Portraits Of Bartolomeo Veneto:

The Portraits of Bartolomeo Veneto Laura Pagnotta, 2003 This is the first English language monograph on Bartolomeo Veneto c 1480-1531 who worked in Northern Italy in an area bounded by Venice and Milan The art made in this region is characterized by an intensity and richness arising from the various artistic personalities that enlivened the period and the vitality of exchanges that linked artists from widely separated cultural areas An analysis of Bartolomeo's works allows one to observe the vivid atmosphere of the period Specializing in portraiture he moved often to satisfy the demands of his clientele in the small and large courts in the Veneto Emilia and the Lombardy regions of the Po Valley Over the course of his career from his earliest dated painting in 1502 until his death presumably in 1531 he produced a remarkable body of work Characteristic of Bartolomeo Veneto is an interest in a refined rendering of details particularly of clothing and the inclusion of symbolic elements This symbolism understandable by only a select few refers to the moral philosophical or even political ideals of the person depicted and reflects the cultivated society of the clients for whom the artist worked Of particular interest are his portraits and works that fall midway between conventional portraiture and representations of a symbolic mythological or religious nature On the one hand he was able to synthesize diverse stylistic tendencies On the other he was able to capture nuances of his subjects' personalities Despite the remarkable quality of many of his paintings he was not mentioned by historical sources and he remains one of the least studied and most mysterious of the 16th century Italian painters He was rediscovered in the middle of the 19th century when several of his signed and dated paintings were acquired by European museums Bartolomeo Veneto and his portrait of a lady Creighton Gilbert, Bellini, Giorgione, Titian, and the Renaissance of Venetian Painting David Alan Brown, Sylvia Ferino-Pagden, Jaynie Anderson, Deborah Howard, Kunsthistorisches Museum (Vienna), National Gallery of Art (U.S.), Kunsthistorisches Museum (Wien), 2006-01-01 Presents a survey of sixty Venetian Renaissance paintings of the calibre of Bellini and Titian's Feast of the Gods in Washington and Giorgione's Laura and Three Philosophers in Vienna Women in Italian Renaissance Art Paola Tinagli, 1997-06-15 This is the first book which gives a general overview of women as subject matter in Italian Renaissance painting It presents a view of the interaction between artist and patron and also of the function of these paintings in Italian society of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Using letters poems and treatises it examines through the eyes of the contemporary viewer the way women were represented in paintings The Portrait in the Renaissance John Pope-Hennessy, 2023-10-17 A major account of Renaissance portraiture by one of the twentieth century's most eminent art historians In this book John Pope-Hennessy provides an unprecedented look at two centuries of experiment in portraiture during the Renaissance Pope-Hennessy shows how the Renaissance cult of individuality brought with it a demand that the features of the individual be perpetuated a concept first manifested in the portraits that fill the great Florentine fresco cycles and led later in the fifteenth century to the creation of the independent portrait by such artists as Sandro Botticelli Antonio

del Pollaiuolo Giovanni Bellini and Antonello da Messina Pope Hennessy goes on to describe the process by which Titian and the great artists of the High Renaissance transformed the portrait from a record of appearance into an analysis of character

Wives, Widows, Mistresses, and Nuns in Early Modern Italy Katherine A. McIver, 2016-12-05 Through a visually oriented investigation of historical invisibility in early modern Italy the essays in this volume recover those women wives widows mistresses the illegitimate who have been erased from history in modern literature rendered invisible or obscured by history or scholarship as well as those who were overshadowed by male relatives political accident or spatial location A multifaceted invisibility of the individual and of the object is the thread that unites the chapters in this volume Though some women chose to be invisible for example the cloistered nun these essays show that in fact their voices are heard or seen through their commissions and their patronage of the arts which afforded them some visibility Invisibility is also examined in terms of commissions which are no longer extant or are inaccessible What is revealed throughout the essays is a new way of looking at works of art a new way to visualize the past by addressing representational invisibility the marginalized or absent subject or object and historical invisibility to discover who does the looking and how this shapes how something or someone is visible or invisible The result is a more nuanced understanding of the place of women and gender in early modern Italy

Italian Paintings Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Federico Zeri, Elizabeth E. Gardner, 1986 Italy ...: Central Italy and Rome Karl Baedeker (Firm), 1909 The Riddle of Jael P. Scott Brown, 2018-02-27 Winner of the 2019 SECAC Award for Excellence in Scholarly Research and Publication In The Riddle of Jael Peter Scott Brown offers the first history of the Biblical heroine Jael in medieval and Renaissance art Jael who betrayed and killed the tyrant Sisera in the Book of Judges by hammering a tent peg through his brain as he slept under her care was a blessed murderess and an especially fertile moral paradox in the art of the early modern period Jael's representations offer insights into key religious intellectual and social developments in late medieval and early modern society They reflect the influence on art of exegesis the Reformation and Counter Reformation humanism and moral philosophy misogyny and the battle of the sexes the emergence of syphilis and the Renaissance ideal of the artist Indecent Bodies in Early Modern Visual Culture Fabian Jonietz, Mandy Richter, Alison Stewart, 2025-10-01 The life like depiction of the body became a central interest and defining characteristic of the European Early Modern period that coincided with the establishment of which images of the body were to be considered decent and representable and which disapproved censored or prohibited Simultaneously artists and the public became increasingly interested in the depiction of specific body parts or excretions This book explores the concept of indecency and its relation to the human body across drawings prints paintings sculptures and texts The ten essays investigate questions raised by such objects about practices and social norms regarding the body and they look at the particular function of those artworks within this discourse The heterogeneous media genres and historical contexts north and south of the Alps studied by the authors demonstrate how the alleged indecency clashed with artistic intentions and challenges traditional paradigms

of the historiography of Early Modern visual culture The Routledge Handbook of Material Culture in Early Modern Europe Catherine Richardson, Tara Hamling, David Gaimster, 2016-09-13 The Routledge Handbook of Material Culture in Early Modern Europe marks the arrival of early modern material culture studies as a vibrant fully established field of multi disciplinary research The volume provides a rounded accessible collection of work on the nature and significance of materiality in early modern Europe a term that embraces a vast range of objects as well as addressing a wide variety of human interactions with their physical environments This stimulating view of materiality is distinctive in asking questions about the whole material world as a context for lived experience and the book considers material interactions at all social levels There are 27 chapters by leading experts as well as 13 feature object studies to highlight specific items that have survived from this period defined broadly as c 1500 c 1800 These contributions explore the things people acquired owned treasured displayed and discarded the spaces in which people used and thought about things the social relationships which cluster around goods between producers vendors and consumers of various kinds and the way knowledge travels around those circuits of connection The content also engages with wider issues such as the relationship between public and private life the changing connections between the sacred and the profane or the effects of gender and social status upon lived experience Constructed as an accessible wide ranging guide to research practice the book describes and represents the methods which have been developed within various disciplines for analysing pre modern material culture It comprises four sections which open up the approaches of various disciplines to non specialists Definitions disciplines new directions Contexts and categories Object studies and Material culture in action This volume addresses the need for sustained coherent comment on the state breadth and potential of this lively new field including the work of historians art historians museum curators archaeologists social scientists and literary scholars It consolidates and communicates recent developments and considers how we might take forward a multi disciplinary research agenda for the study of material culture in periods before the mass production of goods Women Criminals Vickie Jensen, 2011-11-10 A unique two volume study that examines female crime and the women who commit it The two volume Women Criminals An Encyclopedia of People and Issues addresses both key topics and key figures in women s crime The first volume provides topical essays about areas critical to the understanding of female criminals such as the definition of women s crime explanations of women s criminality ethnic and age diversity in female criminals and responses of the criminal justice system The second volume comprises biographical entries profiling women who are obviously criminals such as Aileen Wuornos and Myra Hindley and also women who were victims of circumstance unjust laws or narrowly applied definitions of crime such as Rosa Parks Harriet Tubman and Sophie Scholl In addition to highlighting the breadth of women s criminality these portraits provide a holistic multifaceted understanding of the dynamics of women s crime and why it occurs connecting the individual stories to the larger social scientific perspectives Care has been taken to include the women s own voices and perspectives where possible and to address the intentions and reasoning of the system that responded to their criminality Correggio David Ekserdjian, Antonio Allegri da Correggio, Correggio, 1997-01-01 This beautifully illustrated book is the first full scale chronological and critical account of the paintings and drawings of Correggio 1489 1534 a genius of the Italian Renaissance The author places the artist in the context of 16th century Italy and his isolation from fellow artists of the period examines his particular creative process and sheds new light on Correggio s patrons 200 color and 50 b w illustrations American Journal of Archaeology , 1917 Ottilie W.
