Peter Greenaway Falls:

Peter Greenaway's Postmodern / Poststructuralist Cinema Paula Willoquet-Maricondi, Mary Alemany-Galway, 2008-07-17 Since the 1960s British multi media artist Peter Greenaway has shocked and intrigued audiences with his avant garde approach to filmmaking and other artistic ventures From early experimental films to provocative features Greenaway has deployed strategies associated with structuralist cinema only to challenge or critique the very limits of that cinema and of film in general In this collection of essays scholars from a variety of disciplines explore various postmodern and poststructuralist aspects of Greenaway s films starting with his early shorts and delving into his feature length works including The Draughtman s Contract The Belly of an Architect A Zed and Two Noughts The Cook the Thief His Wife and Her Lover The Baby of M con and The Pillow Book Other artistic productions including his paintings and installations are also discussed These essays examine the filmmaker s position within British and avant garde cinema and his interest in constructing and deconstructing representational systems In the years since the first edition of this book Greenaway has enjoyed continued success in creating hybridized media projects for the stage and screen as evidenced by additional essays for this revised edition A new chapter addresses how Dutch political events and Dutch art have been crucial in shaping Greenaway s aesthetic focusing on The Draughtsman s Contract the 1991 opera Writing to Vermeer and Nightwatching the audio visual installation and 2007 film of the same name which were inspired by Rembrandt s Night Watch Also new to this collection is an essay that examines Greenaway s most ambitious endeavor to date The Tulse Luper Suitcases which exists as four feature films multiple websites an online game several books and installations and a number of theatrical events Peter Greenaway s Postmodern Poststructuralist Cinema Revised Edition explores the cultural historical and philosophical implication Peter Greenaway David Pascoe, 1997-11-01 This extensively illustrated book examines Greenaway s vision from a number of perspectives and traces a shift of sensibility in his work David Pascoe examines not only Greenaway s films but also his paintings exhibitions and installations Pascoe tirelessly explicates the numerology and mythomania that are the film maker s organising principles The Guardian A supremely intelligent utterly tuned in definitive exploration of the ultimate British auteur s back catalogue helpfully illustrated at every opportunity illuminating Empire

Feature Film William E.B. Verrone,2011-11-08 Here is a critical and historical overview of unconventional and aesthetically challenging films all of feature length The author focuses on the particular forms of contemporary avant garde films which often rely on characteristics associated with historical films of the same genre Included are works by such visionary filmmakers as David Lynch Luis Bunuel Jean Cocteau Jean Luc Godard Guy Maddin and Derek Jarman The first of the two appendices contains a filmography of key avant garde feature films from Haxan Witchcraft Through the Ages 1922 to Maximum Shame 2010 The second appendix offers a brief list of directors who have made significant contributions to films that take alternative approaches to cinematic practice establishing new grounds for analysis and evaluation Landscape and Film Martin Lefebvre,2007-05-07 Landscape is everywhere in film but it has been largely overlooked in theory and criticism This volume of new work will address fundamental questions What kind of landscape is cinematic landscape How is cinematic landscape different from landscape painting How is landscape deployed in the work of such filmmakers as Greenaway Rossellini or Antonioni to name just three What are differences between the use of landscape in Western filmmaking and in the work of Middle Eastern and Asian filmmakers How is cinematic landscape related to the idea of a national cinema and questions of identity The first collection on the idea of landscape and film this volume will present an impressive international cast of contributors among them Jacques Aumont Tom Conley David B Clarke Marcus A Doel Peter Rist and Antonio Costa Archiveology Catherine Russell,2018-03-15 In Archiveology Catherine Russell uses the work of

Walter Benjamin to explore how the practice of archiveology the reuse recycling appropriation and borrowing of archival sounds and images by filmmakers provides ways to imagine the past and the future Noting how the film archive does not function simply as a place where moving images are preserved Russell examines a range of films alongside Benjamin s conceptions of memory document excavation and historiography She shows how city films such as Nicole V dr s s Paris 1900 1947 and Thom Andersen s Los Angeles Plays Itself 2003 reconstruct notions of urban life and uses Christian Marclay s The Clock 2010 to draw parallels between critical cinephilia and Benjamin s theory of the phantasmagoria Russell also discusses practices of collecting in archiveological film and rereads films by Joseph Cornell and Rania Stephan to explore an archival practice that dislocates and relocates the female image in film In so doing she not only shows how Benjamin s work is as relevant to film theory as ever she shows how archiveology can awaken artists and audiences to critical forms of history and memory Animal Life and the Moving Image Michael Lawrence,Laura McMahon,2019-07-25 From the proto cinematic sequencing of animal motion in the nineteenth century to the ubiquity of animal videos online the histories of animal life and the moving image are enigmatically interlocked Animal Life and the Moving Image is the first collection of essays to offer a sustained focus on the relations between screen cultures and non human animals The volume brings together some of the most important and influential writers working on the non human animal s significance for cultures and theories of the moving image It offers innovative analyses of the representation of animals across a wide range of documentary fiction mainstream and avant garde practices from early cinema to contemporary user generated media Individual chapters consider King Kong The Birds The Misfits The Cove Grizzly Man and Microcosmos the work of Sergei Eisenstein Robert Bresson Malcolm Le Grice Peter Greenaway Carolee Schneemann and Isabella Rossellini and YouTube stars Christian the lion and Maru the cat A Critique of Judgment in Film and Television S. Panse,D. Rothermel,2014-04-24 A Critique of Judgment in Film and Television is a response to a significant increase of judgment and judgmentalism in contemporary television film and social media by investigating the changing relations between the aesthetics and ethics of judgment

Postmodern Animal Steve Baker,2000-03-01 In The Postmodern Animal Steve Baker explores how animal imagery has been used in modern and contemporary art and performance and in postmodern philosophy and literature to suggest and shape ideas about identity and creativity Are 100 objects enough to represent the dance? Janine Schulze,2010 Ein Buch ber die Archivierbarkeit des Tanzes Contemporary British and Irish Film Directors Yoram Allon,Del Cullen,Hannah Patterson,2001 The guide encompasses the careers of over 350 directors from the last 20 years A must for any film studies library it is a unique reference to the changing dynamics of these cinemas Being Human Ron Broglio,Frederick Young,2017-10-02 Technology and animals often serve as the boundaries by which we define the human In this issue contributors explore these categories as necessary supplements or as porous membranes which disturb the scaffolding of how the human is constructed A lingering question throughout is whether we have ever been human or if such a category is a non localizable ideal or perhaps a misnomer In this collection of essays internationally known theorists muddle the categorical boundaries such that animals and technologies become necessary components rather than limits for what it means to be human They examine a range of subjects including apophatic animality critical media objects to think with biosemiotic insect resonances the monstrous and horrific which dislodges our cultural animals and the problem of thinking of animality as stupidity Novels films digital objects scientific laboratories philosophical texts animals on the road and in the fields serve as sites for inquiry The result of these investigations is the spectral possibility that we are not the humans we make ourselves out to be This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki Faking it Craig Hight,Jane Roscoe,2019-01-04 Cinema Inferno Robert G. Weiner,John Cline,2010-07-17 Cinema Inferno Celluloid Explosions from the Cultural Margins addresses significant areas and eras of transgressive filmmaking including many subgenres and styles that have not yet received much critical attention This collection of essays covers both contemporary films and those produced in the last 50 years to provide a theoretical framework for looking at transgressive cinema and what that means This volume begins with a number of essays that examine the aesthetic of realism tracing it through the late Italian Neo Realism of Pasolini the early films of Melvin Van Peebles and Canadian filmmaker Guy Maddin Another section focuses on

70s Italian horror and thrillers including a substantially different examination of filmmaker Dario Argento as well as essays on critically underrepresented directors Lucio Fulci and Sergio Martino A section on New York looks at both radical independents like Troma and Andy Milligan as well as the social context from which a view of the metropolis in decay emerged Sections also cover the experimental work of the Vienna Action Group and controversial filmmaker Michael Haneke as well as films and genres too idiosyncratic and disturbing to fit anywhere else including analyses of Nazi propaganda films fundamentalist Christian scare movies and postwar Japanese youth films The final essays try to come to terms with a mainstream flirtation with transgressive film and Grindhouse aesthetics

Transmediations Niklas Salmose, Lars Elleström, 2019-11-22 This collection offers a multi faceted exploration of transmediations the processes of transfer and transformation that occur when communicative acts in one medium are mediated again through another While previous research has explored these processes from a broader perspective Salmose and Elleström argue that a better understanding is needed of the extent to which the outcomes of communicative acts are modified when transferred across multimodal media in order to foster a better understanding of communication more generally Using this imperative as a point of departure the book details a variety of transmediations viewed through four different lenses The first part of the volume looks at narrative transmediations building on existing work done by Marie Laure Ryan on transmedia storytelling The second section focuses on the spatial dynamics involved in media transformation as well as the role of the human body as a perceptive agent and a medium in its own right The third part investigates new radical boundaries and media types in transmediality and hence shows its versatility as a method of analyzing complex and contemporary communicative discourses The fourth and final part explores the challenges involved in transmediating scientific data into the narrative format in the context of environmental issues Taken together these sections highlight a range of case studies of transmediations and in turn the complexity and variety of the process informed by the methodologies of the different disciplines to which they belong This innovative volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in multimodality communication intermediality semiotics and adaptation studies

Peter Greenaway's Post-cinematic Art-world Paula Willoquet-Maricondi, 1999 A History of Artists' Film and Video in Britain David Curtis, 2019-07-25 In recent years the use of film and video by British artists has come to widespread public attention Jeremy Deller Douglas Gordon Steve McQueen and Gillian Wearing all won the Turner Prize in 2004 1996 1999 and 1997 respectively for work made on video This fin de siècle explosion of activity represents the culmination of a long history of work by less well known artists and experimental film makers Ever since the invention of film in the 1890s artists have been attracted to the possibilities of working with moving images whether in pursuit of visual poetry the exploration of the art form's technical challenges the hope of political impact or the desire to re invigorate such time honoured subjects as portraiture and landscape Their work represents an alternative history to that of commercial cinema in Britain a tradition that has been only intermittently written about until now This major new book is the first comprehensive history of artists film and video in Britain Structured in two parts Institutions and Artists and Movements it considers the work of some 300 artists including Kenneth Macpherson Basil Wright Len Lye Humphrey Jennings Margaret Tait Jeff Keen Carolee Schneemann Yoko Ono Malcolm Le Grice Peter Gidal William Raban Chris Welsby David Hall Tamara Krikorian Sally Potter Guy Sherwin Lis Rhodes Derek Jarman David Larcher Steve Dwoskin James Scott Peter Wollen and Laura Mulvey Peter Greenaway Patrick Keiller John Smith Andrew Stones Jaki Irvine Tracy Emin Dryden Goodwin and Stephanie Smith and Ed Stewart Written by the leading authority in the field A History of Artists Film and Video in Britain 1897 2004 brings to light the range and diversity of British artists work in these mediums as well as the artist run organisations that have supported the art form s development In so doing it greatly enlarges the scope of any understanding of British cinema and demonstrates the crucial importance of the moving image to British art history

No Medium Craig Dworkin, 2015-01-30

Close readings of ostensibly blank works from unprinted pages to silent music that point to a new understanding of media In No Medium Craig Dworkin looks at works that are blank erased clear or silent writing critically and substantively about works for which there would seem to be not only nothing to see but nothing to say Examined closely these ostensibly contentless works of art literature and music point to a new understanding of media and the limits of the artistic object Dworkin considers works predicated on blank sheets of paper from a fictional collection of poems in Jean Cocteau s Orph e to the actual publication of a ream of typing paper as a book of poetry he compares Robert Rauschenberg s Erased De Kooning Drawing to the artist Nick Thurston s erased copy of Maurice Blanchot s The Space of Literature in which only Thurston s marginalia were visible and he scrutinizes the sexual politics of photographic representation and the implications of obscured or obliterated subjects of photographs Reexamining the famous case of John Cage s 4 33 Dworkin links Cage s composition to Rauschenberg s White Paintings Ken Friedman s Zen for Record and Nam June Paik s Zen for Film and other works offering also a guide to further listening that surveys more than 100 scores and recordings of silent music Dworkin argues that we should understand media not as blank base things but as social events and that there is no medium understood in isolation but only and always a plurality of media interpretive activities taking place in socially inscribed space
