Arabic Poetry Muhsin J. al-Musawi, 2006-09-27 Since the late 1940s Arabic poetry has spoken for an Arab conscience as much as it has debated positions and ideologies nationally and worldwide This book tackles issues of modernity and tradition in Arabic poetry as manifested in poetic texts and criticism by poets as participants in transformation and change It studies the poetic in its complexity relating to issues of selfhood individuality community religion ideology nation class and gender Al Musawi also explores in context issues that have been cursorily noticed or neglected like Shi i poetics Sufism women s poetry and expressions of exilic consciousness Arabic Poetry employs current literary theory and provides comprehensive coverage of modern and post modern poetry from the 1950s onwards making it essential reading for those with interests in Arabic culture and literature and Middle East studies

Pilgrims' Passage Joe Buda, 2014-09-24 Why does Pilgrims Passage matter Why can greed and deceit still manipulate us Why do people choose power over family Working to address these questions and more Pilgrims Passage Into a New Millennium and Rebuilding the Past are journeys brimming with adventures through turbulent times during the transition into the twenty first century For Paul Bardeck and Claudia Weiss discovering a thousand year old monks journal fuels their quest to rebuild a mysterious ancient monastery perched upon the foothills in the Slovakian High Tatras with the promise of releasing boundless energy stored within ancient ruins as well as the Book of ONE Concurrently Karl Vlodas seemingly unquenchable thirst for wealth and power fueled by the Black Star Pact's dark energy seems to make the quest for ancient truths a sideshow As the pilgrims paths entangle will the promise of timely truths finally come to light Does standing against the powers of darkness really matter today

Transition in Early Modern Asia, 1400-1750 Kaushik Roy, 2014-05-22 A substantial amount of work has been carried out to explore the military systems of Western Europe during the early modern era but the military trajectories of the Asian states have received relatively little attention This study provides the first comparative study of the major Asian empires military systems and explores the extent of the impact of West European military transition on the extra European world Kaushik Roy conducts a comparative analysis of the armies and navies of the large agrarian bureaucratic empires of Asia focusing on the question of how far the Asian polities were able to integrate gunpowder weapons in their military systems

Military Transition in Early Modern Asia 1400 1750 offers important insights into the common patterns in war making across the region and the impact of firearms and artillery

Doing Educational Research, 2015-01-01 In the second edition of Doing Educational Research we explore a variety of critical issues and methodologies Authors include some of the most influential voices selected from across the spectrum of career disciplines The scholars provide detailed insights into dimensions of the research process that engage both students and experienced researchers with key concepts and recent innovations in the art of doing research The contributors adopt a stance that is practical as it introduces beginning scholars to social inquiry and innovative as it transforms the boundaries of conversations about educational research Doing Educational Research appears at a critical moment in which educational researchers are pushed to align with a pervasive scientism that embraces tenets of crypto positivism The book addresses logics of inquiry underpinning cutting edge approaches to educational research that extend far beyond limited visions that are presented through the lenses of positivism The chapters explore a variety of methodologies including action research bricolage ethnography hermeneutics historiography media based research psychoanalysis and conversation analysis in a matrix of social theory authentic inquiry critical pedagogy and differences in epistemology ontology and axiology A diverse array of complex topics are presented in accessible forms and will compel both scholars and students

Doing Educational Research Kenneth George Tobin, 2006 The authors explore a variety of topics from methodologies such as ethnography action research hermeneutics historiography psychoanalysis literary criticism to issues such as social theory epistemology and paradigms Back cover

Afro-Nordic Landscapes Michael McEachrane, 2014-04-24 Afro Nordic Landscapes Equality and Race in Northern Europe challenges a view of Nordic societies as homogenously white and as human rights champions that are so progressive that even the concept of race is deemed irrelevant to their societies The book places African Diasporas race and legacies of imperialism squarely in a Nordic context How has a nation as peripheral as Iceland been shaped by an identity of being white How do Black Norwegians challenge racially conscribed views of Norwegian nationhood What does the history of jazz in Denmark say about the relation between its national identity and race What is it like to be a mixed race black Swedish woman How have African Diasporans in Finland navigated issues of race and belonging And what does the widespread denial of everyday racism in Nordic societies mean to Afro Nordics This text is a must read for anyone interested in issues of race in the Nordic region and Europe writ large As Paul Gilroy writes in his foreword it is a book that should be studied with care and profit inside the Nordic countries and also outside them by the broader international readership that has been established around the study of racism and critical race theory

Gandhi's Passion Stanley Wolpert, 2002-11-28 More than half a century after his death Mahatma Gandhi continues to inspire millions throughout the world Yet modern India most strikingly in its decision to join the nuclear arms race seems to have abandoned much of his nonviolent vision Inspired by recent events in India Stanley Wolpert offers this subtle and profound biography of India's Great Soul Wolpert compellingly chronicles the life of

Mahatma Gandhi from his early days as a child of privilege to his humble rise to power and his assassination at the hands of a man of his own faith This trajectory like that of Christ was the result of Gandhi s passion his conscious courting of suffering as the means to reach divine truth From his early campaigns to stop discrimination in South Africa to his leadership of a people s revolution to end the British imperial domination of India Gandhi emerges as a man of inner conflicts obscured by his political genius and moral vision Influenced early on by nonviolent teachings in Hinduism Jainism Christianity and Buddhism he came to insist on the primacy of love for one s adversary in any conflict as the invincible power for change His unyielding opposition to intolerance and oppression would inspire India like no leader since the Buddha creating a legacy that would encourage Martin Luther King Jr Nelson Mandela and other global leaders to demand a better world through peaceful civil disobedience By boldly considering Gandhi the man rather than the living god depicted by his disciples Wolpert provides an unprecedented representation of Gandhi s personality and the profound complexities that compelled his actions and brought freedom to India

The Last Heroes P Sainath,2022-11-30 So who really spearheaded India s Freedom Struggle Millions of ordinary people farmers labourers homemakers forest produce gatherers artisans and others stood up to the British People who never went on to be ministers governors presidents or hold other high public office They had this in common their opposition to Empire was uncompromising In The Last Heroes these footsoldiers of Indian freedom tell us their stories The men women and children featured in this book are Adivasis Dalits OBCs Brahmins Muslims Sikhs and Hindus They hail from different regions speak different languages and include atheists and believers Leftists Gandhians and Ambedkarites The people featured pose the intriguing question What is freedom They saw that as going beyond Independence And almost all of them continued their fight for freedoms long after 1947 The post 1947 generations need their stories To learn what they understood That freedom and independence are not the same thing And to learn to make those come together

Extrusion Processing Technology Jean-Marie Bouvier,Osvaldo H. Campanella,2014-03-31 Extrusion is the operation of forming and shaping a molten or dough like material by forcing it through a restriction or die It is applied and used in many batch and continuous processes However extrusion processing technology relies more on continuous process operations which use screw extruders to handle many process functions such as the transport and compression of particulate components melting of polymers mixing of viscous media heat processing of polymeric and biopolymeric materials product texturization and shaping defibering and chemical impregnation of fibrous materials reactive extrusion and fractionation of solid liquid systems Extrusion processing technology is highly complex and in depth descriptions and discussions are required in order to provide a complete understanding and analysis of this area this book aims to provide readers with these analyses and discussions Extrusion Processing Technology Food and Non Food Biomaterials provides an overview of extrusion processing technology and its established and emerging industrial applications Potency of process intensification and sustainable processing is also discussed and illustrated The book aims to span the gap between the principles of extrusion science and the practical knowledge of operational engineers and technicians The authors bring their research and industrial experience in extrusion processing technology to provide a comprehensive technical yet readable volume that will appeal to readers from both academic and practical backgrounds This book is primarily aimed at scientists and engineers engaged in industry research and teaching activities related to the extrusion processing of foods especially cereals snacks textured and fibrated proteins functional ingredients and instant powders feeds especially aquafeeds and petfoods bioplastics and plastics biosourced chemicals paper pulp and biofuels It will also be of interest to students of food science food engineering and chemical engineering Also available Formulation Engineering of Foods Edited by J E Norton P J Fryer and I T Norton ISBN 978 0 470 67290 7 Food and Industrial Bioproducts and Bioprocessing Edited by N T Dunford ISBN 978 0 8138 2105 4 Handbook of Food Process Design Edited by J Ahmed and M S Rahman ISBN 978 1 4443 3011 3 Whose Tradition? Which Dao? James F. Peterman, 2014-12-03 In an incisive work of comparative philosophy James F Peterman considers the similarities between early Chinese ethicist Confucius and mid twentieth century philosopher Ludwig Wittgenstein Their enduring legacies rest in no small part on projects to restore humanity to healthy ways of living and thinking Confucius offers a method of answering ethical questions designed to get his interlocutors further along on the Dao the path of right living Struggling with his own forms of unhealthy philosophical confusion Wittgenstein provides a method of philosophical therapy designed to help one come into agreement with norms embedded in our forms of life and speech Highlighting similarities between the two philosophers Peterman shows how Wittgensteinian critique can benefit from Confucian inquiry and how Confucian practice can benefit from Wittgensteinian investigations Furthermore in presenting a way to understand Confucius's Dao as concrete language games and forms of life and Wittgenstein's therapeutic interventions as the most fitting philosophical orientation toward early Confucian ethics Peterman offers Western thinkers a new sophisticated understanding of Confucius as a philosopher
