S. Eliot, 2003-02-25 A Penguin Classic While recovering from a mental collapse in a Swiss sanitarium in 1921 T S Eliot finished what became the definitive poem of the modern condition one that still casts a large and ominous shadow over twentieth century poetry Built upon the imagery of the Grail legend the Fisher King and ancient fertility cults The Waste Land is both a poetic diagnosis of an ailing civilization and a desperate guest for spiritual renewal Through pastiche and collage Eliot unfolds a nightmarish landscape of sexual disorder and spiritual desolation inhabited by the voice literary historical mythic contemporary of an unconscious that is at turns deeply personal and culturally collective This edition includes The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock Portrait of a Lady Gerontion and more For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 800 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators Annual List of New and Important Books Added to the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library, 1898 Tales at the Manse and Other Poems Marcus Fayette Bridgman, 1894 The Poems of W.B. Yeats Peter McDonald, 2023-05-31 In this multi volume edition the poetry of W B Yeats 1865 1939 is presented in full with newly established texts and detailed wide ranging commentary Yeats began to write verse in the nineteenth century and over time his own arrangements of poems repeatedly revised and rearranged both texts and canon This edition of Yeats's poetry presents all his verse both published and unpublished including a generous selection of textual variants from the many manuscript and printed sources The edition also supplies the most extensive commentary on Yeats's poetry to date explaining specific references and setting poems in their contexts it also gives an account of the vast range of both literary and historical influences at work on the verse The poems are presented in order of composition and major revisions or rewritings of poems result in separate inclusions in chronological sequence for these writings as they were subsequently reconceived by the poet In this third volume Yeats s poetry of the first decade of the twentieth century is brought into sharp focus revealing the extent of his efforts to re fashion a style that had already made him a well known poet All of the major modes in Yeats's earlier work are subject to radical re imagining in these years from poetic narrative founded in Irish myth in poems such as Baile and Aillinn and The Old Age of Queen Maeve to the symbolist drama poetry of The Shadowy Waters here edited in its two completely different versions of 1900 and 1906 In a decade when the theatre was one of Yeats's principal concerns his lyric poems which were becoming increasingly explicit in personal terms began to discover new intensities of conversational pitch and mythic resonance Poems such as The Folly of Being Comforted Adam's Curse No Second Troy and The Fascination of What's Difficult are given close attention in this new edition alongside topical and epigrammatic pieces that are often passed over in accounts of Yeats s development The evolving complexities of Yeats's personal and political lives are crucial to his artistic growth in these years and the commentary gives these generous attention showing how the poetry both feeds upon and often transcends the circumstances of its composition The volume offers strong evidence for this decade as a crucial one in Yeats s poetic life in which the poet created wholly new registers for his verse as well as new dimensions for his imaginative vision American Poetry 19th Century 2 John Hollander, 2016-04-01 First Published in 2004 From Philip Freneau to Walt Whitman Herman Melville to Trumbull Stickney this collection of two volumes selected by John Hollander gives an insight into the artform during the nineteenth century This collection is sorted by author with focus on American Indian Poetry Folk Songs and Spirituals An extensive list of works with attention to their chronology and editor notes on the texts within Twentieth Century Poetry Katharine O'Neill Maynard,1916 Re-Inventing the Postcolonial (in the) Metropolis Cecile Sandten, Annika Bauer, 2016-09-27 The notion of the postcolonial metropolis has gained prominence in the last two decades both within and beyond postcolonial studies Disciplines such as sociology and urban studies however have tended to focus on the economic inequalities class disparities and other structural and formative aspects of the postcolonial metropolises that are specific to Western conceptions of the city at large It is only recently that the depiction of postcolonial metropolises has been addressed in the writings of Suketu Mehta Chris Abani Amit Chaudhuri Salman Rushdie Aravind Adiga Helon Habila Sefi Atta and Zakes Mda among others Most of these works probe the urban specifics and physical and cultural topographies of postcolonial cities while highlighting their agential capacity to defy appropriate and abrogate the superimposition of theories of Western modernity and urbanism These ASNEL Papers are all concerned with the idea of the postcolonial in the metropolis from various disciplinary viewpoints as drawn from a great range of cityscapes spread out over five continents The essays explore on the one hand ideas of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation and on the other the possibility of transforming reinventing and reconfigurating the postcolonial condition in and through literary texts and visual narratives In this context the volume covers a broad spectrum of theoretical and thematic approaches to postcolonial and metropolitan topographies and their depictions in writings from Australia and New Zealand South Africa South Asia and greater Asia as well as the UK addressing issues such as modernity and market economies but also caste class and social and linguistic aspects At the same time they reflect on the postcolonial metropolis and postcolonialism in the metropolis by concentrating on an urban imaginary which turns on notions of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation as the continuing postcolonial condition Bulletin of Bibliography and Magazine Subject-index ,1917 Bibliography and Dramatic Index ,1915 Here Are My People David A. Reichard, 2024-06-01 Beginning in the late 1960s and throughout the 1970s a new generation of LGBT students in California began to organize publicly on college and university campuses inspired by contemporaneous social movements and informed by California s rich history of LGBT community formation and political engagement Here Are My People documents how a trailblazing group of queer student activists in California made their mark on the history of the modern LGBTQ movement and paved the way for generations of organizers who followed Rooted in extensive archival research and original oral histories Here Are My People explores how this organizing unfolded comparing different regions types of campuses and diverse student populations Through campus based organizations and within women's studies programs and despite various forms of reactionary resistance student organizers promoted LGBT themed educational programming and changes to curriculum provided peer support like counseling and hotlines and sponsored events showcasing queer creative practices including poetry theater and film Collaborating across various campuses they formed regional and statewide alliances And importantly LGBT student organizers engaged California s vibrant gay liberation and lesbian feminist political communities forging new and important relationships in the movement which enhanced both on and off campus LGBT organizing The United States Catalog ,1900 The poems of Ossian, tr. by J. Macpherson. To which are prefixed dissertations on the æra and poems of Ossian Ossian, 1807 The Poems of Elizabeth Barrett Browning Elizabeth Barrett Browning, 1850
