My Life Is A Toilet:

My Life is a Toilet Gretel Killeen, 2002 When the Body Is the Target Sharon Klayman Farber, 2002-11-05 In this comprehensive and insightful work Dr Sharon K Farber provides an invaluable resource for the mental health professional who is struggling to understand self harm and its origins Using attachment theory to explain how addictive connections to pain and suffering develop she discusses various kinds and functions of self harm behavior From eating disorders to body modifications such as tattooing Dr Farber explores the language of self harm and the translation of that language and its psychic functions in the therapeutic setting She tells us When the body weeps tears of blood we need to wonder what terrible sorrows cannot be spoken Brilliantly illustrated with rich clinical material this book offers a practical approach to the diagnosis assessment and treatment of the increasing number of patients whose emotions are expressed through bodily harm The challenges of working with patients who tend to view the world of relationships in terms of predator and prey are clearly explicated and the stormy countertransference responses that threaten to destroy the treatment are given a full hearing Finally she shows how the attachment relationship formed in treatment can repair the traumatic attachment in mind body psyche and soul and can serve as the cornerstone of therapeutic change A Jason Aronson Book Why Did God Seat Me Next to the Toilet? Frank J. Nice, 2021-09-09 Our God is a God who is in total control of all that happens to the whole world and to each of us individually God can allow or prevent bad things from happening Of course most of us desire that God would prevent bad things from happening When we are seated next to the toilet on an airplane we pretty much assume that God could care less whether we are seated next to the toilet or are seated in first class Yet God controls every single action that occurs in the world or He would not be God When we are seated next to the toilet of life we discover as Job did that God allowed this to happen for all things to work together for good for those who love Him and are called according to His purpose God's plan for us who trust in Him are to prosper us and not to harm us but to give us hope and a future The purpose of this book is to show that no matter how bad the evil and sin that confront us God is in total control and His words of promise to us will be fulfilled On this earth you may lose all that you have family friends wealth health possessions dignity and told to curse God and die as Job was Through God's grace and mercy you can endure as Job endured Do not think that Job endured only because God knew him as a blessed man who lives righteously You and I are most certainly not of the character of Job but God has seated us next to the same toilet of life where Job was seated Because God is always nearby during our trials He told Job that we will discover God's specific plan for us when He does seat us next to the toilet whether it be on the plane or on the earth Make Trauma Your B*TCH - A Memoir Kate Smith, 2023-02-13 Hurdle after hurdle everyone's experiences are their own This memoir's filled with some of mine Mixed with a bit of poetry and some spicy language this was written to help you divide and conquer your trauma This memoir may get a little too descriptive but this is a complex topic that needs to be addressed and societal changes need to be made Trauma affects people to their core no
