Long Poem Anthology:

Anthologizing Canadian Literature Robert Lecker, 2015-11-02 The first collection of critical essays devoted to the study of English Canadian literary anthologies brings together the work of thirteen prominent critics to investigate anthology formation in Canada and answer these key questions Why are there so many literary anthologies in Canada and how can we trace their history What role have anthologies played in the formation of Canadian literary taste How have anthologies influenced the training of students from generation to generation What literary values do the editors of various anthologies tend to support and how do these values affect canon formation in Canada How have different genres fared in the creation of literary anthologies How do Canadian anthologies transmit ideas about gender region ideology and nation Specific essays focus on anthologies as national metaphors the controversies surrounding early literary collections representations of First Nations peoples in anthologies and the ways in which various editors have understood exploration narratives In addition the collection examines the representation of women in Canadian anthologies the use of anthologies as teaching tools and the creation of some very odd Canadian anthologies along the way

Writing in Our Time Pauline Butling, Susan

Rudy, 2009-10-22 Process poetics is about radical poetry poetry that challenges dominant world views values and aesthetic practices with its use of unconventional punctuation interrupted syntax variable subject positions repetition fragmentation and disjunction To trace the aesthetically and politically radical poetries in English Canada since the 1960s Pauline Butling and Susan Rudy begin with the upstart poets published in Vancouver's TISH A Poetry Newsletter and follow the trajectory of process poetics in its national and international manifestations through the 1980s and 90s The poetics explored include the works of Nicole Brossard Daphne Marlatt bpNichol George Bowering Roy Kiyooka and Frank Davey in the 1960s and 70s For the 1980-2000 period the authors include essays on Jeff Derksen Clare Harris Erin Mour and Lisa Robertson They also look at books by older authors published after 1979 including Robin Blaser Robert Kroetsch and Fred Wah A historiography of the radical poets and a roster of the little magazines small press publishers literary festivals and other such sites that have sustained poetic experimentation provide context

Margin of Interest Shane Neilson, 2019-09-24 As Shane Neilson writes in Margin of Interest Maritime poetry is the sum of what's come before a unique history and yes a unique place In Margin of Interest Neilson examines representation identity power and the politics of literary history from the creative traditions of the Mi kmaq to the work of young poets today He pays due homage to iconic Maritime writers Milton Acorn Alden Nowlan George Elliott Clarke shines a critical spotlight on lesser known masters from the region Travis Lane Wayne Clifford and provides a glimpse inside the diverse ecosystem of poets under 40 writing in or about the Maritimes Rebecca Thomas Lucas Crawford El Jones He also combats the prejudices so often applied to writers from Atlantic Canada stigma associated with mental illness rigid gendering vernacular language and even poetic form and advocates for a long overdue reappropriation of the regionalist stance as well as a proper recognition of the region's writers and their contribution to the Canadian literary landscape For as Neilson wisely asks What s the matter with taking pride in any kind of regional identity that we articulate

The Routledge Introduction to Twentieth- and Twenty-First-Century Canadian Poetry Erin Wunker,2022-11-21

When asked the question what is the power of poetry writer Ian Williams said poetry punctures the surface Williams statement that poetry matters and that it does something is at the heart of this book Building from this core idea that poetry perforates the everyday to give greater range to our lives and our thinking the practical and pedagogical aim of this book is twofold the first aim is to provide students with an introduction to the key cultural political and historical events that inform twentieth and twenty first century Canadian poetry and to familiarize those same readers with poetic movements trends and forms of the same time period This book addresses the aesthetic and social contexts of Canadian poetry written in the twentieth and twenty first centuries it models for its readers the critical and theoretical discourses needed to understand the contexts of literary production in Canada Put differently readers need a sense of the where and how of poetic production to help situate them in the what of poetry itself In addition to offering a historically contextualized overview of the significant movements developments and poets of this time period this book also familiarizes readers with key moments of reflection and rupture such as the effects of economic and ecological crisis global conflicts and debates around appropriation of culture This book is built on the premise that poetry in Canada does not happen outside of political social and cultural contexts

Adsit'S Poetry Anthology, Volume I Tim L. Adsit,2011-02-08 Adsits Poetry Anthology Volume I presents a collection of three generations of American poetry from the Adsit family written by Tim Adsit his parents and his grandmother This unique anthology contains inspirational poetry with recurring themes focusing on wilderness the nature of man family home love life death faith patriotism country humor and emotions as well as personal thoughts and reflections gained while outdoors hunting hiking camping and fishing With these inspiring thoughts and poetic images the Adsit family brings us immediately into the beautiful world of nature and human nature Relaxed warmly intimate and sometimes humorous these verses reveal the inspiring world of nature that provides insight into what we are as human beings what attitudes and beliefs we should take toward life its Creator death and faith and the way in which we should mature and develop daily in wisdom knowledge understanding and humility Each poet at once sees connections between the creatures and situations in nature and in the opportunities in our own lives They each have a genuine gift for discovering and presenting new ideas in refreshing ways showing that there is a stillness in nature that speaks louder than a choir of voices

Keepers of the Code Robert Lecker,2013-02-07 Keepers of the Code explores the complex network of associations and negotiations that influenced the development of literary anthologies in English Canada from 1837 to the present Lecker shows that these anthologies are deeply conflicted narratives that embody the tensions and anxieties felt by their editors when faced with the challenge of constructing or rejecting national ideals He argues that these are intensely self conscious works with their own literary mechanisms and architecture In reading the history of these anthologies he witnesses a complex narrative of nation a compelling story about the values and interests informing English Canadian literary history

The FSG Poetry Anthology Jonathan Galassi, Robyn Creswell, 2025-09-23 To honor FSG's 75th anniversary here is a unique anthology celebrating the riches and variety of its poetry list past present and future Poetry has been at the heart of Farrar Straus and Giroux's identity ever since Robert Giroux joined the fledgling company in the mid 1950s soon bringing T S Eliot John Berryman Robert Lowell and Elizabeth Bishop onto the list These extraordinary poets and their successors have been essential in helping define FSG as a publishing house with a unique place in American letters The FSG Poetry Anthology includes work by almost all of the more than one hundred twenty five poets whom FSG has published in its seventy five year history Giroux's first generation was augmented by a group of international figures and Nobel laureates including Pablo Neruda Nelly Sachs Derek Walcott Seamus Heaney and Joseph Brodsky Over time the list expanded to include poets as diverse as Yehuda Amichai John Ashbery Frank Bidart Louise Glück Thom Gunn Ted Hughes Yusef Komunyakaa Mina Loy Marianne Moore Paul Muldoon Les Murray Grace Paley Carl Phillips Gjertrud Schnackenberg James Schuyler C K Williams Charles Wright James Wright and Adam Zagajewski Today Henri Cole Francine J.
