Lord Advocates Diary:

Lord Advocate's Diary, 1961-1966 Gordon Stott, 1991 The Lord Advocates of Scotland from the Close of the Fifteenth Century to the Passing of the Reform Bill George William Thomson Omond, 1883 The Lord Advocates of Scotland George William Thomson Omond, 1883 The Life and Times of Montrose Mark Napier, 1840 The Life and Times of Montrose, Etc Mark NAPIER (Advocate.), 1840 Fifty Years of the Law Commissions Matthew Dyson, James Lee, Shona Wilson Stark, 2016-11-03 This book brings together past and present law commissioners judges practitioners academics and law reformers to analyse the past present and future of the Law Commissions in the United Kingdom and beyond Its internationally recognised authors bring a wealth of experience and insight into how and why law reform does and should take place covering statutory and non statutory reform from national and international perspectives The chapters of the book developed from papers given at a conference to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the Law Commissions Act 1965

An account of Oxenfoord castle Hew Hamilton Dalrymple (hon. sir.), 1901 The Work of the British Law Commissions Shona Wilson Stark, 2017-07-13 The Law Commission of England and Wales and the Scottish Law Commission were both established in 1965 to promote the reform of the laws of their respective jurisdictions Since then they have each produced hundreds of reports across many areas of law They are independent of government yet rely on governmental funding and governmental approval of their proposed projects They also rely on both government and Parliament and occasionally the courts or other bodies to implement their proposals This book examines the tension between independence and implementation and recommends how a balance can best be struck It proposes how the Commissions should choose their projects given that their duties outweigh their resources and how we should assess the success or otherwise of their output Countries around the world have created law reform bodies in the Commissions image They may wish to reflect on the GB Commissions responses to the changes and challenges they have faced to reappraise their own law reform machinery Equally the GB Commissions may seek inspiration from other commissions experiences The world the GB Commissions inhabit now is very different from when they were established They have evolved to remain relevant in the face of devolution the UK s changing relationship with the European Union increasing pressure for accountability and decreasing funding Further changes to secure the future of independent law reform are advanced in this book

The Life of Lord Chancellor Hardwicke, with Selections from His Correspondence, Diaries, Speeches and Judgments George HARRIS (Barrister-at-Law), 1847 Life, Letters, and Diaries of Sir Stafford Northcote, First Earl of Iddesleigh Andrew Lang, 1891 The Constitutional Legitimacy of Law Officers in the United Kingdom Conor McCormick, 2022-07-14 This book provides a detailed account of each law officer's functions and draws on that account as the basis for a conceptual analysis of their constitutional legitimacy In recent years the constitutional legitimacy of law officers has been questioned repeatedly because of recurring controversies surrounding the discharge of their varied functions Indeed it has become increasingly clear that those functions enable law officers to play a highly influential part in the regulation and exercise of public power throughout the United Kingdom McCormick argues that the most persuasive framework for analysing the offices which make up this diverse regime involves concentrating on the constitutional values of independence accountability and trust which underpin it Both aspects of the book namely the explanation of individual functions and the conceptual analysis of collective legitimacy are written in a holistic way which encompasses critical analyses about the Attorney General and Solicitor General for England and Wales the Counsel General for Wales the Lord Advocate Solicitor General and Advocate General for Scotland as well as the Attorney General and Advocate General for Northern Ireland
