Going Around the Bend on the QE2 Nicholas Walker, 2018-02-12 Written by a bestselling author this is the hilarious story of him having a nervous breakdown and running away around the world on the QE2 Unbelievable but absolutely true the author s sensitive mental state gives him a different slant on world travel and the millionaires he mixes with A truly different travel book which will have you laughing on every page This is the true story of how the author cured a nervous breakdown by taking a world cruise on The Queen Elizabeth II It is a peep into the luxury lifestyle of the very rich from the somewhat sardonic viewpoint of someone who is not quite sane We visit 40 countries and each one is treated to the author s observations which are nearly always humorous and written by someone who s fragile mental state causes him to throw all caution to the winds But more than that Nick isn t your conventional world traveller he gets arrested in New York and undergoes an intimate body search he fights off three armed muggers in Jamaica falls out with Australian customs officers has a motor bike accident in Bali is attacked by two old men in The Taj Mahal and is thrown out of Vietnam The book though is more about his life aboard the QE2 his love affairs his growing relationship with the staff and their intimate closeted lifestyle the disastrous staff concert that ends up in an all out fight the excesses of the super rich passengers and the bizarre situations that only happen aboard such as the night where he is trapped on the dance floor with the three women he has been dating All in all it is the story of a man making his way back to sanity until he is finally deposited back on the quay at Southampton where he started only now he is penniless and has just been informed that everything he owns in the world has been thrown overboard into the sea The hilarious follow up is now available Not Quite Sane in America where Nick runs away to America to avoid his proctologist

A Faith Worth Believing, Living, and Commending Dennis Ngien,2008-03-01 The materials presented here are reflections on a variety of topics a belief in God s suffering and the pastoral implications of this Luther s theology of preaching practical approaches to evangelistic preaching pastoral advice on death and dying apologetic preaching in a post Christian culture on the model of Paul effective living in the power of the Holy Spirit striking a balance between enthusiastic service and fervent love the image of God s love in the Old Testament and personal exhortations Although this book was written on the balcony of my own study where reflection and meditation are carried out it is cognizant of ministry contexts where people's needs and struggles are most evident With anecdotes and analyses the readers will be enabled to discern the signs of divine transcendence in their lives and to apprehend or rather to be apprehended by the beauty of God's grace the abiding basis of our being and well being What has been written in this book reveals the heartbeat of a mentor who earnestly hungers for divine beauty and holiness a mentor whose hunger God eagerly fulfills just as he promises and a mentor who wishes this same fulfillment to happen for readers The basic assumption in this book is this a faith that is worth believing is a faith that is worth living and thus worth commending The book is also an exercise of faith seeking understanding understanding only God could supply It is written with the hope that it will lead readers from knowing God to loving him to enjoying him and finally to proclaiming him so that others will be brought into the orbit of God's inestimable grace Not until our hearts which God's heart touches touch the heart of others is our ministry complete and our life found pleasing to God The Canadian Teacher ...
