/ Шаровая молния Ян Флеминг,2025-03-18 It was one of those days when it seemed to James Bond that all life as someone put it was nothing but a heap of six to four against To begin with he was ashamed of himself a rare state of mind He had a hangover a bad one with an aching head and stiff joints When he coughed smoking too much goes with drinking too much and doubles the hangover a cloud of small luminous black spots swam across his vision like amoebae in pond water The one drink too many signals itself unmistakably His final whisky and soda in the luxurious flat in Park Lane had been no different from the ten preceding ones but it had gone down reluctantly and had left a bitter taste and an ugly sensation of surfeit And although he had taken in the message he had agreed to play just one more rubber Five pounds a hundred as it s the last one He had agreed And he had played the rubber like a fool Even now he could see the queen of spades with that stupid Mona Lisa smile on her fat face slapping triumphantly down on his knave the queen as his partner had so sharply reminded him that had been so infallibly marked with South and that had made the difference between a grand slam redoubled drunkenly for him and four hundred points above the line for the opposition In the end it had been a twenty point rubber 100 against him important money
