XTREME MODELLING 11 EN, Mending Skins Eric L. Gansworth, 2005-01-01 Welcome to the Seventh Annual Conference of the Society for Protection and Reclamation of Indian Images. Expect to find amid all the refined cultural observations, academic posturing and political maneuvering an Indian who defies anyone to protect, let alone reclaim her image. This is Shirley Mounter, a Tuscarora woman and the chief storyteller among the acerbic, eloquent and often hilarious speakers who overflow the pages of this latest novel by the noted Onondaga writer Eric Gansworth. A lecture on Indian stereotypes by Shirley's daughter, art historian Annie Boans, calls forth Shirley's recollections whose outpourings deposit us in the turbulent yet restorative waters of modern Iroquoian reservation life, always flowing and eddying around kin. Indeed, Shirley's house and land are now, after a long and bitter fight, forever lost to her in the construction of a water reservoir that feeds the government's hydroelectric plant. The story of this battle is the story of Shirley's generation and the faltering generation that follows of violent love and losses of children turning away only to find themselves forever negotiating the nuances of identity of popular culture in jarring juxtaposition with the sometimes even more incredible realities of Native life. Weaving a complex narrative illustrated with his own paintings, Gansworth creates a rich, wry and multifaceted tapestry of the intricate twists and turns of coincidence, memories and stories that bind Native families together.

The Macro Event Andrew Adams, 2020-02-11 The United States political climate is prime for attack from enemies outside and within. Two of the world's most dangerous Axis of Evil, Iran and North Korea, coordinate a nuclear missile attack designed to drive the United States to its knees. Embedded groups of coordinated and well-trained terrorist leaders lie waiting throughout the United States. One group of radicals attacks Washington DC with a truck bomb to start the war. Orders sent to other terrorist leaders around the country start the assembly of small armies of haters who aim to destroy what remains after the carnage of the nuclear attacks. A critically injured president lies in a coma. Many high-ranking politicians are dead or missing. A high-altitude EMP electromagnetic pulse detonated successfully over Northern California destroys the power grids, electronics and modern automobiles throughout the Western United States. Secret plans created in advance by Homeland Security are the only
