My Poetic Quest II:

My Poetic Quest II W. T. Jackson, 2005-10-31 Life's journey has taken me into many different pursuits and endeavors I was born in 1939 but it was not until 1980 that I completed my final master's degree at Talbot Theological Seminary Other degrees include a BA from Idaho State University in Speech and Drama 1970 MFA in Playwriting from the University of Utah in 1972 I entered the pastorate in 1981 serving in Arizona and California retiring at age 62 for health reasons The Aftermath of Unrest Natalie Nascenzi, 2020-11-11 The Aftermath of Unrest is a one of a kind poetry collection novella and the second collection by NYC poet Natalie Nascenzi Through a combination of poems paintings and short stories it takes readers on a journey through passing time the battle of the mind the lessons of life and finding balance in the chaos of reality This incredible and true story is captivating from cover to cover and encapsulates the message Anything is possible anyone is capable and even in the darkest of times there is hope The interior contains original paintings by artist Grant McGrath paired beautifully with the poems and short stories The reader is guided through the author's personal experience as she describes her serendipitous experiences before and during the pandemic in New York City Collected Prefaces Nicholas Hagger, 2022-04-29 Nicholas Hagger's 55 books include innovative works on literature history philosophy and international politics In his first published literary work he revived the Preface which had fallen into disuse after Wordsworth and Shelley He went on to write Prefaces sometimes called Prologues Introductions or Introductory Notes for all his subsequent books Collected Prefaces a collection of 55 Prefaces excluding the Preface to this book sets out his thinking and the reader can follow the development of his philosophy of Universalism of which he is the main exponent his literary approach particularly his combination of Romanticism and Classicism which he calls neo Baroque and his metaphysical thinking His Prefaces can be read as essays and as in T S Eliot's Selected Essays there is an interaction between adjacent Prefaces that brings an entirely new perspective to Hagger's works These Prefaces cover an enormous range Nicholas Hagger is a Renaissance man at home in many disciplines His Universalism focuses on humankind's relationship to the whole universe as reflected in seven key disciplines seen as wholes the whole of literature history philosophy and the sciences mysticism religion international politics and statecraft and world culture Behind all the Prefaces is Hagger's fundamental perception of the unity of the universe as the One and of humankind's position in it These Prefaces complement his Selected Letters a companion volume also published by O Books and contain startling insights that illumine and send readers to the works the Prefaces introduce Life Cycle and Other New Poems 2006 - 2016 Nicholas Hagger, 2016-11-25 Nicholas Hagger's Collected Poems contained 30 volumes of his poems that reflect his quest for the One Life Cycle and Other New Poems contains volumes 31-34 and presents the vision of unity to which his quest has led Life Cycle is a reflection on the path and pattern in our lives and on twelve seven year ages from infancy to advanced old age In Harmony with the Universe presents poems on the soul's harmony and oneness with Nature An Unsung Laureate focuses on public events and the conflicts within Western society

Adventures in Paradise recounts journeys to remote places that have echoes of Paradise including the Galapagos Islands and Antarctica and reflections on evolution and global warming Hagger derives his inspiration from the 17th century Metaphysical poets and seeks to unite the later Augustan and Romantic traditions These poems reconcile the soul's harmony with the universe and the conflicts in public life and are within the poetic tradition of Wordsworth and Tennyson They add significantly to Collected Poems Classical Odes and Hagger's two poetic epics Overlord and Armageddon also published by O Books the manuscripts and papers for which are held in the Albert Sloman Library at the University of Essex They carry forward his Universalist approach to poetry which unveils an ordered universe behind the apparent chaos of world events

The Essentials of Universalism Nicholas Hagger, 2024-10-29 In A Baroque Vision Nicholas Hagger chose key passages from his verse that convey the thread of his Baroque vision In its companion volume The Essentials of Universalism he chooses key passages from his prose works that convey the thread of his Universalism which grew out of his Baroque perspective Hagger's literary mystical religious philosophical historical cultural and political Universalist writings are innovative In 60 books he has set out a new approach to literature and identified its fundamental theme as a quest for the One an infinite Reality perceived as Light that alternates with condemnation of social follies and vices presented many mystics illuminations seen the Light as the common essence of all religions created a new philosophy of Universalism that restates the unity of the universe and challenges modern philosophy charted the history of the rise and fall of civilisations reconciled the divisions within world culture and proposed a democratic World State with limited supranational power to abolish war and bring in a Golden Age of peace and prosperity The Essentials of Universalism is a stunning anthology of his writings that covers all aspects of his thinking and range Chosen by the author himself the excerpts include the most important passages in the Hagger canon and are representative of his vast output Since the book was completed Hagger has brought out The Algorithm of Creation the first ever statement of a Theory of Everything and a further development of his Universalism This anthology makes clear the main thrust of his life's work and is required reading for all interested in seeing how his many innovations connect

A Baroque Vision Nicholas Hagger, 2024-09-27 Between 1979 and 1982 Nicholas Hagger wrote three letters to the eminent literary critic Christopher Ricks about his poetic identity and Ricks agreed with his final view that his verse blends the Romantic and Classical traditions within the Baroque tradition In 1979 and again in 1982 Ricks asked him to select 30 poems Forty years later A Baroque Vision presents a selection that shows his Baroque roots Part One presents 30 poems written before 1979 and Part Two adds 70 verse selections written between 1979 and 2019 A Baroque Vision presents 100 verse selections drawn from 50 volumes of his poems verse plays and masques The Baroque style which can be found in all European countries combines the spiritual and the sensual and features movement transformation the Mystic Way the mysterious Light the transcending of death the divine soul and Heaven as illustrated in Rubens The Apotheosis of James I shown on the front cover and blends the Romantic and Classical traditions In his Preface

Hagger shows very clearly that his Baroque vision was behind and grew into his Universalism his philosophy and worldview of the unity of the universe whose development can be traced in his Selected Letters and Collected Prefaces and in the companion volume to this work The Essentials of Universalism all published by O Books These 100 verse selections confirm that his Baroque vision is inspired by the 17th century by the Metaphysical poets Milton and Dryden but also by the 18th and 19th centuries by Pope Wordsworth and Tennyson

Selected Letters Nicholas Hagger, 2021-10-29 Nicholas Hagger's literary philosophical historical and political writings are innovatory He has set out a new approach to literature that combines Romantic and Classical outlooks in a substantial literary oeuvre of 2 000 poems including over 300 classical odes two poetic epics five verse plays three masques two travelogues and 1 200 stories He has created a new philosophy of Universalism that focuses on the unity of the universe and humankind and the interconnectedness of all disciplines and challenges modern philosophy He has presented an original historical view of the rise and fall of civilisations and proposed and detailed a limited democratic World State with the power to abolish war and solve all the world's problems Selected Letters draws together those of his letters written over 60 years that aid the interpretation and elucidation of his works Many of his correspondents are well known figures within literature philosophy history and international politics and Hagger is in the footsteps of Alexander Pope in editing his own letters which are in the tradition of Pope Wordsworth Keats T E Lawrence Ezra Pound and Ted Hughes one of his correspondents They throw light on all aspects of Hagger's vast output and are required reading for all interested in following the growth of his Universalism his literary development and his innovatory approach to universal truth

following visits to China and the Soviet Union poems written during a Dark Night of the Soul glimpses of illumination and poems of social satire There are also extracts from Hagger s verse plays As can be seen from his A Metaphysical in Marvell s Garden Hagger derives his inspiration from the 17th century Metaphysical poets and seeks to unite the later Augustan and Romantic traditions This selection offers a chance to reappraise a poet whose material accomplished technique and reconciling sensibility places him in the forefront of poets writing today Literary Disinheritance Najat

Mishra, Dear readers As we are aware that poetry is the expression of human life from times eternal I too pretend to be instrumental to express the truth and beauty of life in my surrounding I have perceived In fact our country has a long tradition of creating arts and poetry from ages I wish to reveal my reactions and responses to the things and the incidences happening around me in cosmopolitan city comprising of prismatic view of lives varying in language rituals and life styles but creating an amazing combination of diversity and unity Through My Inner Whisper I open my heart to sing to voice and represent the sentiments and ethos of our contemporary Indian societal cultural space It is very true that no true poet can escape from the tradition that haunts him to conceptualize the arising challenges and the sufferings the humanity goes through In the same way with the same vein I too am being haunted to encapsulate my experiences in words that I went through I too dream to seek beauty and order in my words to acquire the dreams of my nation and society The radical past stored in my deeper consciousness what the psychologist Jung calls the blocked off radical unconscious swells the poetic seed in me to germinate and develop the literary instinct that inspired me to come up with this poetry collection At the same time I as a poet cannot escape the present because I subsist in it and belong to it that forced me to come with certain poems reflecting the arising crisis of religion and the spirituality The best part of it is that I located myself at the place of a poet tried my level best to relate the immediate present to the living past and in possible intent to the future that is in the process of becoming We as a poet encounter the present experience the past and envision the future projecting all in our creative literary space My this English poem collection entitled as My Inner Whisper evolves from the contemporary experiences that I interfaced as the process of modernization comprising of mass migration urbanization industrialization mobility independence social changes and increased communication and emerging challenges of common people in metropolitan and cosmopolitan space It aims to express the contemporary issues with greater intensity and of certain attitudes and values believed by Indian society wholly urban of middle class I in my poetic spirit find myself very realistic and analytical in my expression and experiences that sometimes may turn individualized My past memories experiences and encounters with life pleasing and unpleasing sometimes succeeded while at almost of times failed are the sites of my poetic quest and exploration to understand the life

with its best endeavor I within my poetic vein sincerely attempted to go in for precision at all my levels With the hope that this poetic volume would render delight and yield mental ease to my all the readers I look forward for your overwhelmed responses that definitely will encourage me for other piece of creative works I am confident enough to state that your appreciation would be a fresh source of energy for my poetic strength that will definitely find an expression in other of my creative space Dr Santosh Kumar J Mishra Mumbai Ted Hughes's South Yorkshire Steve Ely,2015-08-26 Ted Hughes s South Yorkshire tells the untold story of Hughes s Mexborough period 1938 1951 and demonstrates conclusively that Hughes s experiences in South Yorkshire in town and country educationally in literature and love were decisive in forming him as the poet of his subsequent fame Cultivating Creativity in Methodology and Research Charlotte Wegener,Ninna Meier,Elina Maslo,2017-10-27 This book presents a variety of narratives on key elements of academic work from data analysis writing practices and engagement with the field The authors discuss how elements of academic work and life usually edited out of traditional research papers can elicit important analytical insight The book reveals how the unplanned accidental and even obstructive events that often occur in research life the detours can potentially glean important results The authors introduce the process of writing sharing reading writing as a way to expand the playground of research and inspire a culture in which accountable research methodologies involve adventurousness and an element of uncertainty Written by scholars from a range of different fields academic levels and geographic locations this unique book will offer significant insight to those from a range of academic fields The Life of Robert Burns James Currie,1838

Reimagining Narrative Therapy Through Practice Stories and Autoethnography Travis Heath,Tom Stone Carlson,David Epston,2022-06-19 Reimagining Narrative Therapy Through Practice Stories and Autoethnography takes a new pedagogical approach to teaching and learning in contemporary narrative therapy based in autoethnography and storytelling The individual client stories aim to paint each therapeutic meeting in such detail that the reader will come to feel as though they actually know the two or more people in the room This approach moves beyond the standard narrative practice of teaching by transcripts and steps into teaching narrative therapy through autoethnography The intention of these teaching tales is to offer the reader an opportunity to enter into the very heart and soul of narrative therapy practice much like reading a novel has you enter into the lives of the characters that inhabit it This work has been used by the authors in MA and PhD level classrooms workshops week long intensive courses and conferences around the world where it has received commendations from both newcomer and veteran narrative therapists The aim of this book is to introduce narrative therapy and the value of integrating autoethnographic methods to students and new clinicians It can also serve as a useful tool for advanced teachers of narrative practices In addition it will appeal to established clinicians who are curious about narrative therapy who may be looking to add it to their practice as well as students and scholars of autoethnography and qualitative inquiry and methods Visions of England Nicholas Hagger,2019-01-25 In 1999 while working as his Literary

Secretary the Earl of Burford a descendant of the 3rd Earl of Southampton Shakespeare's patron and of the 17th Earl of Oxford and heir to the Dukedom of St Albans made a selection of Nicholas Hagger's poems that celebrates places in England conveys his mystical awareness of the unity of the universe and places him in the visionary tradition of William Blake the poet of Jerusalem and England's green and pleasant land Soon after Visions of England was completed the Earl of Burford came to international attention when he leapt onto the Woolsack of the House of Lords in a principled protest against the Blair Government's plan to abolish hereditary peers voting rights which led to 92 remaining in the Lords A few months later he left Nicholas Hagger's employ and the selection was buried under papers for nearly 20 years In 2018 Nicholas Hagger came across Visions of England while preparing papers to send to his archive It now seemed as if the selection had been made with Brexit in mind The places are full of English history and culture and the poems are prophetic in their anticipation of England's new spirit of independence These poems convey Englishness with a freshness and vividness that startle The Earl of Burford is a prominent lecturer and biographer and his selection is noteworthy for the metaphysical perspective he brings out in Nicholas Hagger's profound poems whose traditional qualities constantly surprise and delight

Diary of a Newlywed Poet Juan Ramón Jiménez, 2004 The Diary is an innovative and complex work of both prose and poetry It stands among the first works of prose in the Spanish language to capture the images and urban landscapes of New York City revealing as well surprising degrees of modernity and social sensitivity It is equally innovative in its cultivation of free verse and historically important for introducing for the first time in Spanish literature a new mode of poetic composition

Jacket Poems That Propel the Planet Paul Davis, 2007-06 This volume of prophetic poems focuses on the idea that the love of people must surpass the love of power Love liberation and reconciliation is what the world needs Motivation

Vibrant Death Nina Lykke, 2021-12-16 Vibrant Death links philosophy and poetry based corporeally grounded knowledge seeking It offers a radically new materialist theory of death critically moving the philosophical argument beyond Christian and secular mechanistic understandings The book's ethico political figuration of vibrant death is shaped through a pluriversal conversation between Deleuzian philosophy neo vitalist materialism and the spiritual materialism of decolonial queerfeminist poet and scholar Gloria Anzaldua The book's posthuman deexceptionalizing of human death unfurls together with a collection of poetry and autobiographical stories They are analysed through the lens of a posthuman queerfeminist revision of the method of autophenomenography phenomenological analysis of autobiographical material Nina Lykke explores the speaking position of a mourning queerfeminine I who contemplates the relationship with her dead beloved lesbian life partner She reflects on her enactment of processes of co becoming with the phenomenal and material traces of the deceased body and the new assemblages with which it has merged through death's material metamorphoses becoming ashes through cremation and becoming mixed with algae sand when the ashes were scattered across a seabed made of fiftyfive million year old fossilized algae It is argued that the mourning I's intimate bodily empathizing theorized as symphysizing with her deceased queermasculine beloved life partner facilitates the processes of vitalist material and spiritual material co becoming and the rethinking of death from a new and different perspective than that of the sovereign philosophical subject
