My Kids Are My Best Teachers:

My Kids are My Best Teachers Bill Butterworth,1986      Already Whole Helena Hjalmarsson,2022-02-08 Many of us have made our lives so noisy overwhelming sensory craving and data driven that we have somehow missed the most fundamental part about ourselves and our lives Learning how to work with every process every situation every relationship intuitively learning to love what is to let go to have faith and find stillness to foster one's intuition and become creative in our own lives is something we can all achieve To illustrate these concepts Hjalmarsson calls on her decades of experience and work as a psychotherapist But most significantly her life as an autism parent accounted for in her previous books Finding Lina 2013 and Beyond Autism 2019 which has taught her where to find that elusive freedom and harmony inside herself Hjalmarsson believes that the solution to life's chaos this freedom and harmony this love is accessible to all She writes We don't earn freedom We either realize who we are and how we can live free connected joyful and expansive lives or we don't We can realize it some of the time and live a little bit connected and a little bit trapped Or we can learn to realize it most of the time and spend most of our lives fully awake      Misbehavin' a to Z Carol M. Hoffman EdD,2017-09-29 All of us are social creatures we need and want others in our lives However too often we feel we don't fit or belong anywhere When people don't feel they belong or fit in they misbehave We have learned how not to behave and we are very good at it We need common sense approaches to improving relationships among all age groups and cultures Common sense approaches ideas and tried and true methods abound in the book There are stories to tell about real people Some will make us laugh and some will make us want to think more deeply about the way we are living our lives and developing long term relationships Learning more about ourselves is essential to becoming a happier better behaved person Learning about others through stories the Four Goals of Misbehavior and family dynamics can lighten the load      A Teacher's Inside Advice to Parents Robert Ward,2016-10-20 Maximize your child's potential in ways that extend beyond academics alone Gain a clearer more cohesive relationship with their teachers A Teacher's Inside Advice to Parents How Children Thrive with Leadership Love Laughter and Learning explains how to support and inspire all kids towards success and satisfaction When parents and teachers share common goals and methods to meet a child's essential needs this wraparound effect flows seamlessly from home to school and back again This affirming practical parenting approach provides expert insight for connecting with the classroom and influencing your child in four fundamental aspects Leadership supplies the appropriate guidelines and routines your child requires in order to feel a soothing sense of security structure and stability Love offers the attention encouragement and acceptance that create a strong bond of trust and open communication between you and your child Laughter adds the joy excitement and adventure that embolden and assist in your child's personal exploration of creativity purpose and direction Learning develops and reinforces your child's knowledge wisdom and skills vital for a contributing self-sufficient life The Four Ls of Parenting directly lead to the cooperation confidence contentment and capabilities parents and teachers both strive to foster in every child all accomplished with increased efficacy and delight while nurturing and educating the kids they care about so deeply

Where Two Worlds Meet Jerry Witovsky,2022-06-22 When grandchildren are young a sweet treat or new toy is enough to inspire their unconditional adoration And then your grandchildren grow up Suddenly they are teenagers and it s not so easy With our differences in musical tastes technology formative events one could say we are from different worlds Where Two Worlds Meet starts with the teenage years recognizing that your grandchildren are becoming independent beings It s an action focused guide to stay connected and even deepen your relationship with your grandchildren as you both age Parents will love this book too as it helps grandparents respect boundaries as the grandparent not the parent and teaches how to develop healthy interdependence All these ideas work whether you are in the same city or connecting from afar Each chapter includes hands on tactics to put learning into action It s peppered with letters from grandchildren of diverse ages and backgrounds sharing personal stories about a grandparent s impact on their lives Grandparents can have a transformative effect on their family when they unleash their creativity share their skills and give voice to the things they are passionate about Creativity is about bringing your whole self including your vulnerability to the relationship with your grandchildren as you enter each other s world

What African American Parents Want Educators to Know Gail L. Thompson,2003-05-30 Thompson designed an empirical study to gather feedback from African American parents on numerous issues pertaining to their children s schooling experiences The results discussed in this book can be utilized to improve the schooling experiences of African American children nationwide The African American parents guardians who participated in this study were biological parents in two parent homes single parents grandparents foster parents and stepparents who were rearing school age children Some had been deterred from completing their own formal education as a result of peer pressure temptation outside of school or stressful circumstances Others had positive schooling experiences and stable childhoods Regardless of the differences in their background experiences the majority of these parents or guardians were single minded about wanting a better life for their children believing that a good K 12 education and college education were crucial to their children s advancement And while most believed resolutely in the hope offered by the public school system they recognized that schools couldn t do it all African American parents and guardians are willing to work with teachers and administrators to ensure that their children receive a quality education Yet if the historic achievement gap is ever to be eradicated teachers administrators researchers and policymakers must be more willing to view African American parents guardians as assets African American parents guardians must be invited to verbalize their concerns and those concerns must be taken seriously to effect meaningful and lasting change in the public school system
