My Morocco:

Morocco and earthquakes seen through my glases Poul Otto Jorgensen, 2024-10-01 I spend a lot of time in Morocco where I am married to the Berber woman Jamila We live in a mountain area in the village of Hay Assersif which is near a larger town called Aourir located approximately 20 km from Agadir When I am in Morocco I often talk to the people about Morocco and the different areas each with their own distinctive character When I drink my tea with nana mint I get to know many things ranging from geography population composition occupations government systems and family relationships and much more Regarding family relationships you have to be careful because in the Berber area where I am I have learned that many people are related to each other Well I know your wife well because my mother is her cousin I was told once and it was not the last time Sometimes when we go to Aourir and my wife greets someone I might already know I say Where do you know her from Well that s my aunt says Jamila The family is like brothers and sisters they can say bad things about each other but if I interfere I get the hat pool Although all those I have talked to and talk to about Morocco probably do not think how much and great information they have given me I would like to thank them very much because without their help it would not have been possible to write this book I would especially like to thank my little Berber wife Jamila Subsequent thanks must go to my friends mentioned in no particular order Soufiane Hassan my brother in law Mohamed Ahmed and Aaziz I have purposely not mentioned their last names as I know they won t care Furthermore my late brother Henning Jorgensen s reports have been an invaluable help He often told about the Morocco he traveled sparsely when he worked in Morocco where he also had many acquaintances from high to low

Last Chapter Leila Abouzeid, 2003-02-01 This thought provoking semi autobiographical book tells the story of Aisha a young Moroccan woman and her struggle to find an identity in the Morocco of the second half of the twentieth century Charting Aisha s path through adolescence and young adulthood up to the present her story is told through a series of flashbacks anecdotes and glimpses of the past all bound up with a strong often strident always compelling worldview that takes in Morocco its politics people and traditions Islam and marriage Male female relationships feature strongly in the narrative and by exposing us to Aisha s troubled romantic encounters Abouzeid uncovers the shifting male female roles within the Morocco of her lifetime Many aspects of Moroccan society are also explored through the other clashes of the modern and the traditional in Aisha s life The workplace and corruption the struggle for women s rights the clash between Islamic and Western values as well as with the older practices of sorcery and witchcraft and the conflict between colonial and native language use are all intertwined in a narrative that is both forceful and often poetic Through a series of tales of emotional disasters the reader becomes aware not only of Aisha s frustrations but also of her deep commitment to her country and her struggle to defeat suffering uphold justice and retain a fierce independence as a woman and a clarity of conviction in her life Leila Abouzeid is a pioneer among her Moroccan contemporaries in that she writes in Arabic rather than in French and is the first Moroccan woman writer of literature to be translated into English This stimulating and revealing book adds a new perspective to Maghrebi women s writing and is an important addition to the growing body of Arab women s writing in translation      Game of My Life Georgia Bulldogs

Patrick Garbin,A. P. Garbin,2013-07-01 In Game of My Life Georgia Bulldogs several prominent Georgia players of the past share their fondest single game experience and memories in their own words Some of these games involve championships and others seem ordinary save for significant personal meaning In each case it is the player who singles out the game that moment in time that to him is the most defining of his Bulldog career From Pro Football Hall of Famer Charley Trippi to Tra Battle who in 2006 helped the Bulldogs shock Auburn and many more great Bulldogs in between the players have created a plethora of memorable experiences on the football field In this book they can tell you about those games when everything seemed to come together to create an experience that they will never forget      My Study Windows James Russell

Lowell,1883      Medicines of the Soul Fedwa Malti-Douglas,2023-07-28 In Medicines of the Soul the autobiographical writings of three leading women in today s Islamic revival movement reveal dramatic stories of religious transformation As interpreted by Fedwa Malti Douglas the autobiographies provide a powerful groundbreaking portrayal of gender religion and discourses of the body in Arabo Islamic culture At the center of each story is a lively female Islamic spirituality that questions secular hierarchies while reaffirming patriarchal ones In Medicines of the Soul the autobiographical writings of three leading women in today s Islamic revival movement reveal dramatic stories of religious transformation As interpreted by Fedwa Malti Douglas the autobiographies provide a powerful g      Among My Books James Russell Lowell,1882      Home and Migrant Identity in Dialogical Life Stories of Moroccan and Turkish Dutch Femke Stock,2017-09-04 In Home and Migrant Identity in Dialogical Life Stories of Moroccan and Turkish Dutch Femke J Stock explores the multivoiced life stories of Dutch adults of Moroccan and Turkish descent Focusing on stories about home this book deals with social relationships and being oneself countries and houses discrimination and Islamophobia family and religion and how these feature in personal narratives Through microanalysis of case study material using Dialogical Self Theory this book formulates and substantiates clear insights into descendants of migrants roots and routes their sense of home and their ambivalent processes of dis identification and belonging Showing how religion plays a relatively marginal role in personal narratives it provides an antidote to the widespread tendency to address and study Muslims almost exclusively in terms of their religious identity

Sufism in Morocco's Religious Politics John C. Thibdeau,2023-07-25 This book outlines the role of Sufism in Moroccan politics in the twenty first century through a comparative study of contemporary Sufi organizations The author begins his analysis by highlighting the strategies employed by the Moroccan state over the past twenty years aimed at regulating and producing an authorized Moroccan Islam in the kingdom Despite these policies of spiritual security and spiritual diplomacy including the state sponsorship of Sufi organizations the author argues that this has not decreased diversity nor produced a banal interpretation of Islam but rather given rise to diverse articulations and performances of this religiosity Through a comparative analysis of three Sufi organizations based on eighteen months of fieldwork two of which have never before been studied the author brings into relief the spaces of creative enactment of Sufism as an ethical tradition Ultimately it is argued that each Sufi organization reflects a different refraction of i s n a concept emphasising the cultivation of public piety which underpins the Moroccan state s formulation of Islam Focused on both theoretical contributions to Islamic studies and topical treatments of geopolitical issues like spiritual diplomacy the Western Sahara and Morocco Algeria the book spans multiple disciplines including anthropology religious studies sociology and political science Cultural, Training and Educational Spaces Theodora Balmon, Bruno Garnier, 2024-01-04 For two centuries the school system has been a central point around which other players have gravitated local authorities voluntary organizations and the world of work Over the course of the 20th century this school centric configuration underwent a transformation with local authorities tending to become integrated into the vertical culture of the school system This was only the beginning of a process that brought schools and socio cultural players into constant contact Cultural Training and Educational Spaces first examines the relationships with knowledge generated by the links between the school system and other cultural training and educational spaces taking a historical pedagogical and philosophical perspective Easy access to learning materials creates different relationships with knowledge than those observed in schools The book then looks at the pedagogical practices in these different cultural educational spaces such as libraries and media libraries museums and historical sites places of heritage history and entertainment social networks and other multimedia formats The Wide, Wide World Susan Warner, 2021-03-02 When her father leaves and mother becomes ill a girl is sent to live with a distant relative where she learns some hard life lessons The girl encounters both good and bad people but maintains her Christian values Ellen Montgomery s life drastically changes when she s forced to move in with her estranged Aunt Fortune The environment is cold and oppressive a stark comparison to her mother s comforting home Despite the changes Ellen explores her new community making several friends along the way As the years pass she experiences sickness death and eventually love She uses her faith to guide her through many unexpected trials and tribulations Ellen s story is a testament to a person s ability to stay kind and optimistic no matter the circumstance The Wide Wide World was Susan Warner s first and biggest commercial success It is considered a fixture in the domestic genre showcasing the growing pains of womanhood Aside from Uncle Tom s Cabin Warner s was one of the most circulated novels of its time With an eye catching new cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of The Wide Wide World is both modern and readable The Upanishads: The Khândogya-upanishad. The Talavakâra-upanishad. The Aitareya-âranyaka. The Kaushîtaki-brâhmana-upanishad the the Vâgasaneyi-samhitâ-upanishad ,1879 My Reasons for Leaving the Church of England and Joining the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Robert Moseley Bryce Thomas, 1916 The Dead Travel Fast Deanna Raybourn, 2010-03-01 A husband a family a comfortable life Theodora LeStrange lives in terror of it all With a modest inheritance and the three gowns that comprise her entire wardrobe Theodora leaves Edinburgh and a disappointed suitor far behind She is bound for Rumania where tales of vampires are still whispered to visit an old friend and write the book that will bring her true independence She arrives at a magnificent decaying castle in the Carpathians replete with eccentric inhabitants the ailing dowager the troubled steward her own fearful friend Cosmina But all are outstripped in dark glamour by the castle's master Count Andrei Dragulescu Bewildering and bewitching in equal measure the brooding nobleman ignites Theodora's imagination and awakens passions in her that she can neither deny nor conceal His allure is superlative his dominion over the superstitious town absolute Theodora may simply be one more person under his sway Before her sojourn is ended or her novel completed Theodora will have encountered things as strange and terrible as they are seductive For obsession can prove fatal and she is in danger of falling prey to more than desire

A Son of Kentucky Michael R. Zomber, 2010-11 A Son of Kentucky chronicles the life of Josiah Johnson a starve acre tobacco farmer living outside a small town in western Kentucky on the banks of a tributary of the Tennessee River in the ante bellum South Johnson's relative poverty is primarily due to his rather public unwillingness to use slave labor a moral position viewed with suspicion and derision by his neighbors Both Johnson and his wife Sara are passionate abolitionists their mutual detestation of the institution being responsible for their becoming acquainted in the first place Shortly after General Beauregard fires on Fort Sumter Josiah feels compelled to answer President Lincoln's call and travels North to Ohio to enlist as a private in the Union Army leaving behind Sara his infant daughter Elizabeth and Cecile their black woman servant For nearly two years Josiah fights on battlefields from Maryes Heights to Chancellorsville finally to Gettysburg where he is wounded in action while saving his Colonel's life As Josiah fights for what he and Sara believe is right back home in Kentucky Sara battles for her family's survival barely subsisting with the aid of a wealthy woman whose husband is also away fighting and the coots they are able to shoot on the river While lying in the putrid filth and stench of a Union Army hospital Josiah receives the Medal of Honor The war is over for him in one sense but he must fight another war with himself He is tortured by doubts and uncertainties tortured by his injured leg which stubbornly refuses to heal After an endless trip by troop train he finally reaches his farm riding on a borrowed mule The farm is plainly in shambles Ashamed of his wound he hesitates to make his return known to his family He seeks solace by visiting his father's grave There he breaks down entirely weeping inconsolably not so much for himself as for all the death and senseless carnage he has witnessed the countless men and boys wearing blue and grey uniforms who will never come home in life or in death Michael R Zomber was born in Washington D C and educated at Oberlin College Villanova University the University of Illinois and UCLA He received his M A in English Literature from UCLA At the age of nine while attending a Boy Scout Jamboree in Eastern Pennsylvania he was fascinated by an 1873 trapdoor Springfield rifle standing in the corner of a recreation of an old country store That antique gun was the beginning of an interest in early American history and a study of early American firearms and swords that has lasted for more than fifty years From the finest

Winchesters to magnificently engraved percussion Colt revolvers Zomber has examined thousands of arms in museums private collections and world famous auction houses all over Europe and the Americas In the 1990 s he assisted producer Yann DeBonne during production of the groundbreaking A E television show The Story of the Gun which became the long running History Channel series Tales of the Gun He appears in nearly a dozen episodes as a featured historian including Million Dollar Guns Guns of the Famous and Dueling Pistols Ericsson's Caloric Engine John B. Kitching,1860 75 Years of Photography Spencer Ross,2023-05-16 Immersed in the flourishing Greenwich Village arts scene of the 1950s Spencer Ross studied photography with some of the most famous mentors of that period Soon his own work received accolades U S Camera magazine named him one of the young lions of photography His photograph Street Scene in Siena is considered by some to be one of the finest street photographs of that era For the next six decades Ross traveled the world on business to 130 countries and he always took his camera along His street scenes and nature photographs from those travels have hung in over 100 museums and galleries including the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the IBM Gallery In this volume you can see over 250 of Ross s arresting images stunning street photography memorable portraits of men women and children extraordinary photographs of our natural world haunting landscapes and memorable abstracts accompanied by Ross s observations about the images his travels and the creative process Ross reflects on the increasing sophistication of cameras from their earliest days to 35mm technology along with the ubiquity of today s smartphones and their effect on the photography world He reminisces about his mentors and significant influences and muses about photography as a fine art Though hardly reality itself says Ross the still photograph has an uncanny ability to preserve an image with an intensity which can equal or even surpass the experience of the moment A photograph can mystify elevate transmute imbue and influence All these possibilities and more are available to those practitioners who maintain an appropriate respect for the potential of this medium and a sufficient knowledge of the craft The photographs in this collection do indeed reflect Ross s aspiration to create works of lasting value As you ll see in this book Spencer Ross can tackle a sunset explore flowers in the field and come up with beautiful beach scenes but where do I think he really shines As a street photographer myself I cannot help being wowed by many of his street photographs the kids playing in the streets of Belgium or his photo of a portrait photographer on the streets of Athens like a mirror of his eye to eye view of the world An interested and interesting world traveler he roamed around with his camera in hand before street photography even had a name This worthy book is filled with Ross s life s work and it serves photographic history well Ken Farrell The Metropolitan ,1835 The Metropolitan Magazine ,1835 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1911 Silent in the Sanctuary Deanna Raybourn,2015-08-17 Fresh from a six month sojourn in Italy Lady Julia returns home to Sussex to find her father s estate crowded with family and friends Much to her surprise the one man she had hoped to forget the enigmatic and compelling Nicholas Brisbane is among her father s houseguests and he is not alone Not to be outdone Julia shows him that two can play at flirtation and promptly introduces him to her devoted younger titled Italian count But the homecoming celebrations quickly take a ghastly turn when one of the guests is found brutally murdered in the chapel Lady Julia resumes her unlikely and deliciously intriguing partnership with Nicholas Brisbane setting out to unravel a tangle of deceit before the killer can strike again
