Love and Poetry in the Middle East Atef Alshaer, 2021-12-30 Love has been an important trope in the literature of the region we now call the Middle East from ancient times to modern This book analyses love poetry in various ancient and contemporary languages of the Middle East including Akkadian ancient Egyptian Classical and Modern Standard Arabic Persian Hebrew Turkish and Kurdish including literary materials that have been discovered and highlighted for the first time Together the chapters reflect and explore the discursive evolution of the theme of love and the sensibilities styles and techniques used to convey it They chart the way in which poems in ancient poetry give way to complex and varied reflections of human sentiments in the medieval languages and on to the modern period which in turn reflects the complexities and nuances of present times Offering a snapshot of the diverse literary languages and their relationship to the theme of love the book will be of interest to scholars of Near and Middle Eastern Literature and Culture

Is a River Alive? Robert Macfarlane, 2025-05-20 From the celebrated writer observer and naturalist Robert Macfarlane comes a brilliant perspective shifting new book which answers a resounding yes to the question of its title At the heart of Is a River Alive is a single transformative idea that rivers are not mere matter for human use but living beings who should be recognized as such in both imagination and law Macfarlane takes the reader on a mind expanding global journey into the history futures people and places of the ancient urgent concept Around the world rivers are dying from pollution drought and damming But a powerful movement is also underway to recognize the lives and the rights of rivers and to re animate our relationships with these vast mysterious presences whose landscapes we share The young rights of nature movement has lit up activists artists law makers and politicians across six continents and become the focus for revolutionary thinking about rivers in particular The book flows like water from the mountains to the sea over three major journeys The first is to northern Ecuador where a miraculous cloud forest and its rivers are threatened with destruction by Canadian gold mining The second is to the wounded rivers creeks and lagoons of southern India where a desperate battle to save the lives of these waterbodies is underway The third is to northeastern Quebec where a spectacular wild river the Mutehekau or Magpie is being defended from death by damming in a river rights
