Born to the middle class in Middle America in the middle of the twentieth century to middle of the road republicans Jashanananda was a fearful child He was reluctant to make an appearance in this world and then slow to blossom It was not until he found himself studying psychology in the free love sixties that he began exploring new ideas and asking questions like What is this world and Who am I With the help of psychedelic drugs Jashanananda turned away from academia and began an inner quest to find what's real This journey led him to Eastern religions and down the path of yoga which carried him through a twenty year marriage a job in corporate America and raising three children in the mountains of Colorado Then one day in the midst of his middleclass suburban life he had an awakening and everything changed He was back on his journey in search of his true self the source of love and the true nature of existence This is his story A Passionate

Pilgrim David M. Robertson, 2007-12-18 James A Pike the fifth bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California was a man of many faces To some he was an iconoclast a man decades ahead of his time who modernized the Church and rendered it more progressive and open to inquiry To others he was a heretic who polarized and desecrated the Church Always controversial and charismatic he took America by storm in the 1960s with his best selling books and his weekly television talk show Dean Pike which won him a cover story in Time A Passionate Pilgrim is an illuminating biography of Pike and an examination of the tragedies triumphs and difficulties that shaped his spectacular rise to fame and his mysterious death in the Israeli desert
