and are associated with our bodies such as an individual act or behavior so one sees the manifested action The internal choices stem from our various selves choices that are made by our souls and spirits and our feeling and reasoning respectively The individual has to think or feel before he she acts Charles believes ultimately both internal and external choices need to be in harmony with each other so better choices can be seen in an individual life Charles continues to write and strives for excellence in all his poems He invites the readers into his presence to share and exchange of thoughts and views about life experiences All readers can be at home with him from simple to complex truths and philosophies about life Charles wants the readers to discover something about their selves as they read his poems for as human beings we are more similar than difference in our choices It does not matter what race culture or sex differences we have We are still human being for we all think sleep and dream And can truly make better choices Charles hopes all readers can clearly see this in his poems

Made-in-Canada Humour Beverly J. Rasporich, 2015-09-15 Made in Canada Humour is an interdisciplinary survey and analysis of Canadian humour and humorists in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The book focuses on a variety of genres It includes celebrated Canadian writers and poets with ironic and satiric perspectives oral storytellers of tall tales in the country and the city newspaper print humorists representative national and regional cartoonists and comedians of stage radio and television The humour gives voice to Canadian values and experiences and consequently techniques and styles of humour particular to the country While a persistent comic theme has been joking at the expense of the United States both countries have influenced one another s humour Canada s unique humorous tradition also reflects its emergence from a colonial country to a postcolonial and postmodern nation with contemporary humour that addresses gender and racial issues
