Home Care Fault Lines Cynthia J. Cranford, 2020-06-15 In this revealing look at home care Cynthia J Cranford illustrates how elderly and disabled people and the immigrant women workers who assist them in daily activities develop meaningful relationships even when their different ages abilities races nationalities and socioeconomic backgrounds generate tension As Cranford shows workers can experience devaluation within racialized and gendered class hierarchies which shapes their pursuit of security Cranford analyzes the tensions alliances and compromises between security for workers and flexibility for elderly and disabled people and she argues that workers and recipients negotiate flexibility and security within intersecting inequalities in varying ways depending on multiple interacting dynamics What comes through from Cranford s analysis is the need for deeply democratic alliances across multiple axes of inequality To support both flexible care and secure work she argues for an intimate community unionism that advocates for universal state funding designs culturally sensitive labor market intermediaries run by workers and recipients to help people find jobs or workers and addresses everyday tensions in home workplaces
