My Life The Times:

In My Lifetime Craig A. Garner, 2009-10 The life, times and correspondence of ... dr. Doyle William John Fitzpatrick, 1861 The Rotarian, 1922-08 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine A Complete Collection of State Trials and Proceedings for High Treason and Other Crimes and Misdemeanors from the Earliest Period to the Year 1783, with Notes and Other Illustrations Thomas Bayly Howell, 1816 Feminist Foremothers in Women's Studies, Psychology, and Mental Health Phyllis Chesler, Esther D. Rothblum, Ellen Cole, 1995

Feminist Foremothers in Women's Studies Psychology and Mental Health is by and about the more recent wave of feminist foremothers those who were awakened in the 1960s and 70s to the realization that something was terribly wrong These are the women who created the fields of feminist therapy feminist psychology and women's mental health as they exist today The 48 women share their life stories in the hope that they will inspire and encourage readers to take their own risks and their own journeys to the outer edges of human possibility Authors write about what led up to their achievements what their accomplishments were and how their lives were consequently changed They describe their personal stages of development in becoming feminists from unawareness to activism to action Some women focus on the painful barriers to success fame and social change others focus on the surprise they experience at how well they and the women's movement have done Some well known feminist foremothers featured include Phyllis Chesler Gloria Steinem Kate Millett Starhawk Judy Chicago Zsuzsanna Emese Budapest Andrea Dworkin Jean Baker Miller Carol Gilligan In Feminist Foremothers in Women's Studies Psychology and Mental Health many of the women see in hindsight how prior projects and ideas and even dreams were the forerunners to their most important work They note the importance of sisterhood and the presence of other women and the loneliness and isolation experienced when they don't exist They note the validation they have received from grassroots feminists in contrast to disbelief from professionals Although these women have been and continue to be looked up to as foremothers they realize how little recognition they've been given from society at large and how much better off their male counterparts are Some foremothers write about the feeling of being different not meshing with the culture of the time and about challenging the system as an outsider not an insider These are women who had few mentors who had to forge their own way hit the ground running Their stories will challenge readers to press on to continue the work these foremothers so courageously started Throughout the pages of Feminist Foremothers in Women's Studies Psychology and Mental Health runs a sense of excitement and vibrancy of lives lived well of being there during the early years of the women's movement of making sacrifices of taking risks and living to see enormous changes result Throughout these pages too sounds a call not to take these changes for granted but to recognize that feminists rather than arguing over picayune issues or splitting

50 Stars of Inspiration, Bits & Pieces...Of a Biologist's Journey into Spirit Janet Southall

Connell, 2012-04-28 Bits Pieces has been a tool for understanding myself, a more peaceful me. Writing this book has allowed me to open doors to discover more of who I am. I have had experiences, shifted ideas, sorted facts, discovered some of my beliefs, and brought together some of my ideas about biology and spirituality. My hope is that others might find more self-understanding, more self-realization from sharing my story. We just might discover we are more alike than different. I was feeling so crazy, detached, and miserable with anxiety galore. About three years ago I was searching for a feel better place. Among all the modalities I tried I walked into a Center for Spiritual Living thinking this might be an answer. At the time it was an unconscious choice, walking this spiritual path, but now it's a conscious choice. I knew I didn't like feeling this crazy, and that was a motivator for me, an inertia buster as I call it. I have had shifts of consciousness, observed different viewpoints, and I have totally changed my ideas of how things work. A transformation, my evolution in consciousness. Because of my personal and our collective consciousness a spiritual path may not be what we think because things aren't always as they seem. It's all in our views and our beliefs. The destination unknown to me at the time was to walk a spiritual path. My life journey consisted of experiences that allowed me to reach my current understanding about life. I have realized that we are following our destiny all the time, creating life on the go. The best way is to become aware, we become empowered, making it a better journey, a better life for me and for you. And the journey continues.
