China's High-Tech Repression Against Uyghurs: Novel Theoretical Insights Lacin Idil Oztig, Abdurresit Celil Karluk, 2025-02-14 This book explores the socio spatial impacts of China's high tech repression against Uyghurs both within and beyond its borders The study is built on surveys in depth interviews and focus group discussions with the members of Uyghur diaspora in Turkey Findings indicate that high tech repression minimizes the social life in East Turkestan This type of governance aims to achieve a complete erasure of privacy and individual agency by strategically leveraging technology While Uyghurs who escaped to Turkey appear to gain relative freedom our findings indicate that with China's transnational repression mostly applied through Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs) they live in a social space which functions as a quasi spatial extension of East Turkestan

Chinese Heart-throbs Jennie V. Hughes, 1920

Flowing with the Pearl River: Memoir of a Red China Girl Amy Chan Zhou, 2022-03-15 Amy Chan Zhou's searing memoir about growing up in rural Communist China features descriptions of pastoral beauty and tales of the simple joys of raising farm animals or catching fish in a local river However her childhood is scarred by the primitive conditions her family's everyday struggle to obtain food and the horror of witnessing relatives being tortured on a stage during public denouncing meetings As the Communists take control of China in 1949 we follow the harrowing experiences of Chan Zhou's great grandparents grandparents father and mother during the 1950s 60s and 70s when landlords business owners artists and scholars were branded as bad elements and class enemies As a teenager in the 1970s while selling vegetables on the black market Chan Zhou is accused of being a little capitalist trader The death of Mao ultimately saves Chan Zhou from being sent to a detention center and her family's destiny is forever altered by Deng Xiaoping's reform that allows her family to reunite in Hong Kong and subsequently emigrate to the United States A blend of Wild Swans and The Red Scarf Girl Flowing with the Pearl River is a vividly accurate portrayal of one family's painful experiences during Communism and the Cultural Revolution in China and their eventual escape to freedom

New Narratives of Urban Space in Republican Chinese Cities, 2013-03-27 The nine empirical studies in New Narratives of Urban Space in Republican Chinese Cities organized under the general framework of urban space examine three critical dimensions of the great urban transformation in Republican China: social, legal, and governance orders. Together, these narratives suggest a new perception of this historical urbanism. While modern economic development was a major drive for Chinese urban transformation, this volume highlights the dimension of the multilayered forces that shape urban space by looking into that less quantifiable but equally important cultural realm and by exposing the ways in which these forces created new urban narratives which became themselves shapers of urban space and of our perception of the Republican urbanity

Big Sister, Little Sister, Red Sister Jung Chang, 2019 The most famous sisters in China, the three Soong sisters from Shanghai, were at the center of power during a time of wars, revolutions, and seismic transformations. Red Sister Ching-ling married Sun Yat-sen. Little Sister May-ling became Madame Chiang Kai-shek. Big Sister Ei-ling became Chiang's unofficial main adviser and made herself one of China's richest women

Culture, Cognition, and Emotion in China's Religious Ethnic Minorities Rachel Sing-Kiat Ting, Louise Sundararajan, 2017-10-20 This study examines the suffering narratives of the Bimo and Christian religious communities of the Yi minority who reside in the remote mountains of Sichuan and Yunnan, China, respectively. It is informed by the theoretical framework of ecological rationality, which posits that religions influence and are influenced by cognitive styles that have co-evolved with the ecological niche of a culture. It was predicted and found that in times of adversity, traditional religious communities differ in emotion expression, causal attribution, and help-seeking behavior, with far-reaching ramifications for how they are uniquely vulnerable to the ravages of modernization. The authors hope that the voices of the study participants, heard through their harrowing narratives, may inspire a deepened sensitivity to the plight of rural Chinese communities as China races to become a superpower in the global economy

The Modernist Response to Chinese Art Zhaoming Qian, 2003 The Modernist Response to Chinese Art is a work of both erudition and sympathy that reveals the root of modernist poets' otherwise baffling interest in and use of Chinese art. Most impressive, perhaps, is the depth of their embrace of it, as Qian has so convincingly documented. Patricia C. Williams
