

The background of the book cover is a painting of a rustic dining room. In the center is a round table covered with a light green tablecloth, set with a white plate and glass. A large, dark vase filled with orange and yellow flowers sits on the table. The room has dark wood walls and floors. To the left, a window looks out onto a garden. To the right, a green-painted wooden cabinet or sideboard is visible. The overall atmosphere is warm and homely.

My Life For Yours A Walk Through The Christian Home:

My Life for Yours Douglas Wilson, 2004-01-01 How does life in each room of your home manifest the Gospel The Christian gospel isn't just a spiritual reality The Word became flesh and bone and the gospel becomes our porch dining room bedroom and kitchen The driving desire of the gospel is my life for yours Our desire should be to have this love transform everything we do room by room This book works its way through every part of the house examining each part in light of Scripture The claims of God are always total and this is evident on the doorposts and in a sink full of dishes Self centeredness destroys in monotonously similar ways Giving up life for another produces a harvest of kindness and mercy Household questions should always begin with is this my life for yours Heaven Misplaced Douglas Wilson, 2008 Though most Christians refrain from predicting exactly when our world will end many believe that when earth's finale does arrive it will be a catastrophe They expect that before Christ comes back to reclaim His own Satan will escape his chains and return to wreak havoc on our planet Details vary but the general assumption is the same things will get much much worse before they get better But is this really what the Bible teaches Leaving aside the theological terms that often confuse and muddle this question Douglas Wilson instead explains eschatology as the end of the greatest story in the world the story of humanity He turns our attention back to the stories and prophecies of Scripture and argues for hopeful optimism the belief that God will be true to His promises that His will shall be done on earth as it is in heaven and that the peace and good will we sing about at Christmas will one day be a reality here on earth Standing on the Promises Douglas Wilson, 1997-05-20 Shows parents how to establish a faithful Christian culture in their homes and offers parents a guide to raising children using biblical principles Fidelity Douglas Wilson, 1999-10-23 We live in a time when marital fidelity is under assault Driven by the forces of relativism our society attacks sexual faithfulness on numerous fronts The push for homosexual marriages for example comes at the end of the fall into perversion not the beginning Faithless husbands began the fall long ago and our culture with all its washed out self help books fails to address the real problem sin Addressed to men Fidelity hits hard using clear language and focusing on specific sins with specific solutions adultery divorce polygamy celibacy pornography and more But in the end the antidote to all sexual temptation is simple the godly honoring of the marriage bed Marriage is honourable in all and the bed undefiled but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge Heb 13 4 To a Thousand Generations Douglas Wilson, 1996-06 In arguing for biblical infant baptism it is not sufficient for us to say that infant baptism is merely consistent with the Scriptures or that a biblical case can be made for it In order for us to be satisfied that we are being biblical Christians we must be content with nothing less than a clear biblical case requiring infant baptism In a doctrinal matter of this importance the standards of evidence are high Daily Walk to Joy in the Midst Anne M. were numerous though only two daughters lived to any great age But she was justly punished for when Robert Hare died it was discovered that the great house which Wyatt had built for Mrs Hare and which is now known as Hurstmonceaux Place was erected upon entailed land so that the house stripped of furniture and the property shorn of its most valuable farms passed to Francis Hare Naylor son of Miss Selman Mrs Henckel Hare lived on to a great age and when the burden of her years came on her she repented of her avarice and injustice and coming back to Hurstmonceaux in childish senility would wander round and round the castle ruins in the early morning and late evening wringing her hands and saying Who could have done such a wicked thing oh who could have done such a wicked thing as to pull down this beautiful old place Then her daughters Caroline and Marianne walking beside her would say Oh dear mamma it was you who did it it was you yourself who did it you know and she would despairingly resume Oh no that is impossible it could not have been me I could not have done such a wicked thing it could not have been me that did it My cousin Marcus Hare had at Abbots Kerswell a picture of Mrs Henckel Hare which was always surrounded with crape bows At Home in Your Heart Carol Burton
