Viking Attacks on Paris Abbo (Monk of St. Germain),2007 In 885 AD the Vikings laid siege to Paris to which a young monk named Abbo of the abbey of Saint Germain des Prés stood as witness Later he came to make a record of what he saw heard and believed in a verse chronicle the Bella parisiacae urbis His often stirring account speaks of the relentless and ingenious attacks of the Norsemen the selfless heroism of the defending Frankish warriors and the misery and terror of the besieged Parisians But his canvas is far larger than this single occurrence for he hints at greater things yet to come such as the final disintegration of Carolingian rule the eventual establishment of the Capetian line of monarchs and the creation of a French Danelaw namely Normandy Ultimately however Abbo is not concerned with an impartial narration of events but rather with salvation through history of the individual and of the nation of the Franks The macaronic style of his chronicle very much appealed to the sensibilities of the time thus ensuring that Abbo's work would endure American Catholic
