My Search For Ruth:

My Search for Ruth Anna Clarke, 1975-01-01 The Search Grace Livingston Hill, 2022-05-17 Grace Livingston Hill's The Search is an evocative tale set against the tumultuous backdrop of World War I reflecting the era's social and cultural dynamism. Ruth MacDonald, the central character, is emblematic of spirited wartime women who stepped into broader roles beyond the domestic sphere. Hill's narrative weaves a rich tapestry of emotion and action, showcasing her trademark style that combines elements of Christian romance with adventurous melodrama. This novel, like many others from Hill, fits comfortably within the early 20th-century literary context of sentimental fiction, aiming to both entertain and provide moral lessons to its readers. Grace Livingston Hill, a prolific author of her time, had the knack for exploring themes of love, faith, and virtue, a penchant that may be rooted in her personal history. The milieu of WWI provided a dramatic setting for her characters' internal and spiritual battles, possibly drawing on the cultural shifts and personal stories Hill witnessed during that time. Her decision to empower Ruth in assisting a soldier on his quest for love reflects Hill's own adherence to themes of redemption and providence guiding human connections. The Search is an essential read for those who appreciate literary snapshots of historical moments interwoven with a heartwarming narrative. Readers will find not only a testament to robust character development but also a chronicle of love's enduring power even amidst societal upheaval. The novel offers a particular allure for aficionados of Christian fiction and those interested in women's roles during wartime. Hill's work is more than just a story; it's a journey through hope and the belief in the triumph of love over adversity. Who Am I?: A Solitary

Search for Truth Thomas Carcaterra, 2016-11-04 Told by an old man nearing the end of his existence, Who Am I? by author Thomas Carcaterra offers a revelatory reflection on life and love. In re-examining his own life, his successes and failures, and triumphs and defeats, Carcaterra ultimately realizes all he knows came from his father. By recalling his own life, Carcaterra has brought to life his father's existence, and he has also come to understand the history of all mankind and the mystery of why history repeats itself. In addition to a chronicle of his life, Carcaterra presents a treatise about life and our world, why there is nothing new under the sun, love always conquers hate, man and woman have opposite beliefs, Donald Trump versus Hillary Clinton, the location of God, and more. Who Am I? chronicles Carcaterra's life as he reflects back on where he came from and the various influences that have made him who he has become.
