

Oh My God

Sometimes prayer requests are urgent. The Psalmist urges God to answer and make no tarrying about it. He affirms his need for God's help and his need to get help quick!

Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel men. Psalm 71:4.

In prayer we try out, do God for deliverance. "Deliver me, O my God, out of ..." expressed in faith sounds much different than ranting "OMG" in disbelief". So turn those moments when otherwise you would scream in disbelief into a moment with God where you express your trust in Him because you have given this care over to Him.

Deliver me, O God, out of cancer, drugs, alcohol, meth, atheism, socialism ... and the list goes and on. But we must ask God to deliver us. Even if you are saved but caught in some kind of bondage to sin it is the right thing for you to ask God to deliver and save you.

Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God; for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly. Psalm 3:7.

It's never wrong to ask God to save you. When the Bible talks about salvation it does not always refer to the salvation of souls in the new birth. On some occasions it means to be saved from an urgent problem, crisis or need or to be saved from a physical or national threat. You might already have received God's saving grace. But maybe you are facing persecution, trials, temptations and other issues. Ask God to save you specifically from that. That is what the Psalmist does in his prayers.

Don't be too proud to exclaim by faith: " Save me, O my God."

If you are lost and never have been saved, then you still need to call upon the name of the Lord and trust Jesus Christ. Why not stop what you are doing now and cry out "Save me, O my God." Ask Him to save your soul, repent of your sin and trust in Jesus Christ because it was for our sin that He died on the cross to pay the ransom to save our souls from everlasting hellfire. God raised His Son Jesus from death and so we also can be raised to a new life. Death – the consequence of sin – can be overturned. We will die physically but we will not stay dead. We receive a new body that is glorified and not ruined by sin. We receive a new nature when we get saved. We can reckon our old nature to be dead but we have to put on the new man that we have received.

O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste for my help. Psalm 71:12.

Don't just yell "OMG" in disbelief. Pray like this verse and ask for God's help. He wants to be your help. We can't make it on our own. Trust in and ask for God's help. Many times I have experienced God's help as I quietly prayed. There is the outward prayer when your pray aloud in church prayer meetings or congregational meetings, family prayer, personal devotions. There is the inward prayer. We are commanded to pray evermore. We cannot pray aloud all the time. We pray silently in our heart as we are at work, in social gatherings, in groups, busy doing our work etc. In those times we can cry out for God to help us. We must believe that He IS (Heb. 11:6) and therefore is real, so that we can expect Him to answer.
