My Search For Warren Harding:

My Search for Warren Harding Robert Plunket, 2023-06-06 An exhilarating brutal comedic masterpiece an American classic that will leave you so giddy you'll go and kick sand in somebody's face Houston Post When My Search for Warren Harding Robert Plunket's glittering story of literary sleuthing and deceit first appeared in 1983 it garnered immediate and far reaching acclaim Frank Conroy at the Washington Post exclaimed The author pulled me in so deftly moved me up an escalating scale of sly hyperbole so cunningly that after a hundred pages I seemed to have turned over the keys so to speak of my nervous system Florence King at the Dallas Times Herald The most exciting event in American letters for a very long time a momentous book More recently though long out of print it was canonized in The Guardian's 1000 Novels Everyone Must Read ranked by the Washington Post as one of the top five books of great American comic fiction and praised by Michael Leone in the Los Angeles Review of Books as a classic picaresque novel in the tradition of Cervantes Set against the fading light of early 1980s Hollywood our deeply flawed bigoted closeted antihero Elliot Weiner is a historian Harvard BA Columbia PhD with a passion for Morris dancing and Warren Harding the shallowest President in history After Weiner receives a research grant to write a book on the tumultuous life of Harding he gets wind of a trunkful of the 29th president's bawdy billets doux that is rumored to be fiercely guarded by his ancient mistress Rebekah Kinney on her declining Hollywood Hills estate Nothing and no one can stand in the way of Weiner getting his paws on the treasure and along the way as the words dance across the page a hysterical guffaw inducing punchline around every corner Weiner reaches new lows of humiliation and self delusion My Search for Warren Harding, 1990 The Book Lover's Guide to Florida Kevin M. McCarthy, 1992 Here is the book lover's literary tour of Florida an exhaustive survey of writers books and literary sites in every part of the state The state is divided into ten areas and each one is described from a literary point of view You will learn what authors lived in or wrote about a place which books describe the place what important movies were made there even the literary trivia which the true Florida book lover will want to know You can use the book as a travel guide to a new way to see the state as an armchair guide to a better understanding of our literary heritage or as a guide to what to read next time you head to a bookstore or library Publisher Dead Last Phillip G. Payne, 2009 2009 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title If George Washington and Abraham Lincoln are the saints in America's civil religion then the twenty ninth president Warren G Harding is our sinner Prior to the Nixon administration the Harding scandals were the most infamous of the twentieth century Harding is consistently judged a failure ranking dead last among his peers By examining the public memory of Harding Phillip G Payne offers the first significant reinterpretation of his presidency in a generation Rather than repeating the old stories Payne examines the contexts and continued meaning of the Harding scandals for various constituencies Payne explores such topics as Harding's importance as a midwestern small town booster his rumored black ancestry the role of various biographers in shaping his early image the tension between public memory and academic history and finally his status as an icon of presidential failure in contemporary political debates Harding was a popular president and was widely mourned when he died in office in 1923 but with his death began the construction of his public memory and his fall from political grace In Dead Last Payne explores how Harding's name became synonymous with corruption cronyism and incompetence and how it is used to this day as an example of what a president should not be Movies, Movie Stars, and Me Alan Neff, 2007 Alan Neff wrote movie and book reviews and interviewed Hollywood stars for the Seattle Gay News from 1983-1993 he has been published in the Advocate Movies Movie Stars and Me boasts Jim Henson Rob Lowe Demi Moore Spike Lee Lily Tomlin John Waters Pauline Kael Rita Mae Brown and other exciting personalities caught unguarded and exposed Reviews of Labyrinth Top Gun No Way Out Dirty Dancing The Whales of August Pretty Woman The Grifters Switch George Cukor A Double Life Tales of the City and much more are lively reading and can be used for reference or as a guide to picking videos And included in this format are Alan Neff's politically charged letters to the editor reprinted from major periodicals So Many Books, So Little Time Sara Nelson, 2004-10-05 Will make many readers smile with recognition The New Yorker Readaholics meet your new best friend People This book is bliss The Boston Globe Sometimes subtle sometimes striking the interplay between our lives and our books is the subject of this unique memoir by well known publishing correspondent and self-described readaholic Sara Nelson The project began as an experiment with a simple plan fifty two weeks fifty two books that fell apart in the first week It was then that Sara realized the books chose her as much as she chose them and the rewards and frustrations they brought were nothing she could plan for From Solzhenitsyn to Laura Zigman Catherine M to Captain Underpants the result is a personal chronicle of insight wit and enough infectious enthusiasm to make a passionate reader out of anybody The Advocate, 1999-04-27 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Love You Madly, Holly Woodlawn Jeff Copeland, 2025-02-11 A young aspiring writer desperate for a break and the legendary Andy Warhol superstar who gave him the story of a lifetime By the mid 1980s Holly Woodlawn once lauded by George Cukor for her performance in the 1970 Warhol production and Paul Morrissey directed Trash was washed up Over Kaput She was living in a squalid Hollywood apartment with her dog and bottles of Chardonnay A chance meeting with starry eyed corn fed Missouri born Jeff Copeland who moved to Hollywood with dreams of making it as a television writer changed the course of BOTH of their lives forever Love You Madly Holly Woodlawn is a story of how an unlikely friendship with a young gay writer and an ahem mature trans actress and performer created the bestselling autobiography of 1991 A Low Life in High Heels This book about writing a book is a celebration of chutzpa and love as Holly the embodiment of Auntie Mame introduces Jeff to the glamorous and sometimes larcenous world of a Warhol Superstar In turn Jeff uses his writing and typing talent to give Holly the second chance at fame she craved In turns hilarious and heartwarming Love You Madly Holly Woodlawn is a portrait of the real Holly who loved deeply laughed loudly and left mayhem in her wake Foreword by queer

Cox,2004 The public increase of interest in the past has not necessarily brought with it a greater understanding about how archives are formed To this end Richard Cox takes a serious look at archival repositories and collections Cox suggests that archives do not just happen but are consciously shaped and sometimes distorted by archivists the creators of records and other individuals and institutions In this series of essays Cox offers archivists rare insight into the fundamentals of appraisal and historians and other users of archives the opportunity to appreciate the collections they all too often take for granted

On the Clock Claire Baglin,2025-03-04 A marvelous debut from the hugely talented young French writer Claire Baglin this tender and painful portrait of working class life finds shards of poetry inside the twin hardships of poverty and service work Claire Baglin s On the Clock packs a family saga a penetrating picture of social inequality and a coming of age story into a compact tale told in two alternating strands The first follows the 20 year old narrator s summer job at a fast food franchise and the other shows us moments from her childhood with her family with a particular focus on her hapless infuriating good hearted father a low paid but devoted electrician in a factory with an upside down smile These two skeins sketch out in swift turns two stories of underappreciated work one covering several decades the other a summer one constituting a sort of life the other a stopgap on the way to something different the narrator is a college student With a keen eye for eloquent details and sharp ear for workplace jargon her dry humor and a crisp compelling style Baglin s depiction of their lives is particularly rich at once affectionate and alienated Working the alternating strands in a way reminiscent of Georges Perec s W or the The Memory of Childhood the past is remarkably vivid in On the Clock her childhood memories of their bleak small town and of summer vacations spent at campgrounds by the sea in Brittany And the present blazes in scenes of the young woman s current fast food trial the awful boss the nasty manager and all the tedium and horror of dead end work Slowly the oven door opens and a nursery school tune announces that the salad rolls can come out and I m mired in the heart of pointlessness I stick a straw into the whipped cream but don t take off the end of the paper wrapper so they ll know it hasn t been used I m conscientious

Tracker Alexis Wright, 2025-09-02 A breathtaking monumental work of collective memoir from the master Alexis Wright How do you tell an impossible story one that is almost too big to contain in a single book In Tracker Alexis Wright tells the story of charismatic Aboriginal Australian leader Tracker Tilmouth who died in Darwin in 2015 at the age of 62 Taken from his family as a child and brought up in a mission on Croker Island Tracker worked tirelessly for Aboriginal self determination creating opportunities for land use and economic development in his many roles including Director of the Central Land Council of the Northern Territory Tracker was a visionary and a strategist renowned for his irreverent humour and his determination to tell things the way he saw them Having known him for many years Alexis Wright interviewed Tracker along with family friends colleagues and the politicians he influenced weaving their stories together in a manner reminiscent of Nobel Prize winner Svetlana Alexievich s Secondhand Time The book is as much a testament to the powerful role played by storytelling in contemporary Aboriginal life as it is to the legacy of an extraordinary man
