My Mountie And Me A True Story:

Hunger, Horses, and Government Men Shelley A. M. Gavigan, 2012-10-15 Scholars often accept without question that the Indian Act 1876 criminalized First Nations Drawing on court files police and penitentiary records and newspaper accounts from the Saskatchewan region of the North West Territories between 1870 and 1905 Shelley Gavigan argues that the notion of criminalization captures neither the complexities of Aboriginal participation in the criminal courts nor the significance of the Indian Act as a form of law This illuminating book paints a vivid portrait of Aboriginal defendants witnesses and informants whose encounters with the criminal law and the Indian Act included both the mediation and the enforcement of relations of inequality Cahiers de la Femme ,2001 Mountie Makers Robert Gordon Teather, 2011-02-01 Bob Teather entered RCMP Basic Recruit Training three decades ago with no idea of what he was getting into Along with 31 other confused young men he found himself in Regina Saskatchewan as a lowly member of Troop 18 Bald intimidated and soon to be bruised Bob began a six month ordeal that he candidly recalls in this engaging book Corporal Teather's story brings you close to six recruits from across the country Prairie Dog Andr Lumchuck Francois weird Harold Burl and Teather himself a scrawny kid from Hamilton who often learned the hard way that if it hurts you just tape an aspirin to it Their experiences capture the essence of Canada and provide revealing aspects of the traditional RCMP training process Near the end of his active career Bob came to realize that it was Basic Training that put the Canadian in his RCMP and that bonds its members into a force capable of policing this complex country A Communist for the RCMP Dennis Gruending, In 1941 the RCMP recruited Frank Hadesbeck a Spanish Civil War veteran as a paid informant to infiltrate the Communist Party For decades he informed not only upon communists but also upon hundreds of other people who held progressive views Hadesbeck's Watch Out lists on behalf of the Security Service included labour activists medical doctors lawyers university professors and students journalists Indigenous and progressive farm leaders members of the clergy and anyone involved in the peace and human rights movements Defying every warning given to him by his handlers Hadesbeck kept secret notes Using these notes author Dennis Gruending recounts how the RCMP spied upon thousands of Canadians Hadesbeck's life and career are in the past but RCMP surveillance continues in new guises As Canada's petroleum industry doubles down on its extraction plans in the oil sands and elsewhere the RCMP and other state agencies provide support routinely branding Indigenous land defenders and their allies in the environmental movement as potential terrorists They share information and tactics with petroleum industry stakeholders in what has been described as a surveillance web intended to suppress dissent A Communist for the RCMP provides an inside account of Hadesbeck's career and illustrates how the RCMP uses surveillance of activists to enforce the status quo The Mountie Michael Dawson, 1998-04-01 Historian Michael Dawson digs deep into the written and pictorial record to reveal how the RCMP since its inception has constructed and zealously guarded its public image Drawing on previously untapped sources Dawson documents how consultants and entrepreneurs deliberately transformed and modernized the traditional symbolism of the Mountie His trenchant analysis extends to the ironies of the recent licensing of the hallowed Mountie image to the ultimate dream merchants Disney

Good Luck Frenchy Alain Olivier,2020-02-27 Being mistaken for someone else being falsely depicted as an important international heroin importer and trafficker and being made an unwilling accessory to murder aren't everyday occurrences Surely this is not how the police behave to get their man But what if they go further What if with the aid of a thuggish civil agent the RCMP implement a buy and bust operation a Final Solution to get rid of you And what if a Mountie is killed in the process under very nebulous circumstances A chilling scenario that becomes even more disconcerting when members of the RCMP commit perjury to insure your conviction and cover up the true circumstances surrounding their colleague's death But what about you being sentenced to death as a result of this and a trial littered with lying witnesses and tainted evidence that sends you on a path meant to shatter your already broken life And what if in the end Canadian legal institutions and ministries opt to defend the undefendable in order to protect the RCMP's integrity and the image of Canada Known as Bang Kwang prison inmate 482 33 my name is Alain Olivier I learned first hand what it means to be treated as expendable when the RCMP screws things up during a sketchy buy bust operation oversea This was my struggle against all odds to survive in the jungle of Bang Kwang prison a true story that has something for everyone drugs murder threats violence conflict of interest political corruption coverups and my faint hope that the Canadian government would come to its senses and bring me home very diligently to ensure that the three people who I believe murdered him got off absolutely scot free never to be held responsible for their actions or spend one day in prison And then the justice system again worked diligently to prevent my family and me from being able to do anything about it This is a true accounting of what transpired during the past nine years since my brother s death and told in the only way I could tell it without being sent to prison for ignoring the conditions a Supreme Court judge bestowed upon me after the conclusion of the trial In a country where courts are supposed to be open for public scrutiny I however as a secondary victim to murder have been muzzled and handcuffed It only goes to show how judges and Crown prosecutors through their autonomy and independence can introduce publication bans and court orders and are able to do whatever they please and make whatever rulings they wish even if their behaviour and decisions are blatantly wrong This is my story
