Extreme Writing Keen J. Babbage, 2010-03-16 In recent years educators have become increasingly concerned about the writing skills of students in elementary middle and high school They wonder what can be done to build proper writing skills particularly in a generation of students who may consider text messaging to be the only writing a person needs to do Extreme Writing describes how teachers can build upon the eagerness and skills that students apply to recreational social and friendly writing bringing enjoyment back into writing for students The Extreme Writing approach is not a precise formula for student achievement rather it is a shared discovery of the process the adventure the wonder and the liberation inherent in writing The Reflective Educator's Guide to Practitioner Inquiry Nancy Fichtman Dana, Diane Yendol-Hoppey, Logan Rutten, 2025-05-30 Transform your teaching and shape education through the power of inquiry Grounded in real world examples and more than 30 years of research in professional development the fifth edition of The Reflective Educator s Guide to Practitioner Inquiry addresses how inquiry fosters curiosity reflection and practical action to enhance effective classroom learning This latest edition invites educators to view inquiry as a process a product and a stance The book offers new sections on the relationship between AI and teacher inquiry and the ways in which inquiry is changing with the times Additional features and updates include A new chapter that provides a step by step guide to crafting an intentional actionable research plan Access exercises inductive and deductive data analysis worksheets ethical guidelines and examples addressing today s issues in education A discussion of the connections between practitioner inquiry and supporting the academic success of every student The Reflective Educator s Guide to Practitioner Inquiry fifth edition empowers educators at every stage in their careers to investigate their practice drive sustained professional growth and harness inquiry s potential to create classrooms where both students and teachers thrive Running, Thinking, Writing

Jackie Hoermann-Elliott, 2021-06-12 For the creative fulfillment of writers who identify as runners walkers or movers Running Thinking Writing Embodied Cognition in Composition unveils the varied understandings of the relationship between writing activity and physical activity Jackie Hoermann Elliott provides an interdisciplinary overview of relevant research from the fields of composition studies cognitive science neuroscience and sports psychology before proposing a new theoretical framework for explaining what happens to writers when they are moved to develop their writing while their bodies are in motion She shares illuminating accounts from runner writers working in the industries of journalism academia and youth literature She also provides pedagogical insights from working with student writers on embodied writing assignments as well as introductory activities for instructors to try in their own classrooms With a running metaphor guiding the chapters in this book readers will be challenged to view writing as embodied cognition and to realize the benefits of embodiment for all writers Second Language Creative Writers

Yan Zhao, 2015-02-03 This monograph investigates 15 L2 creative writers social constructive power in identity constructions Through interviews and think aloud story writing sessions the central study considers how L2 writer voices are mediated by the writers autobiographical identities namely their sense of selves formulated by their previous language learning and literacy experiences The inquiry takes the epistemological stance that L2 creative writing is simultaneously a cognitive construct and a social phenomenon and that these two are mutually inclusive The study contributes to L2 creative writing research and L2 learner identity research and will be of benefit to researchers language teachers and writing instructors who wish to understand creative writing processes in order to help develop their students positive self esteem confidence motivation and engagement with the L2
