Still Travelling Mal Leyland, 2015-03-24 At a time when the outback was still a forbidding remote frontier the Leyland brothers brought it into people's homes through their many documentaries and successful television series In doing so they persuaded thousands of Aussies out on to the road starting the four wheel drive revolution and contributing to a huge recreational industry Neil McDonald Herald Sun Mike and Mal Leyland's first step towards becoming beloved Aussie icons came with the screening of their hazardous trip down the length of the Darling River in a five metre aluminium dinghy They went on to have numerous adventures culminating in their ground breaking TV series Ask the Leyland Brothers in which they travelled to unusual or far flung places around Australia at viewers requests In this revealing memoir Mal Leyland takes us through his eventful life from his ten pound Pom immigrant childhood adventuring with Mike through outback Australia the brothers sometimes stormy relationship their dramatic rise to success as filmmakers their devastating financial losses Mal's triumph over cancer to his ongoing travels with his beloved wife of 45 years Laraine Ever the adventurer Mal Leyland has continued to explore our beautiful and dangerous country Still Travelling is his compelling account of a life lived to the full

A Window Seat to My Life April Bourne, 2020-12-21 I have combined my travels with stories that happened during my life as so often when you see or hear something you instantly recall a situation from previous times I have been as honest as I can be from my perspective and have pulled no punches in these reflections If you read this and can relate in a positive way then I am happy

Back on Track Bernie Shakeshaft, James Knight, 2019-07-09 As a kid Bernie Shakeshaft's mischievous and reckless behaviour led him to become known as the wild one of his devout Catholic family It isn't surprising that his path led him to the Northern Territory a place where people often go to either lose themselves or find themselves Bernie a searcher for his purpose in life found himself He had many jobs firstly as a ringer on a cattle station owned by the Packer family and later as a dingo trapper for the Parks and Wildlife Service Throughout it all he drank he swore he fought and took chances with his own well being But crucially he also developed deep connections with the Indigenous people and it was these connections that helped lay the foundations for what was to come He worked for youth welfare organisations and all the while he built up his knowledge about helping wayward youths particularly those from Indigenous communities Years later Bernie was living in Armidale He'd been visiting too many kids in prison and going to too many funerals The usual methods weren't working so that reckless mischievous kid inside him decided he could do better He started a youth program called BackTrack with three aims To keep them alive out of jail and chasing their hopes and dreams For most this was their last chance Combining life skills education job preparedness with rural work Bernie threw in one other factor dogs And it works With the help of these working dogs the lost boys and girls find their way back on track These days Backtrack youth tour the country competing in dog jumping trials Bernie and the BackTrack team are now supporting other communities in Lake Cargelligo Broken Hill Dubbo and Grafton and have forged a new beginning for over 1000 young people This one man is making a huge difference In Back on Track bestselling author James Knight tells Bernie s story and the stories of those whose lives he has saved It is a powerful reminder that we should never give up on our kids This fella Bernie he s a good fella a bit of a genius really What a great story Russell Crowe     Your Story Matters Leslie Leyland Fields,2020-04-07 Your story is bigger than you know From its tiniest details to its most dramatic events your story is a sacred gift worthy of attention But how do you find and tell that story In this practical liberating guide based on her thirty years of writing and teaching Leslie Leyland Fields will lead you step by step in exploring your past and shaping your memories into vivid compelling stories With writing exercises to help you dive deeper into your story you ll discover new spiritual truths reclaim the past share hope and pass on your own extraordinary legacy Understanding God s work in our stories is a vital part of our faith Not just a book for writers this practical and inspiring book teaches us how to sift through our experiences to find the places we have witnessed God in our journey the mysterious the tragic the miraculous and the ordinary Find even more inspiration and guidance with Your Story for His Glory a companion video curriculum available online or in DVD format Leslie was not only my first writing mentor she continues to mentor me with the way she lives her life and shapes it into an unforgettable story that gives hope and gives God the glory Ann Voskamp New York Times bestselling author Leslie has a deep commitment to writing life giving words This book promises to prompt the best out of storytellers and creatives Max Lucado New York Times bestselling author Personal and profound inspirational and practical God focused and with its feet firmly placed on the ground this is a necessary and beautiful book for anyone and everyone Brett Lott New York Times bestselling author director of MFA program at the College of Charleston     The Cinema of Me Alisa Lebow,2012 When a filmmaker makes a film with herself as a subject she is already divided as both the subject matter of the film and the subject making the film The two senses of the word are immediately in play the matter and the maker thus the two ways of being subjectified as both subject and object Subjectivity finds its filmic expression not surprisingly in very personal ways yet it is nonetheless shaped by and in relation to collective expressions of identity that can transform the cinema of me into the cinema of we Leading scholars and practitioners of first person film are brought together in this groundbreaking collection to consider the theoretical ideological and aesthetic challenges wrought by this form of filmmaking in its diverse cultural geographical and political contexts     Conversations with Christopher Isherwood Christopher Isherwood,2001 To many readers Christopher Isherwood means Berlin The author of Goodbye to Berlin 1939 the British Isherwood found fame through the adaptation of that work into the stage play and film I Am a Camera and then into the stage musical and film Cabaret Throughout his career he was a keen observer always seemingly in the right place at the right time Whether in Berlin in the 1930s or in Los Angeles in the 1960s and 1970s Isherwood 1904-86 reflected on his life and his world and wrote perceptive commentary on contemporary European and American history and culture His ties to California made him more American than British I have spent half my life in the United States he said Los Angeles is a great place for feeling at home because everybody's from someplace else Isherwood can be credited for helping make L.A. an acceptable setting for serious fiction paving the way for John Rechy Joan Didion Paul Monette and Bernard Cooper among others The interviews in this volume two of which have never before been published stretch over a period of forty years They address a wide range of topics including the importance of diary keeping to his life and work the interplay between fiction and autobiography his turning from Christianity to Hinduism his circle of friends including W.H. Auden Aldous Huxley and E.M. Forster several important places in his life Berlin England and California and his homosexual identity These interviews are substantive smart and insightful allowing the author to discuss his approach to writing of both fiction and nonfiction More and more he explains writing is appearing to me as a kind of self-analysis a finding out of something about myself and about the past and about what life is like as far as I'm concerned who I am who these people are what it's all about This emphasis on self-discovery comes as no surprise from a writer who mined his own diaries and experiences for inspiration As an interviewee Isherwood is introspective thoughtful and humorous James J. Berg is the program director for the Center for Teaching and Learning Minnesota State Colleges and Universities Chris Freeman is an assistant professor of English at St. John's University Berg and Freeman are editors of The Isherwood Century: Essays on the Life and Work of Christopher Isherwood which was a finalist for the 2001 Lambda Literary Award for Gay Studies Living and Loving in Diversity Maria Pallotta-Chiarolli, 2018-09-24 Sad and funny sexy and sensitive angry and insightful the deeply personal stories in this book reflect a rainbow of experiences and emotions as diverse as the storytellers themselves Join chief editor Maria Pallotta Chiarolli and the Australian LGBTIQ Multicultural Council for a journey of discovery through queer multicultural multifaith Australia with more than sixty voices from across the spectrum of sexualities and genders families and relationships Annette Xiberras lesbian Wurundjeri Elder with a Maltese father provides a Welcome to Book and insights into her Indigenous migrant family Filmmakers Tony Ayres and Franco Di Chiera share their experiences telling stories from minority cultures on Australian screens while Benjamin Law talks queer Asian Australian identity and making The Family Law for SBS Broadcaster Faustina Agolley talks about being out as a woman of colour and Anton Enus tells us about coming out as a coloured gay man in South Africa Entertainer Paul Capsis reflects on doing Cabaret in the age of Trump while Asiel Adan talks about non-binary gender across the US border in Mexico Meanwhile Christos Tsiolkas imagines Ari the protagonist of his iconic novel Loaded now middle-aged during a weekend of mass violence in distant Paris while Patrick Abboud travels the world so he can come home Alyena Mohammadally searches for reconciliation between her queer and Muslim identities and

Shower of Shite James McGrath, 2024-08-16 A Shower of Shite offers a gripping biographical narrative that charts the tumultuous journey of two parents as they navigate through a relentless storm of trials brought upon by their children Their story akin to the dramatic arcs of a British soap opera unfolds with tragic twists and turns an unceasing cascade of events that would seem overdrawn if not for their stark reality These challenges though uninvited and not of their own making are met with a resilience that speaks to the profound sense of duty and unwavering compassion inherent in parental love It's a testament to the silent oath etched in the very fabric of biological bonds a commitment to defend sometimes even the indefensible against the odds all told with a humourous look back at life events faced by the family Lancashire and
