Peter Paul Rubens Christopher White,1987 Peter Paul Rubens Christopher White,1987-01-01 "Rubens, Vel?uez, and the King of Spain " Larry Silver,2017-07-05 This study provides a new analysis of the pictorial ensemble of the Torre de la Parada the hunting lodge of King Philip IV of Spain Created in the late 1630s by a group of artists led by Peter Paul Rubens this cycle of mythological imagery and hunting scenes was completed by Diego Vel uez Despite the lack of a written program surviving works provide eloquent testimony of several basic themes that embody Neostoic ideals of self restraint and prudent governance While Rubens set the moral tone through his serio comic Ovidian narratives Vel uez added an important grace note with his portraits of ancient philosophers and royals and fools of the court This study is the first to consider in depth their joint artistic contributions and shared ambition Through analysis of individual works the authors situate these pictorial inventions within broader intellectual currents in both Spanish Flanders and Spain especially in the advice literature and drama presented to the Spanish king Moreover they point to the lasting resonance of Torre de la Parada for Vel uez especially within his late masterworks Las Meninas and Las Hilanderas Ultimately this study illuminates the dialogical nature of this ensemble in which Rubens and Vel uez offer a set of complementary views on subjects ranging from the nature of classical gods to the role of art as a mirror of the prince Dictionary of Artists' Models Jill Berk Jimenez,2013-10-15 The first reference work devoted to their lives and roles this book provides information on some 200 artists models from the Renaissance to the present day Most entries are illustrated and consist of a brief biography selected works in which the model appears with location a list of further reading This will prove an invaluable reference work for art historians librarians museum and gallery curators as well as students and researchers Rubens & Brueghel Anne T. Woollett,Ariane van Suchtelen,2006 Truly collaborative paintings that is not simply mechanical but also conceptual co productions are rare in the history of art This gorgeously illustrated catalogue explores just such an extraordinary partnership between Antwerp s most eminent painters of the early seventeenth century Peter Paul Rubens 1577 1640 and Jan Brueghel the Elder 1568 1625 Rubens and Brueghel executed approximately twenty five works together between around 1597 and Brueghel s death in 1625 Highly prized and sought after by collectors throughout Europe the collaborative works of Rubens and Brueghel were distinguished by an extremely high level of quality further enhanced by the status of the artists themselves Published to coincide with an exhibition at the Getty Museum to be held July 5 to September 24 2006 the catalogue features twenty six color plates of such Rubens Brueghel paintings as The Return from War The Feast of Achelo s and Madonna and Child in a Garland of Flowers along with Rubens and Brueghel s collaborations with important contemporaries such as Frans Snyders and Hendrick van Balen This is the first such publication to fully address and reproduce these works in depth The Story of Black John Harvey,2013-07-15 As a color black comes in no other shades it is a single hue with no variation one half of a dichotomy But what it symbolizes envelops the entire spectrum of meaning good and bad The Story of Black travels back to the biblical and classical eras to explore the ambiguous relationship the world's cultures have had with this sometimes accursed color examining how black has been used as a tool and a metaphor in a plethora of startling ways John Harvey delves into the color's problematic association with race observing how white Europeans exploited the negative associations people had with the color to enslave millions of black Africans He then looks at the many figurative meanings of black for instance the Greek word melancholia or black bile which defines our dark moods and the ancient Egyptians use of black as the color of death which led to it becoming the standard hue for funereal garb and the clothing of priests churches and cults Considering the innate austerity and gravity of black Harvey reveals how it also became the color of choice for the robes of merchants lawyers and monarchs before gaining popularity with eighteenth and nineteenth century dandies and with Goths and other subcultures today Finally he looks at how artists and designers have applied the color to their work from the earliest cave paintings to Caravaggio Rembrandt and Rothko Asking how a single color can at once embody death evil and glamour The Story of Black unearths the secret behind black's continuing power to compel and divide us

Gender, Politics, and Allegory in the Art of Rubens Lisa Rosenthal, 2005-09-05 Gender Politics and Allegory in the Art of Peter Paul Rubens examines the intertwined relationship between paintings of family and marriage and of war peace and statehood by the Flemish master Drawing extensively upon recent critical and gender theory Lisa Rosenthal reshapes our view of Rubens works and of the interpretive practices through which we engage them Close readings offer new interpretations of canonical images while bringing into view other powerful works which are less familiar The focus on gender serves as a catalyst that enables an original way of reading visual allegory giving it a dynamic multivalence undiscovered by traditional iconographic methods

The Sixth History of Man John Bershof, MD, In the spirit of medieval writer Chaucer all human activity lies within the artist's scope the History of Man Series uses medicine as a jumping off point to explore precisely that all history all science all human activity since the beginning of time The jumping off style of writing takes the reader the listener into worlds unknown always returning to base only to jump off again History of Man are stories and tales of nearly everything The Sixth History of Man is the last narrative in the History of Man Series that uses infection as the underlying foundation The series will continue but use other disease platforms for jumping off From a human infection perspective this sixth book will visit with the King of Pop Michael Jackson vitiligo and propofol the famous and infamous

The Rape of the Masters Roger Kimball, 2005-11-25 Colleges and universities used to teach art history to encourage connoisseurship and acquaint students with the riches of our artistic heritage But now as Roger Kimball reveals in this witty and provocative book the student is less likely to learn about the aesthetics of masterworks than to be told for instance that Peter Paul Rubens' great painting Drunken Silenus is an allegory about anal rape Or that Courbet's famous hunting pictures are psychodramas about castration anxiety Or that Gauguin's Manao tupapau is an example of the way repression is written on the bodies of women Or that Jan van Eyck's masterful Arnolfini Portrait is about middle class deceptions and the treatment of women Or that Mark Rothko's abstract White Band Number 27 parallels the pictorial structure of a pieta Or that Winslow Homer's The Gulf Stream is a visual encoding of racism In The Rape of the Masters How Political Correctness Sabotages Art Kimball a noted art critic himself shows how academic art history is increasingly held hostage to radical cultural politics feminism cultural studies postcolonial studies the whole armory of academic antihumanism To make his point he describes how eight famous works of art reprinted here as illustrations have been made over to fit a radical ideological fantasy Kimball then performs a series of intellectual rescue operations explaining how these great works should be understood through a series of illuminating readings in which art not politics guides the discussion

Spanish Royal Patronage 1412-1804 Ilenia Colón Mendoza, Margaret Ann Zaho, 2018-06-11 Portraits have a long history in royal courts as a way of communicating the monarch's status rulership and even piety This anthology places such art works studied in the context of their commission production and display Artists use different representational strategies to convey important information about the sitter These aspects combined with patronage location and use of the work form a departure point from which to address portraits comprehensively The intersection between artist the portrayed and audience with the additional layer of formed identity allows the portrait to hold a special place as popular genre of Spanish art The relationship between the use of the work and its context is key to understanding better the cultural and social norms of Spanish aristocracy and what they reveal about Spanish identity in general Used to solidify governance lineage and marriage portraits legitimized the negotiation of status power and social mobility

Women and Art in Early Modern Europe: Patrons, Collectors, and Connoisseurs ,1999 This anthology reflects a larger impulse to recover women's involvement in the creation of an aesthetic culture from the late medieval through the early modern periods By asking how the perspectives and experiences of female patrons contributed to the invention of particular styles or iconographies or how they shaped taste or how they influenced demand these twelve original essays introduce significant new information about specific women patrons while raising theoretical issues for patronage studies more generally While most of the projects discussed are consistent with the period's male sanctioned concept of female patronage as an expression of conjugal devotion or dynastic promotion at the same time the women involved devised strategies that circumvented these rules allowing them to explore the potential of art as a means of proclaiming their own identity and taste On Depiction: Selected Writings on Art Avigdor Arikha, 2019-08-25 A marvellous book which teaches us how to see There is not a word out of place And the author's seriousness allows us to feel his full passion what really matters for him This book will provide me lasting company and I will often look in its pages for backing for my own judgements Jean Starobinski When a great painter also happens to be an intelligent and cultivated one his observations on art count a hundred times more than a critic's or a historian's do A man's knowledge of his own craft is both irreplaceable and indispensable Simon Leys Throughout his whole development I have never ceased to admire the acuteness of his vision and his faultless insight into the art of the past Samuel Beckett Avigdor Arikha was one of the most important artists of the twentieth century He was born in Romania to German speaking Romanian Jewish parents and spent most of his life in Paris A talented child he started drawing early on During the Second World War he was deported to a concentration camp in the Ukraine where he drew the horrors he witnessed These drawings saved his life During the 1950s he established himself in Paris and was enjoying a successful career as an abstract painter In 1965 a Caravaggio exhibition prompted him to convert to drawing from life He stopped using colour until 1973 when he started again to paint He worked with a religious almost war like intensity until his death Arikha was also an erudite and passionate scholar endowed with a deep understanding of the history of art and its techniques well versed in world history and fascinated by science He wrote many essays and curated important exhibitions of masters such as Poussin Velázquez and Ingres In this collection of essays that he wrote between 1965 and 1994 Arikha expounds on art and artists Mantegna Velázquez Poussin David Ingres Degas Matisse and more technique seeing and the state of culture in his day which one could argue is no more hopeful today almost thirty years later
