean Right toward Jewish immigrants and the State of Israel from the 1930s onwards Jewish Chileans have ascended rapidly from the status of undesirable immigrants to middle and upper middle class facing less obstacles than their Argentine coreligionists Particular emphasis is given to the failed struggle to extradite war criminal Walther Rauff and to the years of the military dictatorship headed by General Augusto Pinochet By the 1970s Israel seemed a strong pro Western barrier to the expansion of communism and Islamic fundamentalism Darkness Subverted Katrin Althans, 2010-02-18 At the heart of the Gothic novel proper lies the discursive binary of self and other which in colonial literature was quickly filled with representations of the colonial master and his indigenous subject Contemporary black Australian artists have usurped this colonial Gothic discourse torn it to pieces and finally transformed it into an Aboriginal Gothic This study first develops the theoretical concept of an Aboriginal Gothic and then uses this term as a tool to analyse novels by Vivienne Cleven Mudrooroo Kim Scott Sam Watson and Alexis Wright as well as films directed by Beck Cole and Tracey Moffatt It centres on the question of how a genuinely European mode the Gothic can be permeated and thus digested by elements of indigenous Australian culture in order to portray the current situation of Aboriginal Australians and to celebrate a recovered cultural identity The Auschwitz Sonderkommando Nicholas Chare, Dominic Williams, 2019-02-15 This book is the first to bring together analyses of the full range of post war testimony given by survivors of the Sonderkommando of Auschwitz Birkenau The Auschwitz Sonderkommando were slave labourers in the gas chambers and crematoria forced to process and dispose of the bodies of those who were murdered They have been central to a number of key topics in post war debates about the Shoah collaboration moral compromise and survival resistance representation and the possibility of bearing witness Their testimony however has mostly met with a reluctance to engage in depth with it Moving from testimonies produced within the event the Scrolls of Auschwitz and the Sonderkommando photographs to testimonies given at trials and for video archives and to the paintings of David Ol re and the film Shoah by Claude Lanzmann this book demonstrates the importance of their witnessing in the post war memory of the Holocaust and provides vital new insights into the questions of representation memory gender and the Shoah Animal Genocide and its Aftermath Nicholas Chare,2025-09-01 In this exacting assessment of the bounty policies enacted against the Tasmanian Tiger and the Newfoundland Wolf Animal Genocide and its Aftermath provides a much needed reappraisal of the legal political and social definition of animal killing Analyzing natural history collections and cultural representations this book advances a compelling case for viewing the bounty schemes as a form of genocide that requires its own historical reckoning Ethical issues regarding the evocation of animal genocide in film literature photography and museum exhibitions are also explored

The Routledge Handbook of Indigenous Film Ernie Blackmore,Kerstin Knopf,Wendy Gay Pearson,Corina Wieser-Cox,2024-11-27 The Routledge Handbook of Indigenous Film is dedicated to bringing the work of Indigenous filmmakers around the world to a larger audience By giving voice to transnational and transcultural Indigenous perspectives this collection makes a significant contribution to the discourse on Indigenous filmmaking and provides an accessible overview of the contemporary state of Indigenous film Comprising 37 chapters by an international team of contributors the Handbook is divided into six parts Decolonial Intermedialities and Revisions of Western Media Colonial Histories Trauma Resistances Indigenous Lands Communities Bodies Queer Cultures and Border Crossings Youth Cultures and Emancipation Art Comedy and Music Within these sections Indigenous and non Indigenous experts from around the world examine various aspects of Indigenous film cultures analyze the works of Indigenous directors and producers worldwide and focus on readings contextual historical political aesthetic and activist of individual Indigenous films The Handbook specifically explores Indigenous film in Canada Mexico the United States Central and South America Northern Europe Australia New Zealand the Pacific and the Philippines This richly interdisciplinary volume is an essential resource for students and scholars of Indigenous Studies Cultural Studies Area Studies Film and Media Studies Feminist and Queer Studies History and anyone interested in Indigenous cultures and cinema The Global Vampire Cait Coker,Donald E. Palumbo,C.W. Sullivan

III,2020-01-10 The media vampire has roots throughout the world far beyond the shores of the usual Dracula inspired Anglo American archetypes Depending on text and context the vampire is a figure of anxiety and comfort humor and fear desire and revulsion These dichotomies gesture the enduring prevalence of the vampire in mass culture it can no longer articulate a single feeling or response bound by time and geography but is many things to many people With a global perspective this collection of essays offers something new and different a much needed counter narrative of the vampire s evolution in popular culture Divided by geography this text emphasizes the vampiric as a globetrotting citizen du monde rather than an isolated monster History and Art History Nicholas Chare,Mitchell B. Frank,2020-11-29 Through a series of cross disciplinary and interdisciplinary interventions leading international scholars of history and art history explore ways in which the study of images enhances knowledge of the past and informs our understanding of the present Spanning a diverse range of time periods and places the contributions cumulatively showcase ways in which ongoing dialogue between history and art history raises important aesthetic ethical and political questions for the disciplines The volume fosters a methodological awareness that enriches exchanges across these distinct fields of knowledge This innovative book will be of interest to scholars in art history cultural studies history visual culture and historiography Annual Report Art Institute of Chicago,1920 Cumulated Index Medicus ,1999 Quantitative Analysis of Road Transport Agreements - QuARTA Charles Kunaka, Virginia Tanase, Pierre Latrille, 2013-04-24 Road freight transport plays an indispensable role in international economic cooperation and foreign trade For short and medium distances in particular road freight transport constitutes a predominant share of overall traffic but it also plays a significant role in long distance haulage where time is more of an issue Therefore efforts should be made to minimize any physical or administrative barriers hampering international road freight transport given the integral part it plays in the global trade logistics industry This study was motivated by a realization that in the absence of full liberalization of market access bilateral agreements are the main instrument used to govern and regulate international road transport services Depending on their scope and the rights they grant bilateral agreements reflect the degree of market openness between countries The study finds that The texts of the bilateral agreements remain for the most part unknown to their intended users Even bilateral agreements regulating the same area tend to be different in their content There is no overarching international template for bilateral road transport agreements Where model agreements have been used to fill the void their objective and limitations are not clearly defined There are several core elements that any bilateral road transport agreement should contain including provisions on scope permit management transit rights cabotage and other limitations and routes Agreements should limit the possibilities of interpretations rent seeking behaviors and other inefficient practices Assessing the extent to which bilateral agreements have been implemented is difficult yet any agreement is only as good as the extent of its implementation and enforcement More energy should be invested in supporting the proper implementation of trade facilitation measures The report demonstrates that it is possible to follow a systematic methodology to assess bilateral agreements between countries and the extent to which any agreement contributes to integrated and efficient international road transport services The report s main message is that reform should navigate a clearly defined path which takes into account different technical political and economic considerations The History of Genocide in Cinema Jonathan Friedman, William Hewitt, 2016-10-27 The organization Genocide Watch estimates that 100 million civilians around the globe have lost their lives as a result of genocide in only the past sixty years Over the same period the visual arts in the form of documentary footage has aided international efforts to document genocide and prosecute those responsible but this book argues that fictional representation occupies an equally important and problematic

place in the process of shaping minds on the subject Edited by two of the leading experts in the field The History of Genocide in Cinema analyzes fictional and semi fictional portrayals of genocide focusing on amongst others the repression of indigenous populations in Australia the genocide of Native Americans in the 19th century the Herero genocide Armenia the Holodomor Stalin s policy of starvation in Ukraine the Nazi Holocaust Nanking and Darfur Comprehensive and unique in its focus on fiction films as opposed to documentaries The History of Genocide in Cinema is an essential resource for students and researchers in the fields of cultural history holocaust studies and the history of film Regulatory Reform in Road Freight Transport Proceedings of the International Seminar, February 2001 European Conference of Ministers of Transport,2002-02-21 This report provides a spotlight on the main avenues towards a transformation in road freight transport regulation in Europe Peter Krausz ,1993 Interpretation and Meaning in Philosophy and Religion Dirk-Martin Grube,2016-06-10 Interpretation and Meaning in Philosophy and Religion synthesizes cutting edge philosophical reflections on interpretation with their application to religion For this new theoretical insights on interpretation by Krausz Lamarque Leddy Hagberg and Gibson are examined Topics cover multiplism i e interpretative pluralism the goal of interpretation and its starting point These concepts are then studied in relation to the practice of interpreting religious texts For example Grube proposes that the action relevance of religious interpretations limits the possibility of tolerating divergent interpretations Karrer Grube challenges Lamarque s insistence on a firm starting point and Gokhale challenges Krausz by arguing that Vedantic practices of interpretation are non multiplist Angela Grauerholz Paulette Gagnon,Angela Grauerholz,Musée d'art contemporain de Montréal,1995 Animals, Plants and Afterimages Valérie Bienvenue,Nicholas Chare,2022-03-11 The sixth mass extinction or Anthropocene extinction is one of the most pervasive issues of our time Animals Plants and Afterimages brings together leading scholars in the humanities and life sciences to explore how extinct species are represented in art and visual culture with a special emphasis on museums Engaging with celebrated cases of vanished species such as the quagga and the thylacine as well as less well known examples of animals and plants these essays explore how representations of recent and ancient extinctions help advance scientific understanding and speak to contemporary ecological and environmental concerns
