New York Magazine, 1994-05-16 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. It's also the only one that's made me laugh out loud. Helen Macdonald. The New York Times Book Review. Beginning with Yuka, a 39,000-year-old mummified woolly mammoth recently found in the Siberian permafrost, each of the sixteen essays in Animals Strike Curious Poses investigates a different famous animal named and immortalized by humans. Modeled loosely after a medieval bestiary, these witty, playful, whip-smart essays from a winner of a Whiting Award for nonfiction traverse history, myth, science, and more, bringing each beast vibrantly to life. Stunning Passarello's keen wit is on display throughout as she raises questions about the uniqueness of humans. A feast of surprising juxtapositions and gorgeous prose. Publishers Weekly starred review. I've spent decades reading books on the roles animals play in human cultures, but none have ever made me think and feel as much as this one. It's a devastating meditation on our relationship to the natural world. Helen Macdonald. The New York Times Book Review.
