My Life on the Street Joe Homeless, 1992 Alone in his early forties and calling himself Joe Homeless he wanders the streets of New York City He is not a drug addict he is not an alcoholic he has never been a convict But one thing he is he is unwanted My Life On The Street is the savage poignant memoir of one of the world's homeless faceless persons Joe once had a job money and a home But now his only home is the street How he got there what he does there and how he survives are his passionate themes Deserted by family and friends Joe has existed in an atmosphere of fear and violence for over ten years He has survived hunger freezing temperatures wild dogs and physical abuse He has been hunted like an animal by vigilante block associations armed with baseball bats Along the way Joe found and repaired an old tape recorder and began dictating his experiences in basements and on rooftops anywhere he could find a quiet spot alone Years and several tape recorders later he had over thirty cassettes that told his story From rush hour subway platforms Joe recruited a staff of volunteers musicians and writers editors and lawyers who transcribed and edited Joe's account of his decade on the streets Joe finally found help on the street from these people who either admired his guts and persistence or felt a social responsibility to get his manuscript published And although Joe wanted his story told to make a buck and get me off the street he also wants to make things better for everybody else in the street by letting people know the truth about a homeless existence Joe Homeless is a pen name adopted to protect the author's identity on the streets where he feels threatened by police residents and his fellow homeless
