Cerfolio,2023-12-22 Nina E Cerfolio masterfully explores the deeper spiritual and psychoanalytic understanding of the origins of human aggressive and destructive instincts which underlie mass shootings and terrorism The author survived two terrorist attacks developing breast cancer from being a first responder at 9 11 and being poisoned by an FSB agent while providing humanitarian aid in the Second Chechen War Through a personal scholarly investigation into her psyche the author describes the spiritual awakening that was catalyzed by these events and their traumatic impact and examines how a world could create the firmament for the kinds of destructive aggression that are a daily occurrence Featuring cutting edge quantitative research and case material which illustrates the prevalence of undiagnosed and untreated psychiatric illness among mass shooters and terrorists this book encourages dialogue about the stigma of mental illness and challenges the perception of terrorists as monsters with no societal responsibility Championing the forgotten collective humiliation of the marginalized which in turn breeds terrorism and documenting a new spiritual lens through which healing is possible this book will be essential reading for mental health workers and anyone wishing to understand the traumatizing epoch in which we are living Death of a Whale: The Challenge of Anti-Whaling Activists and Indigenous Rights Captain Paul Watson,2021-06-24 CAPTAIN PAUL WATSON IS NO STRANGER TO CONTROVERSY But this particular conflict was more personal than most His latest book is a fascinating and thought provoking account of what happened when anti whaling activists found themselves at odds with tribal rights Conservationists eco warriors whale protectors and supporters of Indigenous traditions as well as anyone who simply loves a good story will find themselves captivated by this tale DEATH OF A WHALE The Challenge of Anti Whaling Activists and Indigenous Rights narrates the events as they unfolded In 1998 Sea

Shepherd began a campaign to protect gray whales from slaughter by members of the Makah tribe of the Pacific Northwest who had recently invoked cultural entitlements to allow them to practice their ancestral hunting rights. Makah members, conservationists, and non-Indigenous Americans vehemently expressed disparate points of view about whether tribal whaling operations, which had ended almost a century earlier, should be recognized even when they were not in accord with international Indigenous whaling regulations. This electrifying real-life adventure story showcases an Indigenous community at odds with itself, governments, and media that advance their own agendas, and grassroots organizers who display heroic activism. Highly detailed and documented, the book reveals Captain Watson's deep and unwavering respect for Indigenous traditions and rights even when they conflict with his own devotion to the sovereignty of whales. The Western Literary Messenger, 1855 Nimrod of the Sea William Morris Davis, 1874 Sport Diver, 2001-04 Tales of the North American Indians Stith Thompson, 1929 For other editions see Author Catalog Tales of the North American Indians Stith Thompson, 2012-09-11 DIV Nearly 100 myths and legends of heroes, journeys to the other world, animal wives and husbands, and even biblical subjects include The Woman Who Fell from the Sky, Seneca, The Star Husband, Ojibwa Crossing the Red Sea, Cheyenne, and scores more. div The Complete Works of Captain F. Moby Dick; or, The whale Robert Maynard Hutchins, 1952 A massive set of classic books includes the most influential works of literature, philosophy, and science in the history of the West. Moby-Dick, Or The Whale Herman Melville, G. Thomas Tanselle, 1988-09 In Moby Dick Melville set out to write a mighty book on a mighty theme. The editors of this critical text affirm that he succeeded. Nevertheless, their prolonged examination of the novel reveals textual flaws and anomalies that help to explain Melville's fears that his great work was in some ways a hash or a botch. A lengthy historical note also gives a fresh account of Melville's earlier literary career and his working conditions as he wrote it; it also analyzes the book's contemporary reception and outlines how it finally achieved fame. Other sections review theories of the book's genesis, detail the circumstances of its publication, and present documents closely relating to the story. This scholarly edition is based on collations of both editions published during Melville's lifetime; it adopts 185 revisions and corrections from the English edition and incorporates 237 emendations by the series editors. This is an Approved Text of the Center for Editions of American Authors, Modern Language Association of America. The Illustrated naval and military magazine, 1885 Illustrated Naval and Military Magazine, 1885 Journal of American Folklore, 1901 My Life's Romance, Or, Recollections of Seventy Years' Experiences in Various Parts of the World Mrs. John Farrar, 1888
