My Happy Ones:

My California Nightmare Cheryl Demers Fluett, 2019-07-26 My California Nightmare was written to make people aware and show them that our criminal justice system is not run honestly in California like it should be From the police who can make up anything and arrest you to the district attorneys who can go along with these rogue police Because this scenario happens all too often it needed to be told California lawyers the ones that get a lot of money from their clients seemed to be dishonest also But some just want to please the district attorney They do and will take a lot of money from a person Even before the charges have been decided Even before there is a trial They do not object to anything that is said in court This book shows how the criminal justice system which is led by the district attorney and supposed to be presided over by honest judges is not The judges seem to be tainted When sitting through many many hearings where nothing is decided Then there is the fact that throughout all the hearings there are many different judges assigned They do not even know what the case is about Read this book and draw your own conclusions
