Lord Kames And The Scotland Of His Day:

Lord Kames and the Scotland of His Day Ian Simpson Ross, 1972 The Scottish Enlightenment Anand C. Chitnis, 2021-10-12 Originally published in 1976 this book discusses the relationship of the age of intellectual enlightenment in Scotland to the age of economic improvement and analyses the Scottish Enlightenment from a more sociological point of view. It describes the intense period of high intellectual endeavour and activity that took place in the resorts of the cultural Scottish elite in 18th and early 19th Century Scotland. It discusses the crucial place of lawyers in 18th Century Scottish society and examines the intellectual features of the Scottish university system charting the rise of the societies, clubs and other institutions such as the Encyclopaedia Britannica and The Edinburgh Review Selected Essays on the Conflict of Laws Friedrich Juenger, 2021-10-25 Friedrich K Juenger on the conflict of laws is always worth attending to. Rejecting the conventional wisdom that prevails in the field, he sees the conflict of laws not as a discipline devoid of substantive values but as a powerful catalyst for multistate justice. Here is a wide ranging collection of essays on a variety of problems posed by transactions that transcend state and national borders. The essays include a comparison of jurisdiction issues in the United States and the European Communities, opinions on forum shopping, a critique of interest analysis techniques and a plea for a comparative approach to choice of law issues. Invaluable studies in the extraterritorial application of United States antitrust law, recognition of foreign money judgments and divorces and regional conventions round out the collection. Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint Adam Smith and the Philosophy of Law and Economics R.P. Malloy, J. Evensky, 2012-12-06 Adam Smith and the Philosophy of Law and Economics is a unique book. Malloy and Evensky bring together a team of international and interdisciplinary scholars to address the work of Adam Smith as it relates to law and economics. In addition to their own contributions, the book includes works by Dr John W Cairns of the University of Edinburgh, Dr J Ralph Lindgren of Lehigh University, Professor Kenneth A B Mackinnon of the University of Waikato and the Honorable Richard A Posner of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. Together these authors bring expertise from the areas of law, philosophy, history, economics and law and economics to a new study of Adam Smith and his work. Part One of the book presents new and important observations on Smith's views on community, ethics, the court system, criminal law and delictual or tort law liability. In this part of the book, Smith's work is also examined from the perspective of his use as persuasive authority in the works of modern legal economists. In Part Two, the living Smith is explored by way of a debate between two major contributors in the field of law and economics. The debate and its analysis create a unique and contemporary opportunity to study Smith as a foundational source in the midst of a current academic and social policy dispute. The understanding of Adam Smith that emerges from this book is new and complex. It will challenge the one dimensional portrayals of Smith as a promoter of self interest and it will correct many of the misinterpretations of Smith that are currently fashionable in the worlds of law and economics and the philosophy of law Women and Enlightenment in
