My Stories:

My Life, My Stories Shireen Najib, 2013-06-25 This book is a refreshing glimpse into the life of people in Pakistan today. Seen through the eyes of the author who keeps moving home every year or so to live in different cities of Pakistan. Most of these articles were printed during the last two decades in different magazines and dailies. Shireen Gheba Najib has a refreshing and humorous viewpoint of the incidents and situations she finds herself in. There are also interviews of prominent personalities from different walks of life. These articles fulfill the need to get out of statistics of poverty and illiteracy and measure the charm and hospitality of Pakistanis. About the Author: Writer, artist, and educationist Shireen Gheba Najib has an MSc degree in Related Arts Home Economics Lahore and an MBA in Human Resource Management Islamabad. Her first article was written for Dawn newspaper on life in Kuwait after the invasion of Kuwait in 1990. Editor Dawn invited her to write regularly for them. Seven hundred articles and three books later, she is an established writer. Last year she had her own column on personalities in Islamabad in Dawn. Her books Fun Cook Book, Kitchen Management, and Entertaining Guests are available online.

Tell Me a Story Robert J. Hater, 2006 Father Robert Hater strongly believes that story without basic belief lacks direction and basic belief without story is lifeless. He illustrates this relationship between story and Catholic belief with sensitive and powerful narratives including the account of his own mother's death and its impact on him. This is an invaluable resource for anyone involved in conveying the story of Jesus and the church: pastors, homilists, catechetical leaders, catechists, and teachers; parish ministers and families as well as all who wish to find God in their own stories.

Your Story Matters Leslie Leyland Fields, 2020-04-07 Your Story Matters presents a dynamic and spiritually formative process for understanding and redeeming the past in order to live well in the present and into the future. Leslie Leyland Fields has used and taught this practical and inspiring writing process for decades, helping people from all walks of life to access memory and sift through the truth of their stories. This is not just a book for writers. Each one of us has a story, and understanding God's work in our stories is a vital part of our faith. Through the spiritual practice of writing, we can remember his acts among us, declare his glory among the nations, and pass on to others what we have witnessed of God in this life: the mysterious, the tragic, the miraculous, the ordinary. With a companion video curriculum from RightNow Media, this is a why-not book as opposed to a how-to book. Leslie asks each of us an important question: Why not learn to tell your story in the context of the grander story of God?

Herrera, 2015-12-28

Teaching strategies and tools have been updated to reflect new brain research and to keep pace with our nation's ever-changing demographics and constant shift in expectations for K-12 students. The structure and format of this bestseller has also been revised to help educators find information quickly. The American Dream for Students of Color Gretchen Givens Generett, Amy M. Olson, 2021-03-24 In The American Dream for Students of Color, the tenets of the American Dream as a merit narrative enacted in schools are examined to better understand how beliefs about talent, hard work, and perseverance support the status quo rather than critically analyze barriers to educational success for students of color and students from a poverty context. Using narrative methodologies, this book explores the connections and consistencies within and between their personal narratives and the narratives of school youth and educators that work with them. Based on analysis of these shared stories, the authors argue for the importance of moving from individualized success stories that reify hard work and perseverance to collective communal stories that serve to break down myths of meritocracy, critically examine inequities, and move educational advocates forward in authentic, audacious, hopeful ways. Departure Stories Elisa

Bernick, 2022-10-04 We weren't religious per se. The most frequent mention of God in our house was my mother yelling "Goddammit!" Elisa Bernick grew up different: i.e. Jewish in the white Christian suburb of New Hope, Minnesota, during the 1960s and early 1970s. At the center of her world was her mother, Arlene, who was a foul-mouthed, red-headed suburban Samson who ultimately shook the walls of their family until it collapsed. Poignant and provocative, Departure Stories peers through the broader lens of Minnesota's recent history to reveal an intergenerational journey through trauma that unraveled the Bernick family and many others. Deftly interweaving reporting, archival material, memoir, jokes, scrapbook fragments, personal commentary, and one very special Waikiki Meatballs recipe, Bernick explores how the invisible baggage of place and memory, Minnesota's uniquely antisemitic history, and the cultural shifts of feminism and changing marital expectations contributed to her family's eventual implosion. Departure Stories Betty Crocker Made Matzo Balls and other lies is a personal exploration of erasure, immigrants, and exiles that examines the ways departures from places, families, and memory have far-reaching effects. Writing Africa in the Short Story Ernest Emenyonu, 2013 The Jewish Forum, 1928
