Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels (RLE Marxism) Cecil L. Eubanks,2015-04-17 The project to publish the works of Marx and Engels continues and this book published in 1984 puts together a comprehensive bibliography of their works either written in or translated into English including books monographs articles chapters and doctoral dissertations together with the works of their interpreters The inclusion of the secondary literature makes this a particularly valuable bibliography and contributes greatly to the understanding of the thought of Marx and Engels Media, Politics and Environment Detlef Briesen,Sarada Prasanna Das,2023-07-15 Environmental protection has not equally established itself as a permanent fixture in the political systems of all countries to date governments and entire societies have responded to environmental challenges in a variety of ways and concrete environmental policy is still a highly national matter Moreover the perception of environmental problems varies considerably on a global scale The reasons normally cited for these differences largely stem from the environmental policy debates themselves e g poverty ignorance capital interests etc In contrast this book shows that concrete environmental policy emerges from a complex interplay of mass media and political conflicts first the mass media provide the framework for national environmental policy through agenda setting framing and scandalization second the mass media thereby change values in the political and social discourse e g by altering the perception of global commons and expanding the possibilities of interest articulation and third this can lead to political decision making processes in which legal and other measures for environmental protection are enforced The book systematically compares industrialized countries such as Germany and Japan with several rapidly emerging countries in South and Southeast Asia

Marxist Critique of the Ruined University Krystian Szadkowski, Jakub Krzeski, 2025-04-21 This book revitalizes the Marxian concept of critique for research into the transformation of universities It consists of a set of comprehensive and interconnected theoretical tools starting from the reflection on the political ontology of higher education through the critique of political economy of the sector to the analysis of activist struggles within the universities and back to the ontological concept of the common a foundation for the university alternative design The tools offered and discussed in context throughout the book allow for a productive use in overcoming the current crisis of the university as well as to avoid the pitfalls present in contemporary debates around it Unlike the dominant discussions on the university in crisis the authors argue that to grasp its nature one has to reach more profound than the level of appearances such as marketization and commodification Szadkowski and Krzeski offer a compelling reappraisal of critique as a mechanism to liberate intellectual work By linking critique to how knowledge is structured and commodified they help us transcend reductionist narratives of a crisis ridden University Prioritising ontological renewal they embrace the political and the common enriching our collective ways of knowing the world as a movement Pivoting around academic and student protests in Poland the book enables us to imagine spaces and times of critical hope that resist the capitalist subjugation of intellectual activity to knowledge production Richard Hall Professor of Education and Technology De Montfort University Leicester UK In the century since Antonio Gramsci new works in the Marxist tradition have made only modest contributions to social thought the combined result of the savage repression in the West of the dangerous revolutionary ideas plus the collapse in the East into jacobin conspiracy and dogmatism If a living vibrant Marxism had been part of the twentieth century mainstream then much catastrophe would have been averted Now the drive for capital accumulation sovereign individualism and rampant nationalism have brought us to the brink of ecological disaster and World War III Into the void step two emerging scholars Krystian Szadkowski and Jakub Krzeski with an original Marxist critique of higher education and the common good There is hope in this development vital resources for reflection discussion and action Simon Marginson Professor of Higher Education at the Universities of Bristol
