

My Stompin' Grounds

Stompin' Tom Connors

HEY EVERYBODY: This is Stompin' Tom Connors. And here's Another Roundup of Canadian songs I hope you'll find both informative and enjoyable. From the time I was a young lad on the farm in St. John's Pond, Prince Edward Island until now, I have always been interested in the folk lore and the legends of our land and in the people who share in our great heritage.

It has often bothered me though, why so very little is ever said about the men and women of our country, who have often stood alone in courage and determination, in trying to contribute in their own way towards making this nation what it's come to be today.

Now mine is only one small voice, but I'll be using it as often as I can in the only way I know how to bring the deeds of these Canadians and the happenings of this land to the attention of all.

On this Album as on previous Albums, you will find songs that make my point clear. And I find great pleasure in sitting down and writing this type of material and presenting it to you for your sign of approval.

Some songs you'll find very straightforward and serious, while others will be light-hearted and may even bring the odd chuckle. But the main objective will be to inform the public of any one area about what is happening to other people in other areas.

Men like Wilf Carter who has thousands of loyal fans who buy his phonograph records every year needs very little introduction, while it seems a bit of a shame why the great airplane pilot, Wop May, who won so many medals and decorations during the First and second World Wars, must remain in obscurity.

But then again this might not seem so strange, when on occasion you ask somebody who seems very knowledgeable about Foreign Affairs and World Events, to name the Provincial Capitals, and he's stumped for an answer.

In writing up this letter, I would like to dedicate this album to the Steel Men who lost their lives in Vancouver in June 1958, when the "Bridge" they were building "Came Tumbling Down". Also to the Tobacco Farmers and Packers I worked with in South-western Ontario, and to the people who are lucky enough to witness the phenomenal return of the Sockeye and Coho Salmon up the beautiful rivers of British Columbia.

Last but not least, I would dedicate "The Song of The Irish Moss" to my fellow Prince Edward Islanders and to my step-father, Russell Aylward, of Skimmer Pond.

Sincerely,

Mello Yello Walker Smith, 2015-05-05

Mello Yello is the intimate life story of music industry legend Jack Gibson, aka Jack the Rapper. Launching the careers of countless superstars, Gibson forged enduring friendships with some of the most illustrious African American personalities of the twentieth century. His long-reaching influence began in 1949 when he and J. B. Blayton established the first black-owned radio station in the United States. As an emcee and promoter, he built enduring friendships with the early black royalty of the entertainment world, among them Sammy Davis Jr., Billie Holiday, Erroll Garner, Sarah Vaughan, Nat King Cole, Pearl Bailey, Dinah Washington, Nancy Wilson, and Ray Charles. When he was hired by Berry Gordy to head up promotion at a fledgling record company called Motown, Gibson befriended a new crop of stars, including Stevie Wonder, The Supremes, and Smokey Robinson. Moving on to the Revelot label and then to Stax, Gibson's uncanny timing once again positioned him to further the careers of Otis Redding, Jackie Wilson, Isaac Hayes, The Staple Singers, Rufus Thomas, Carla Thomas, and many others. In addition to his involvement in the music scene, Gibson gave voice to the history as he lived it, covering the Civil Rights Movement, interviewing Malcolm X, and conducting a man-on-the-street report from Detroit as it burned following Dr. King's assassination. With the publication of his influential Black trade magazine called The Mello Yello, The Rapper established a forum for discussions and contributed to sweeping changes for African Americans in radio and the recording industry. But his most long-reaching achievement was his glittering Family Affair, an annual black music convention that provided a springboard for new talent. Each year without fail, the heavy hitters of the music industry cleared their schedules to lend their talents to the Family Affair. Prince, Tina Turner, Nancy Wilson, Janet Jackson, James Brown, Whitney Houston, Eddie Murphy, Hammer, Toni Braxton, Sinbad, L.L. Cool J, and the list goes on like a Who's Who of entertainment superstars. After being honored by the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, other accolades began to roll in from the United States Congress, the Smithsonian Institution, and countless other organizations. But The Rapper wasn't finished yet. With decades of stories and music still alive in his soul, he returned to his roots, radio. Nearly fifty years after his beginnings at WERD, Jack The Rapper's voice once again crackled across the airwaves in Las Vegas, Nevada, proclaiming three simple words: I'm still here.
