My Sky Blue Trades Growing Up Counter In A Countrary Time:

My Sky Blue Trades Sven Birkerts, 2003 Author of the widely acclaimed New York Times Notable Book The Gutenberg Elegies distinguished critic and essayist Birkerts explores in this brilliantly written memoir what it means to be an American with roots in a distant culture

The Michigan Alumnus, 2002 In v 1 8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual

Soldiers in Hiding Richard Wiley, 2006 It s Tokyo 1941 Teddy Maki and Jimmy Yakamoto are Japanese American friends and jazz musicians playing Tokyo s lively nightclub scene Stranded in Japan after the bombing of Pearl Harbor Teddy and Jimmy are drafted into the Japanese army and sent to fight against American troops in the Philippines Their perilous attempts to remain neutral in a conflict where their loyalties are deeply divided are shattered when Jimmy is killed by the commanding officer for refusing to shoot an American prisoner The deed then falls to Teddy Thirty years later Teddy is married to Jimmy s widow father to his son a star on Japanese TV and still wrestling with the guilt over Jimmy s death Winner of the 1987 PEN Faulkner Award for Best American Fiction Soldiers in Hiding is a haunting portrayal of war s lingering emotional burdens This revised edition features a new preface by the author and an introduction by Nobel Prize winner Wole Soyinka

Adventures with the Buddha Jeffery Paine, 2005 Paine has assembled the adventures of nine Westerners in a book that yields an understanding of Buddhism not by its metaphysics or rituals but through real characters and true stories as dramatic as those in the most imaginative novel

Seaview Toby Olson, 2006 The action of Toby Olson s PEN Faulkner Award winning novel Seaview sweeps eastward following three men and two women across a wasted American continent to an apocalyptic confrontation on Cape Cod Melinda hopes to reach the seaside where she was born before she dies of cancer Allen her husband earns their way back by golf hustling working the links en route Outside of Tucson the two meet up with a Pima Indian also headed toward the Cape to help a distant relative who has claims on a golf course there that is laid out on tribal grounds Throughout the journey Allen knows he is being stalked by a former friend Richard a drug pusher whom he has crossed and who is now determined to murder him The tortured lives of Richard and his wife Gerry stand as a dream of what might have become of Allen and Melinda had things been otherwise The lines that draw these people together converge at Seaview Links and on the mad battlefield that this golf course becomes the novel reaches its complex ending Seaview s vibrant language and fateful plot make this study of an America on the edge an unforgettable read

American Latvians Ieva Zake, 2017-09-08 This book analyzes the political experience of a small and unique American ethnic group American Latvians This community was constituted by post World War II political refugees who fled Communism and arrived in the United States seeking safety and protection For decades they insisted on preserving their ethnic identity and therefore did not call themselves Latvian Americans Instead they formed a distinctive double identity that is they blended into the American society economically and socially but refused to become assimilated culturally and politically The book offers a detailed look into the life of this community of political refugees which also provides a novel perspective on the Cold War as experienced by certain ethnic groups From a theoretical point of view the book makes two major contributions First it reasserts the need to understand the generalized category of white Americans or white ethnics with more nuance and attention to differences and second it strengthens the so called realist claim that refugees are not like other immigrants In order to achieve these goals the book provides compelling descriptions and interpretations of the most politically relevant moments in the experience of American Latvians in the period between the 1950s and the 1990s Concretely the book deals with topics as the American Latvians anti communist activism the impact of the hunt for Nazis on Latvian emigres the Soviet Union s anti emigre propaganda campaigns and the exiled Latvians involvement in the politics of national liberation in Latvia The author strives to reveal the complexity of the refugee experience in the United States during the Cold War and its aftermath Since such aspects of the life of ethnic groups in the United States have not been sufficiently studied this book makes a substantial contribution to a fuller understanding of American immigration history and sociology of ethnic groups It is well written expertly organized and will be of interest to a large readership at many levels of academia

Reenchantment Jeffrey Paine, 2004-11-02 The colorful tale of the successful flowering of an obscure ancient Eastern sect in the modern world In a single generation Tibetan Buddhism developed from the faith of a remote mountain people associated with bizarre almost medieval superstitions to perhaps the most rapidly growing and celebrity studded religion in the West Disaffected with other religious traditions yet searching for meaning huge numbers of Americans have found their way to the wisdom of Tibetan lamas in exile Earthy humorous commonsensical and eccentric these flamboyant teachers larger than life characters like Lama Yeshe and Chogyam Trungpa proved to be charismatic and gifted ambassadors for their ancient religion So did two Western women born in Brooklyn and London s East End whose homegrown religious intuitions turned out to be identical with the most sophisticated Tibetan teachings revealing them to be reincarnated lamas With great flair for both the sublime and the human Jeffrey Paine narrates in page turning richly informative fashion how Tibetan Buddhism rarefied and sensual mystical and commonsensical became the ideal religion for a post religious age By far the best of the recent popular books exploring the amazing impact of Tibetan Buddhism Paine s witty erudite flowing prose creates a memorable album of many characters saints rascals and ordinary folks He glosses over nothing is ruthlessly critical where it is deserved but is also secure enough to appreciate the beauty and the power of the magic and mystery the profound practical wisdom and compassion of Tibetan civilization gone global Robert Thurman Jey Tsong Khapa Professor of Indo Tibetan Buddhist Studies Columbia University Riveting Recounts elegantly yet without fuss stories of human transformation that consistently incite our capacity for wonder Askold Melnyczuk Boston Globe Memorable anecdotes great storytelling and keen observations mark this cogent exploration of the explosive growth of Tibetan Buddhism in the West Publishers Weekly starred review Writing Ann Arbor Laurence Goldstein, 2005 A far reaching collection of essays poetry fiction and writing on Ann Arbor by some of the great thinkers and writers of the last two centuries Magill's Literary Annual 2003 Salem Press,2003-06 Magill's Literary Annual 2003 is the fiftieth publication in a series that began in 1954 The philosophy behind the annual has been to evaluate critically 200 major examples of serious literature published during the previous year Our focus is to provide coverage for works that are likely to be of particular interest to the general reader that reflect the publishing trends of a given year that add to careers of authors being taught and researched in literature programs and that will stand the test of time By filtering the thousands of books published each year down to two hundred notable titles the editors have provided the busy librarian with an excellent reader's advisory tool and patrons with fodder for book discussion groups and a guide for selection The essay reviews in the Annual also provide a more academic reference review of a work than is typically found in newspapers and other periodical sources This year's works are drawn from such categories as anthropology autobiography biography current affairs diaries economics environment essays history language literary criticism medicine memoirs nature philosophy poetry psychology religion science short fiction sociology technology travel and women's issues The articles are arranged alphabetically by book title A complete list of included titles can be found at the beginning of volume 1 Each 2 000 word article begins with a block of top matter that indicates the title author publisher and price of the work When possible the year of the author's birth is also provided The top matter also includes the number of pages of the book the type of work and when appropriate the time period and locale represented in the text Next comes a capsule description of the work When pertinent a list of principal characters or personages with brief descriptions introduces the review These original essay reviews analyze intent and relative success of the author and the work under discussion To assist the reader further the articles are supplemented by a list of additional reviews for further study Every essay includes a brief biography of the author or authors and thumbnail photographs of the book covers and authors are included as available At the end of volume 2 are four cumulative indexes listing works covered from the years 1977 to 2003 an index of Biographical Works by Subject a Category Index a Title Index and an Author Index The index of Biographical Works by Subject is arranged by subject rather than by author or title Bridging English Joseph O'Beirne Milner,Lucy Floyd Morcock Milner,2008 Bridging English fourth edition is a comprehensive English methods text that is structured on James Moffett's conception of the universe of discourse in the teaching of English talking and listening writing and reading The textbook combines theory and practice that is overarching structures with particular instructional strategies It provides prospective teachers with a huge array of approaches and activities that are active constructivist and student centered It mirrors that emphasis with boxed Invitations to Reflection that continually survey its readers about their experiences of English classrooms their new learnings as they read the text and their projection into classroom teaching of their own It takes into account the range of student learners a teacher will teach from the gifted to the reluctant and struggling It addresses the special needs of English language learners It also anticipates the need of its readers prospective teachers to put theory and method into practice by designing and delivering effective units and lessons In several chapters on pedagogy it helps them answer questions such as How do I actually teach writing design a unit evaluate student learning This edition also addresses many of the most persistent issues that arise within the field issues that bubble up in individual classrooms English departments and school communities and in the general culture Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 The Washington Post Index ,1989 The Virginia Quarterly Review ,2005 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971
