New York Times Editor's Choice 1924 George Mallory is arguably the last great British explorer having twice tried and failed to conquer Mount Everest. The mountain has haunted him but his attempts have captivated the hearts of a nation desperate to restore its former glory after World War I. Yet George has sworn to his wife Ruth that he will not mount a third attempt. He will remain with her and their three children instead of again challenging the unreachable peak. Then one afternoon Ruth reads a telegram addressed to George: "Glad to have you aboard again." And with this one sentence the lives of the Mallorlys and the face of the nation are irrevocably changed. A beautifully rendered story about the need for redemption and the quest for glory, Above All Things is a captivating blend of historical fact and imaginative fiction. It is a heartbreaking tale of obsession, sacrifice, and what we do for love and honor. — 2000 American Alpine Journal, Published annually since 1929. The American Alpine Journal is internationally recognized as the world's finest journal of its kind. The latest volume of climbing's journal of record offers the most complete picture available of who did what in 1999. Conrad Anker relates the triumph and tragedy of the Mallory discovery high on the slopes of Mount Everest while Renny Jackson and Valeri Babanov recount impressive Alaskan climbs and Slovenian climbers report on the hardest and boldest climbs of the year. If it happened in the world of climbing it's in the AAJ. Founded in 1902, the American Alpine Club is the leading national organization devoted to mountaineering and rock climbing, to the conservation and study of mountainous regions, and to representing the interests of the American climbing community. The AAC is based in Golden, Colorado. — The Mammoth Book Of Everest Jon E. Lewis, 2015-06-04. This selection of the very best writing on Everest begins with the first attempts and continues via Mallory's failed bid and Hillary and Tenzing's triumph to the disasters of recent years. It features 35 white knuckle accounts of climbing on the world's highest mountain with all the tragedy and triumph of humankind's striving for the top of the world by those who know the Death Zone best: the climbers themselves. But this is much more than just the best of exhilarating first-hand accounts of climbing on Everest. It includes the full history of the conquest of Everest and provides an evocative portrait of the cruel natural beauty of Chomolungma, The Mother Goddess of the World. — When Hitler Took Cocaine and Lenin Lost His Brain Giles Milton, 2024-09-04. An addictive compendium of 50 little-known historic tales that are seemingly too good to be true, with plenty of fabulously dramatic adventures. Publishers Weekly. When Hitler Took Cocaine and Lenin Lost His Brain is the first installment in Giles Milton's outrageously entertaining series History's Unknown Chapters, colorful and accessible, intelligent and illuminating stories from the past that you probably never knew about. Covering everything from adventure and espionage to war and murder, this volume reveals the stories of the female Robinson Crusoe, Hitler's final hours, Japan's deadly balloon bomb, and the emperor of the United States. There's also the cook aboard the Titanic who survived the icy seas by pickling himself with whiskey. And the man who survived the atomic bomb in both Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Along with many, many more. — Behind Everest Kate Nicholson, 2025-11-04.
