Martin Crimp's Theatre Clara Escoda Agusti, 2013-05-28 This book reads Martin Crimp's The Treatment 1993 Attempts on her Life 1997 The Country 2000 Face to the Wall 2002 Cruel and Tender 2004 and his adaptation of Chekhov's The Seagull 2006 in the context of contemporary late capitalist societies of control or of spectacle and explores how female collapse in particular works as a form of denunciation of the violence of globalized technological neo liberalism The book contends that Crimp is a post Holocaust writer whose dramaturgy is pervaded by the ethical and aesthetic debates that the Holocaust has generated in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Its main claim is that by interpellating spectators through the defamiliarized language of collapse and testimony Crimp invites spectators to contribute to detecting the seeds of barbarism as they may detect them in their context thus warning them about the introduction of violence in supposedly civilized relationships and thereby also contributing to overcoming the contemporary ethical impasse The book finally argues that female characters who pass on their testimony are shown to the audience in the process of becoming ethical bodies namely they emerge as ethical out of the perceived necessity to integrate both the Other as essential parts of their beings thus recovering an innate Baumanian sense of responsibility towards the Other
