My Mothers Black Child:

My Brown Baby Denene Millner, 2017-03-14 The best site for thoughtful fierce advice about parenting from a Black perspective Ebony For almost a decade national parenting expert and bestselling author Denene Millner has published thought provoking insightful sometimes wickedly funny commentary about motherhood on her critically acclaimed website MyBrownBaby.com The site hailed as a must read by the New York Times speaks to the experiences joys fears sorrows and triumphs of African American motherhood from pregnancy and child rearing to relationships and the politics of parenting black children After publishing almost 2 000 posts aimed at lifting the voices of moms and dads of color Millner has now curated My Brown Baby a collection of the website's most important and insightful essays This one of a kind parenting book offers perspectives on the issues moms of color and mothers of children of color face as they raise their kids from birthing while black to negotiating discipline to preparing children for racism Through her website Millner has created a space for African American moms and parents of black children many of whom long to lend their critical but all too often ignored voices to the national parenting discussion Full of essays that readers of all backgrounds will find provocative My Brown Baby acknowledges that there absolutely are issues that African American parents must deal with that white parents never have to confront if they're not raising brown children This book chronicles these differences with open arms a lot of love and the deep belief that though we may come from separate places and have different backgrounds all parents want the same things for our families and especially for our children

Mothers of Adult Children Marguerite Guzman Bouvard, 2013-09-12 Mothers of Adult Children elucidates what happens when children come of age and leave home creating new lives in the realms of work and relationships Mothers from around the world learn that this is the point in which their relationships with their children must drastically change Mothers often come to terms with the changes by accepting differences and providing moral and emotional support when needed However the evolutionary nature of mothers' roles throughout the course of their children's lives is not only determined by the mother-child dynamic The mothering of adult children is a transformative role and the stories presented here show that the dynamics between mother and child are also influenced by cultural events Accidents disasters war and other hardships also intervene in these stories of multicultural motherhood This book reveals the problems mothers of adult children face and celebrates the outstanding accomplishments of those who mother through hardship

The Stories of Building the Black Beach Community of Ocean City, North Carolina Hope W. Jackson, 2021-11-16 The Stories of Building the Black Beach Community of Ocean City North Carolina shares a provocative story about a small Black beach community on North Topsail Island North Carolina Hope Jackson argues that stories like these not only offer a rich untold perspective about Black lives but also shares the depth of this Black community despite originating under the threat of violence in the segregated South Brick by Brick acknowledges the defiance of a group of Black individuals who collectively provided a recreational oceanfront haven These radical Black folks created a safe harbor

for Blacks to visit live worship and recreate in the midst of de facto segregation The author reveals an embedded narrative which highlights the rebelliousness of Ocean City women s strategic mothering Jackson shares how the impact of this location extended beyond a vacation by creating Christian worship opportunities and an Episcopal summer youth camp for Black youth The Ocean City stories remind readers that despite Jim Crow s demise the need for a safe recreational space remains necessary for Black people in today s society Children and the Power of Stories Carmen Blyth,Teresa K. Aslanian,2022-03-04 This book explores how stretching stories through posthuman and autoethnographic perspectives can produce new stories that decolon ial ize traditional thinking and approaches to Early Childhood Education ECE It demonstrates how stories can provide a different way of knowing and a way of knowing differently a way of decolon ial izing current discourses of early childhood education within educational institutions The book uses research and practice in ECE to act as a canvas a context with which to explore how autoethnography can become other when viewed through a posthumanist lens As a consequence the chapters and stories within allow for an interplay between the posthumanist and the autoethnographic an interplay that allows for a very specific type of meaning to emerge a meaning that traffics in numerous and disruptive possibilities rather than settled certainties In so doing authors rethink and perturb the notion of child centered approaches to knowing be com ing and doing within the Early Childhood Education context Black Mother Educators Tamba O. Jackson,2021-02-01 Drawing upon the theoretical frameworks of Beauboeuf Lafontant 2002 Collins 2009 Crenshaw 1991 and Dillard 2012 this volume makes a case for centering the voices and experiences of Black women in the protection and educational uplift of Black children While examinations of how Black educators articulate and enact a need to protect Black students from racialized harm exist McKinney de Royston et al 2020 this book is a collection of autoethnographic narratives from Black mother educators who work at the intersections of their personal and professional identities to protect Black children Intersectionality allows us to look at the nexus of our identities in regards to race gender and occupation as Black women and educators Our goal for this volume was to bring together scholars who can support theorizing the intersectionality of our identities as Black mothers and educators particularly its influence on our pedagogical practices and the safekeeping of Black children This volume explicates stories of motherwork from Black mother educators whose professional spaces span K 12 to higher education contexts Collectivity this volume expounds upon the dimension of protector within the literature on Black women teachers Children Today ,1990 Families in the U.S. Karen V. Hansen,Anita Iltia Garey,1998 Attempts to do justice to the complexity of contemporary families and to situate them in their economic political and cultural contexts This book explores the ways in which family life is gendered and reflects on the work of maintaining family and kin relationships especially as social and family power structures change over time Gender Through the Prism of Difference Maxine Baca Zinn,Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo,Michael A. Messner,2016 Gender Through the Prism of Difference adopts a global transnational perspective on how race class and sexual diversity are central to the study of sex and gender In contrast with other books in this area which tend to focus on U S or European viewpoints this wide ranging anthology features many articles based on research done elsewhere throughout the world Now in its fifth edition the book opens with a revised and updated Introduction that sets the stage for understanding gender as a socially constructed experience Featuring twenty eight new readings this edition covers compelling subjects like transgendered people intersex issues men and masculinity sexual and gender violence disabilities obesity reproductive technologies educational testing aging and ageism and Occupy Wall Street
