Make Me: a memoir Lisa Stathoplos, 2021-03-01 Make Me Lisa Stathoplos searingly honest and dark humored memoir explores how one comes to be Comes to live in their own skin exist in their very bones In 1958 Lisa landed on this earth with a whack and a wail and a highly uncomfortable feeling that she shouldn't be here Regardless here she is Born into a fusion of the French and the Greeks Lisa's wickedly smart and loving family nurtures her from fussy baby moody child into a passionate rebellious young woman Set in the beauty of Southern Maine with a few forays to the Caribbean the Atlantic shipping lanes and Greece Make Me is both as tempestuous and tranquil as the sea when Lisa takes us on her voyage toward acceptance and authenticity Her stories of growing up Catholic coming of age beside the turbulent Atlantic Ocean discovering dance her activism and becoming a successful professional actor as well as a fishwife are fraught rewarding and often hysterically funny Make Me follows Lisa's memories in and out of chronological time landing on the significant ones that shaped her most of all The language is crisply straightforward hauntingly witty and emotionally fathomless Make Me is an oceanic ride into Lisa's very soul and should be read by anyone who is becoming who they truly are or has already arrived

Home Wrecker Ben Oludaisi, 2023-12-05 Drawing your spouse's friend closer to your family after marriage may be inimically detrimental This is an explicitly written true life story of a young lady's encounter with a man who doubled as her male friend and secret admirer lover He had no gut to tell her because he got no reciprocal gesture but worked underground and remained remotely entangled with gross obsession Unless you've gone through this book or you have a similar life experience or it has happened to someone around you this story may appear like drawing a long bow There are lots of lessons and you will also find out that your kindness to your haters or unknown toxic rivals with envy or jealousy may not stop him them from killing you be it diabolically or any method available to him them The toxic male friend spent years castigating and inciting hatred and violence against the same couple who were his benefactors He knew that what he was doing could lead to subversion of the lady's home life and everything yet he had enthusiastically and rigorously done that and consistently or obstinately so for a decade Some called him a chameleon others tagged the ugly incident a toxic male intruder escapade Either way it wasn't a pleasant one It's difficult to deal with an eloquent liar but many times his memory had failed him Reading through the facts here will probably help him rejuvenate his neurons and subsequently refresh the memory with the candid truth There are many honest opposite sex friends but think twice if a male friend to your wife is trying to be funny

The Long Journey Home Margaret Robison, 2011-05-17 First introduced to the world in her sons now classic memoirs Augusten Burroughs's Running with Scissors and John Elder Robison's Look Me in the Eye Margaret Robison now tells her own haunting and lyrical story A poet and teacher by profession Robison describes her Southern Gothic childhood her marriage to a handsome brilliant man who became a split personality alcoholic and abusive husband the challenges she faced raising two children while having psychotic breakdowns of her own and her struggle to regain her sanity Robison grew up in southern Georgia where the facade of 1950s propriety masked all sorts of demons including alcoholism misogyny repressed homosexuality and suicide She met her husband John Robison in college and together they moved up north where John embarked upon a successful academic career and Margaret brought up the children and worked on her art and poetry Yet her husband's alcoholism and her collapse into psychosis and the eventual disintegration of their marriage took a tremendous toll on their family Her older son John Elder moved out of the house when he was a teenager and her younger son Chris who later renamed himself

Augusten never completed high school When Margaret met Dr Rodolph Turcotte the therapist who was treating her husband she felt understood for the first time and quickly fell under his idiosyncratic and eventually harmful influence Robison writes movingly and honestly about her mental illness her shortcomings as a parent her difficult marriage her traumatic relationship with Dr Turcotte and her two now famous children Augusten Burroughs and John Elder Robison who have each written bestselling memoirs about their family She also writes inspiringly about her hard earned journey to sanity and clarity An astonishing and enduring story The Long Journey Home is a remarkable and ultimately uplifting account of a complicated afflicted twentieth century family Audiobooks as Artifacts David Seinberg,2024-06-19 Their ever evolving popularity notwithstanding audiobooks remain a rather undertheorized phenomenon The prevailing handful of existing studies seem to have adopted an inherently historicist approach which fails to identify and scrutinize their aesthetic importance Thus rather than regarding them as mere recorded versions of existing literary works this book explores them as the unique products of a hitherto undefined artistic genre As performance based aural artefacts the very act of listening to them is rendered an aesthetic experience in its own right By effectively embracing an interdisciplinary approach and introducing a set of aesthetic questions and philosophical conundrums ignited by a paradigmatic application of the New Institutional Theory of Art this study establishes a new aesthetic category which in turn not only classifies audiobooks as artworks to all intents and purposes but also generates the criteria and parameters for evaluating their merit Since the proof of the proverbial pudding is purportedly in the eating in surveying a series of concrete case studies each highlighting different degrees of complexities this study mainly examines first person narratives as the most natural medium for the aesthetics of the audiobook As such the investigation herein provides one with comparative close listenings appropriately analyzing and debating their aesthetic properties Finally in exploring what this study identifies as one s informed intuition and its role in the craft of casting audiobooks this study also proposes a new understating of how aesthetic appreciation works in action MEMOIR-RIES
