My Life With Pablo Neruda:

My Life with Pablo Neruda Matilde Urrutia, 2004 The muse and widow of the Nobel Laureate poet of Chile who composed The Captain's Verses and One Hundred Love Sonnets reveals her side to their famed romance She documents her life not only as a love story but also as a document of her life as the persecuted widow of a national hero Pablo Neruda Adam Feinstein, 2008-12-08 Adam Feinstein's book is the first English language biography of the Nobel Prize winning Chilean poet Pablo Neruda Relating Neruda's remarkable life story and delving into the literary legacy of the man Gabriel Garcia Marquez called the greatest poet of the twentieth century in any language Feinstein uncovers the details of this icon's artistic output political engagement friendships with a pantheon of important 20th century artistic and political figures and many loves

A Companion to Pablo Neruda Jason Wilson, 2014-08 Pablo Neruda was without doubt one of the greatest poets of the twentieth century but his work is extremely uneven There is a view that there are two Nerudas an early Romantic visionary and a later Marxist populist who denied his earlier poetic self By focussing on the poet's apprenticeship and by looking closely at how Neruda created his poetic persona within his poems this Companion tries to establish what should survive of his massive output By seeing his early work as self exploration through metaphor and sound as well as through varieties of love and direct experience the Companion outlines a unity behind all the work based on voice and a public self Neruda's debt to reading and books is studied in depth and the change in poetics re-examined by concentrating on the early work up to Residencia en la tierra I and II and why he wanted to become a poet Debate about quality and representativity is grounded in his Romantic thinking sensibility and sincerity Unlike a Borges or a Paz who accompanied their creative work with analytical essays Neruda distilled all his experiences into his poems which remain his true biography Jason Wilson is Professor Emeritus in the Department of Spanish and Latin American Studies University College London Ten Poems to Change Your Life

Roger Housden, 2007-12-18 Great poetry calls into question everything It dares us to break free from the safe strategies of the cautious mind It opens us to pain and joy and delight It amazes startles pierces and transforms us It can lead to communion and grace Through the voices of ten inspiring poets and his own reflections the author of Sacred America shows how poetry illuminates the eternal feelings and desires that stir the human heart and soul These poems explore such universal themes as the awakening of wonder the longing for love the wisdom of dreams and the courage required to live an authentic life In thoughtful commentary on each work Housden offers glimpses into his personal spiritual journey and invites readers to contemplate the significance of the poet's message in their own lives In Ten Poems to Change Your Life Roger Housden shows how these astonishing poems can inspire you to live what you always knew in your bones but never had the words for The Journey by Mary Oliver Last Night as I Was Sleeping by Antonio Machado Song of Myself by Walt Whitman Zero Circle by Rumi The Time Before Death by Kabir Ode to My Socks by Pablo Neruda Last Gods by Galway Kinnell For the Anniversary of My Death by W S Merwin Love After Love by Derek Walcott The Dark Night by St John of the Cross

Experiments with Life Itself Francisco Gonzalez de Canales,2013-01-15 Every book relating the history of modern architecture features a large number of pages dedicated to avant garde designs and the formation of the modern movement in the interwar years and a similar number devoted to reconstruction and expansion after the Second World War Meanwhile as if owing to lack of understanding or convenient silence there is void of dark years of wars exile and misfortune about which little can be said However it was in these dark times as in so many other revealing moments in the history of culture that experimental and profoundly invigorating experiences were taking place Architects and artists voluntarily or forcibly driven to the margins of social importance began to react to a culturally unsustainable situation of which we know very little even today In Experiments with Life Itself Francisco Gonzalez de Canales studies a series of unrelated cases from the late 1930s to the late 1950s that he refers to as domestic self experimentation
