Interpreting the Personal Susan Leslie Campbell, Sue Campbell, 1997 The author reinstates the personal as an important dimension in analytic philosophy of mind She argues that the category of feelings has a unique role in psychological explanation the expression of feelings is the attempt to communicate personal significance To develop a model for affective meaning the author moves attention away from the classic emotions to feelings which are more personal inchoate and idiosyncratic

A brand new child in 5 easy steps Andalene Salvesen, 2013-02-01 If you are struggling with your children and want to be a better parent A Brand New Child in 5 Easy Steps is the book for you It is inspired by the amazing child transforming results which South Africa's Super Granny Andalene Salvesen has gained from her home visits around the world and shows that your child only changes when you become an empowered parent Children are not born with boundaries and parents are often ill equipped to enforce appropriate house rules A Brand New Child in 5 Easy Steps will help parents to regain their authority so that children can once again just be children It guides parents to choose creative ideas for discipline thereby eliminating today's epidemic of shouting and guilt based parenting Andalene covers all the childhood phases from tots to teens dealing with appropriate consequences for anything from tantrums to silent defiance Andelene's five easy steps will empower every parent to achieve the desired results with their children Parents will easily relate to Andalene's descriptions of her home visits often humorous sometimes emotional and the problems she encounters in different homes Parenting can be an exciting journey and A Brand New Child in 5 Easy Steps is an excellent start to moving your family into a healthier happier and more empowered direction

The Second You're Single Cara Tanamachi, 2023-01-31 Most Anticipated Romance by BuzzFeed Cheerfully irreverent bitingly funny and filled with romantic charm Cara Tanamachi's The Second You're Single is all about navigating the most romantic month of the year and how love always seems to arrive when you least expect it Freelance writer Sora Reid believes in inertia She's the odd one out in a close knit family of go getters including her Japanese American mom who hints about her need to lose weight and her soon to be married overachieving younger sister who needs her to have a date for the wedding since a wedding party couples dance with their Scottish great uncle Bob simply won't do. For Sora, minimal input, minimal expectations is the way to go. She'd rather stay at home with her insufferable neighbor and her adorable pitbull. The one thing that disrupts her inertia, an intense dislike for Valentine's Day. What is it with the commercial love machine? Why do we pin our hopes on one romantic day when staying home with a package of bacon and a bottle of tequila would be way better? Sora's been betrayed and disappointed more than once and her heart is starting to feel like her Grandma Mitsuye's antique Japanese ceramic bowl with its many gold-filled cracks. When her pledge to stay single in February inspires readers to go solo, Sora has a responsibility to empower her readers. But relationships aren't built to last, so it shouldn't be that hard. Right? Enter Jack Mann, a muscle-bound baker who looks like he lifts logs on the weekends. Sora hasn't thought of Jack since they were in elementary school together. When they see each other at the local grocery store and the attraction hits hard, Sora knows she has to shut it down quick. She can't go solo AND get the guy. She can't let down her readers. And relationships always end, so why should Jack be any different, even though he's confounding all her long-held expectations of love. Riotous, whip-smart and original. Read this happy-making book if you love yourself. Jayci Lee, Author of Booked on a Feeling. Assessment and Intervention Issues Across the Life Span Stephanie M.C. Dollinger, Lisabeth F. DiLalla, Stephanie MC Dollinger, 2013-06-17. This volume evolved from the second life span development conference held at Southern Illinois University entitled Assessment and Intervention Across the Lifespan. Providing an overview and consideration of important directions for research in areas of assessment and intervention across the lifespan, the presentations covered a variety of topic areas including social ecology, cultural diversity, attitudes about aging, as well as attention, visual and linguistic skills. This volume consists of chapters based on the conference presentations as well as additional chapters by experts in related specialty areas discussing attachment theory, learning disabilities and phonological processing. The second conference and volume continue the work of the first conference and its associated earlier volume. The chapters cover important interactions between assessment and intervention for each major developmental period; several emphasize the importance of early assessment and intervention. A common theme found throughout is the critical connection between basic research and practice. The editors hope this book will prove useful not only to researchers but also to practitioners in related disciplines working with individuals of all ages.
