A Dragon Child: Reflections of a Daughter of Annam in America Lucy Nguyen-Hong-Nhiem,2004-10-11 A Dragon Child Reflections of a Daughter of Annam in America is the story of a Vietnamese Catholic raised within the structure of the French colonial system Her upbringing was somewhat privileged as the daughter of a provincial administrator in the central highlands of Vietnam As a child and later as a young woman she embraced French culture and aspired to French ideals She was educated at a French boarding school for the children of the elite Subsequently she received a degree in French teaching from the University of Saigon and became a lycee teacher and administrator In 1975 she left on one of the last military planes accompanied by her four children and entered a new life as a refugee in the U S She ultimately resettled in Western Massachusetts She then went back to school and obtained her Ph D in

Francophone literature After seeing to her children s education she began her academic career and started to teach French in the Five College academic community She has fulfilled the American dream as have her children In the process she has rediscovered her cultural roots and has helped others to negotiate the same path For Crying Out Loud Richard Harsham,2011-02-07

Letters from Inside a U.S. Detention Center Jane Juffer,Carla,2023-04-19 After fleeing homophobia and threats to her life in her native El Salvador Carla was detained for two years inside the Buffalo Federal Detention Center Her letters provide a powerful and unique account of a queer woman s experience inside America s asylum system Letters from Inside a U S Detention Center reconstructs Carla s story from the correspondence between Carla and Jane Juffer a professor at Cornell University and from excerpts from the legal decisions made while she was being held in immigration detention Contextualised with explanation and analysis of detention in the United States the book examines how detention exacerbates the trauma many migrants experience and becomes another site of fear intimidation and uncertainty Carla s narrative is a powerful story and one that illustrates grievous injustices in the U S immigration and asylum system The book will be of immense value to immigration activists and scholars alike especially in feminist studies queer studies and those studying the intersections of prisons and detention centres

Coming Back Home Sam Mphuthi,2010-11-02 This novel is about a young Zimbabwean woman or girl who together with her sister becomes refugee in South Africa just four years before the start of 2010 Soccer World Cup Her familys background from as early as 1958 when his father was born is making a huge influence in her life and the way she relates to her sister Because of the sad and difficult upbringing of both her parents she takes a vow to protect her sister with her own life if need be Her sister who is not only multitalented fine young and amazing person with a personality close that of an angel but an albino as well is the only thing she is prepared to live and die for After convincing her father to allow her to come to South Africa with her little sister with the intention of saving her little sister from the bound marriage in which four other women were already involved like many people in the neighbouring countries of South Africa they cannot find what they expect from a country which is blessed with an opportunity to host the most prestigious tournament on earth Ultimately instead of protecting her sister she unfortunately turns to have a hand in her sisters death After burying her sister without the knowledge of her parents in Zimbabwe she decides to hide herself in South Africa from her parents her fianc and goes to look for the love of her life while she is three months pregnant With the help of her lost love who could not bear her children because of the injury he sustained during circumcision she returns home together with her newborn twins to Zimbabwe to reconcile with her parents and to ask for their forgiveness

She was a loving coach, unselfish, and gave her students unconditional love regardless of race, creed, or sex.

Happiness: Ten Years of N+1, 2014-09-09 A selection from the first ten years of n 1 magazine. The first issue of n 1 appeared in the fall of 2004 as the brainchild of a group of writers working out of a Brooklyn apartment. Intended to revive the leftist social criticism that was the hallmark of Dissent and Partisan Review, n 1 was a fierce rejoinder to the consumerism and complacency of the Bush years. It hasn't slowed down since. It has given us the first sociological survey of the Brooklyn hipster, the best criticism of the New York City literary scene, and the most clear-eyed boots on the ground reportage of the 2008 crash and the Occupy movement. No media, new or old, has escaped its ire, and n 1's firebrand contributors have had the last word on reality TV, Twitter, diploma deflation, drone strikes, and Internet porn. Happiness, released on the occasion of n 1's tenth anniversary, collects the best of the magazine as selected by its editors. These essays are fiercely contentious, disconcertingly astute, and screamingly funny, taking a searching moral inventory of the strange times we live in. Founding lights Chad Harbach, Keith Gessen, Benjamin Kunkel, Marco Roth, and Mark Greif are featured, as well as the essays that launched some of the most electric young writers working today, talents such as Elif Batuman, Emily Witt, and Kristen Dombek. This anthology is the definitive work of the definitive intellectual magazine of our time.
