My History is America's History National Endowment for the Humanities, 1999 15 things you can do to save America s stories Swatty Ellis Parker Butler, 2020-08-02 Reproduction of the original Swatty by Ellis Parker Butler From the Heart Jeffrey L. Kosky, 2025-02-25 What does it mean to have a heart How does it feel when a heart fails and what does it take to recover In a world beset by never ending crises personal and collective local and global is heartlessness the only option From the Heart weaves together a personal narrative of a life threatening ailment with considerations of philosophy art and science to contemplate ultimate questions matters of life and death Jeffrey L Kosky recounts his brush with death the surgical repair of a congenital defect in his aortic valve his gradual recovery of everyday life and his struggle to find the heart to go on throughout it all To make sense of the experience he immerses himself in humanistic inquiry and medical science the histories of medicine cardiac surgery and knowledge of the human heart as well as the works of artists writers philosophers and theologians Writing about the experience of being human from the precarious position of his own woundedness Kosky shares hard earned perspectives on what matters most Combining moving memoir encounters with major authors and artists and heartfelt reflections on the big questions of existence this elegantly written book is at once erudite and powerful It shows us why the heart in physical emotional and metaphorical senses helps us come to terms with sickness and health dying and living Relational Transactional Analysis Heather Fowle, Charlotte Sills, 2018-06-14 Through different voices and styles of contributions including papers edited talks and panel discussion this collection explores and applies the principles of relational transactional analysis It sets them in social cultural and political contexts and considers a number of important implications of this particular relational turn in psychotherapy The book advances relational transactional analyses and in doing so reflects the creativity and vibrancy of contemporary TA The editors have skilfully brought together different generations of TA practitioners in an accessible and stimulating volume I commend the editors and highly recommend the book Dr Keith Tudor author of a number of books and co author of the article Co creative transactional analysis in the Transactional Analysis Journal He is Associate Professor Auckland University of Technology Auckland Aotearoa New Zealand Relational Psychoanalysis, Volume 3 Melanie Suchet, Adrienne Harris, Lewis Aron, 2013-04-15 Relational psychoanalysis has revived psychoanalytic discourse by attesting to the analyst s multidimensional subjectivity and then showing how this subjectivity opens to deeper insights about the experience of analysis Volume 3 of the Relational Psychoanalysis Book Series enlarges this ongoing project in significant ways Here leading relational theorists explore the cultural racial class conscious gendered and even traumatized anlagen of the self as pathways to clinical understanding Relational Psychoanalysis New Voices is especially a forum for new relational voices and new idioms of relational discourse Established writers Muriel Dimen Sue Grand and Ruth Stein among them utilize aspects of their own subjectivity to illuminate heretofore neglected dimensions of cultural experience of trauma and of clinical stalemate A host of new voices applies relational thinking to aspects of race class and politics as they emerge in the clinical situation The contributors to Relational Psychoanalysis New Voices are boldly unconventional in their topics in their modes of discourse and in their innovative and often courageous uses of self Collectively they convey the ever widening scope of the relational sensibility The relational turn keeps turning

Thinking with Kierkegaard Arne Grøn, 2022-12-31 Arne Grøn's reading of Søren Kierkegaard's authorship revolves around existential challenges of human identity The 35 essays that constitute this book are written over three decades and are characterized by combining careful attention to the augmentative detail of Kierkegaard's text with a constant focus on issues in contemporary philosophy Contrary to many approaches to Kierkegaard's authorship Grøn does not read Kierkegaard in opposition to Hegel The work of the Danish thinker is read as a critical development of Hegelian phenomenology with particular attention to existential aspects of human experience Anxiety and despair are the primary existential phenomena that Kierkegaard examines throughout his authorship and Grøn uses these negative phenomena to argue for the basically ethical aim of Kierkegaard's work In Grøn's reading Kierkegaard conceives human selfhood not merely as relational but also a process of becoming the self that one is through the otherness of self experience that is the body the world other people and God This book should be of interest to philosophers theologians literary studies scholars and anyone with an interest not only in Kierkegaard but also in human identity

Time and Identity Joseph Keim Campbell, Michael O'Rourke, Harry S. Silverstein, 2010-05-28

Original essays on the metaphysics of time identity and the self written by distinguished scholars and important rising philosophers The concepts of time and identity seem at once unproblematic and frustratingly difficult Time is an intricate part of our experience it would seem that the passage of time is a prerequisite for having any experience at all and yet recalcitrant questions about time remain Is time real Does time flow Do past and future moments exist Philosophers face similarly stubborn questions about identity particularly about the persistence of identical entities through change Indeed questions about the metaphysics of persistence take on many of the complexities inherent in philosophical considerations of time This volume of original essays brings together these two essentially related concepts in a way not reflected in the available literature making it required reading for philosophers working in metaphysics and students interested in these topics The contributors distinguished authors and rising scholars first consider the nature of time and then turn to the relation of identity focusing on the metaphysical connections between the two with a special emphasis on personal identity The volume concludes with essays on the metaphysics of death issues in which time and identity play a significant role This groundbreaking collection offers both cutting edge epistemological analysis and historical perspectives on contemporary topics Contributors Harriet Baber Lynne Rudder Baker Ben Bradley John W Carroll Reinaldo Elugardo
