The Small Press Book Review, 1989 Men of Our Time Fred Moramarco, Al Zolynas, 1992-10-01 In this groundbreaking volume Fred Moramarco and Al Zolynas bring together a comprehensive and widely representative selection of poetry reflecting both the diversity and commodity of male experience in the United States today Since the beginning of the contemporary phase of the women's movement in the 1960s various anthologies devoted to the poetry of women have articulated and defined a distinctive sensibility attuned to the particularities of a woman's life in our time Although much has been written recently about the male role in our society as well the discussion generally has assumed a sociopsychological or mythic perspective Poetry Moramarco and Zolynas believe can reveal most about the nature of male life today especially the enormous changes men have experienced in recent years As the editors state in their introduction A quiet revolution has been taking place in men's poetry over the past few decades as men have been chronicling the history of their hearts and have been examining those relationships central to their being in the world their connections to their fathers and mothers their own sense of fatherhood and of being sons and brothers their marriages divorces and other aspects of their love lives as well as the ways they conceive of maleness and femaleness The poems collected in Men of Our Time 257 from more than 170 poets include a wide mix of ethnic and racial perspectives that reflect the multicultural tenor of American life They reveal men's most intimate feelings about the loss of childhood sexual anxieties and fantasies aging self sufficiency and dependency and the perennial quest for a masculine identity Above all the poems are unapologetically grounded in a distinctly male experience or imagination Men of Our Time reclaims a poetry that is connected to and expressive of men's lives in the closing decade of the twentieth century Nightmarks Carlos Reyes, 1990 Poemas de la Isla Josefina de la Torre, 2000 Born in the Canary Islands in 1907 Josefina de la Torre was one of only two women included in Gerardo Diego's prestigious Poesia española 1934 Between 1927 and 1935 she lived in Madrid impressing Federico Garcia Lorca Rafael Alberti Pedro Salinas and others in the Generation of 1927 with both her talent and beauty De la Torre is the author of four collections of poems and two short novels Regardless of the popularity and critical success of her work in the Spanish speaking world this is the first time any of de la Torre's books have been published in English Carlos Reyes's thoughtful and spirited translation of two volumes of her poetry will bring this important poet to an audience long deprived of the beauty and power of her work

Rain City Review Brian C. Hamilton, Douglas Spangle, Lynn D. DelMargo, Laura Smith, 1994-04 The Book of Shadows Carlos Reyes, 2009 Over the years Carlos Reyes has written poems of the highest order and it's a pleasure to see so many of them gathered together in The Book of Shadows This is a necessary book that clearly shows the author's deep humanity and his sophisticated skill like all first rate work it returns our lives to us In poem after poem readers are given those quick shocks of recognition which make them say Yes this is the way it is Such an important contribution to our literature deserves to be recognized and honored by everyone who cares about the art of poetry Vern Rutsala Willow Springs, 1990
